OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL OF THE ARMY.

6. The office of the Inspector General in the War Department is a bureau of the War Department, similar in its character to the "office of the Quartermaster General," and the "office of the Commissary General," and the "office of The Adjutant General," etc., and also "in the status and authority of its chief," so far as his authority and status as a chief of bureau in the War Department go. (Op. J. A. G., May 3, 1898; 3314-I, O. I. G.)

INSPECTORS GENERAL AND ACTING INSPECTORS GENERAL.

7. Sphere of inquiry includes every branch of military affairs except when specially limited in Army Regulations or orders. (A. R., 895.)

8. Will exercise a comprehensive and general observation within the command to which assigned over all that pertains to the efficiency of the Army, the condition and state of supplies of all kinds, of arms and equipments, of the expenditure of public property and moneys, and the condition of accounts of all disbursing officers of every branch of the service, of the conduct, discipline, and efficiency of officers and troops, and report with strict impartiality in regard to all irregularities that may be discovered. (A. R., 895.)

9. From time to time they will make such suggestions as may appear to them practicable for the correction of any defect that may come under their observation. (A. R., 895.)

10. When assigned to a military command, they are under the immediate direction of its commanding general; when not so assigned, they are under the orders of the War Department. (A. R., 896.)

11. They will make such special inspections as the commanding general may direct within the limits of his command. (A. R., 896.)

12. Report by letter on arriving at their stations to the Inspector General of the Army. (A. R., 897.)

(A. R., 843.)

14. Personal reports when absent with leave, detached, etc. (A. R., 64, 841, 842.)

NOTE.—A leave of absence commences on the day following that on which the officer departs from his proper station. The day of departure, whatever the hour, is counted as a day of duty; the day of return as a day of absence. (A. R., 58.) The day of departure from command or station in the case of detached service and the day of return from such service are counted as days of detached service. (Cir. 41, W. D., 1909.)

15. Reporting in person on arriving in Washington or at the headquarters of a division or department. (A. R., 839.)

16. Will furnish to the Inspector General of the Army copies of all orders and written instructions received for tours of inspection or for investigations, giving the nature of the duty they are going to perform, the probable time they will be at each place to be visited during their tour, and the probable date they will return to their stations. (A. R., 897.)

NOTE.—Officers of the Inspector General's Department in the Philippines Division are not required to furnish copies of orders and written instructions for tours of inspection, nor itineraries of routes of travel, etc., called for by A. R., 897. (10039, O. I. G.)

17. At the close of each fiscal year the inspector general assigned to a military command will submit to its commanding general a report covering the operations of the Inspector General's Department within the command during the preceding year, together with such recommendations for the improvement of the service as he may deem fit, and will forward a copy thereof, through military channels, to The Adjutant General of the Army, who will transmit it to the Inspector General of the Army. (A. R., 897.) Copy of annual report intended for the Inspector General of the Army should be forwarded as above in time to reach his office not later than August 10 of each year. (13505-G, O. I. G.)

18. An officer of the Inspector General's Department, upon being relieved from duty as inspector general of a division, will submit directly to the Inspector General of the Army a statement showing the status of the inspections pertaining to that division, including those assigned under A. R., 910. (13505, O. I. G.)

19. Will make known their orders or instructions to commanding officers and other officers whose troops and affairs they are directed to inspect. (A. R., 898.)

20. When making inspections within the territorial limits of the command of an officer subordinate to the officer ordering the inspections, they will, prior to the inspections, furnish to the subordinate commander a copy of their orders and an itinerary of their route in so far as they relate to the inspection of parts of his command. (A. R., 898.)

21. Not to give orders unless specially authorized, then only in the name of the superior giving such authority. (A. R., 899.)

22. All irregularities to be reported with strict impartiality. (A. R., 899.)

26. When detailed to investigate alleged attempts to defraud the Government, or any irregularity or misconduct of any officer or agent of the United States, they have authority to administer oaths to witnesses. (A. R., 901; R. S., 188, amended by act Feb. 13, 1911, 36 Stat. L., 898; M. L., 691.)

"The Inspector General's Department is an instrumentality placed at the disposal of the Secretary of War to assist him in military administration. It is not, in any sense, a tribunal; it has no power to reach findings or to impose punishment. It has power to administer oaths, when necessary, in the course of an investigation and is regulated by the requirements of section 183, Revised Statutes, as amended. * * *

"The officers of the Inspector General's Department are confidential agents of the Secretary of War, whose duty it is to collect the facts in respect to a particular incident; they are bound to make as full a presentation on both sides as is possible, their conduct in that regard being regulated by the requirements of paragraph 893 of the Army Regulations, 1908 [A. R., 900 of 1910]. * * *

"These investigations (by officers of the Inspector General's Department) are, as a rule, confidential; a different procedure may be prescribed by the Secretary of War or by the officer ordering the investigation; a public investigation may be directed, and those whose conduct is being made the subject of examination may be permitted to appear, to produce witnesses, and to cross-examine. * * *

"In the case in reference, I understand Mr. _____ has been permitted to be present during the conduct of the investigation. This is a matter that is committed to the discretion and judgment of the inspector, and is not regarded as a right which can be demanded by the person whose acts or conduct are being made the subject of investigation.

"If the investigation is confidential, the report is equally confidential, and there is no authority of law or practice in furnishing any person with copies of the Inspector General's notes. * * *

"I think that the Inspector General correctly states the practice in respect to military investigations which are conducted by officers of his department, in which the practice is not to receive briefs. * * *" (Op. Judge Advocate General, Nov. 22, 1909; 13738-B, O. I. G.)

The Secretary of War, November 24, 1909, said, with respect to a request for a copy of the notes of testimony as taken from day to day, as follows: "In conformity with the established practice in such cases the investigation is a confidential one, and I am advised that, as the investigation itself is confidential in character, there is no authority of law or practice for furnishing any person with copies of the Inspector General's notes in advance of their submission to the Secretary of War." (13738-B, O. I. G.)

27. Inspectors general will, from time to time, designate the articles which, in their opinion, should be procured and kept for sale by the Subsistence Department, to officers and enlisted men while in garrison or permanent camps, and while in temporary camps or on active campaign. (A. R., 902; see also R. S., 1144.)

For latest sales list, see G. O. 172, W. D., 1909.

28. When assigned to a military command, they will each be allowed the necessary clerks and one messenger, who will be assigned by the Secretary of War. (A. R., 896.)

29. Every facility and assistance, including clerical aid, if requested, will be furnished inspectors by commanding and other officers whose troops and affairs they are directed to inspect. (A. R., 898.)

30. The efficient discharge of the duty of inspecting officers requires a thorough acquaintance with the rules and usages of the service, the regulations and laws for the government of the Army, the systems of instruction for the troops, and the general principles of the military profession. Industrious attention must therefore be given by inspectors to the study of such matters as may pertain to their sphere of investigation; and habits of study and critical observation should be assiduously cultivated. (G. O. 5, A. G. O., 1866.)

31. Under the provisions of A. R., 888 (A. R., 895, 1910), inspectors general will inquire into and report upon the business methods of all chief quartermasters and other officers on duty in the Quartermaster's Department under the conditions named in G. O. 18 and 73, W. D., 1908, with special reference to the application of the principles enunciated therein. (G. O. 18, 73, 176, W. D., 1908.) Also see Cir. 7, Q. M. G. O., 1909, as amended.

32. Inspectors should offer their services (to inspect property or examine other matters) to post authorities whenever they officially visit them at times not specified for a regular inspection.

33. Whenever a complete inspection is made of an organized body of troops the inspector will ascertain whether there is on hand any excess of ordnance property over the needs of the organization, or any surplus not borne on returns, and will inquire into and report upon such excess or surplus wherever found to exist. (Cir. 87, W. D., 1907.)

34. Orders to inspectors about to visit posts, commands, etc., will be given in the form of letters and not published, as it is desirable that the inspectors shall see the posts, depots, etc., under normal conditions. (Cir. 22, W. D., 1903, par. 11.)

35. Orders contemplating the payment of mileage should state the specific points to which travel is directed, whenever it is practicable to embody such information in the orders. (Paymaster General, Mar. 7, 1906; 10381-11, O. I. G.)

36. To enable the Quartermaster General to communicate with inspectors before they inspect quartermaster depots, inspectors general of departments are requested to notify the Quartermaster General direct of the probable date of such inspections. (Does not apply to the Philippine Islands; 11844, O. I. G.)

37. On return to his station from an official tour an inspector should report verbally to his commander any matters that in his judgment require immediate attention, to be followed later by the written record. (Cir. 22, W. D., 1903, par. 9.)

38. The necessity for making an inspection on a Sunday by an inspector general is a question to be passed upon by the inspector, who is responsible to higher authority for his action. (Secretary of War, May 19, 1905; 10054, A-1, O. I. G.)

INSPECTIONS.

39. Hereafter no portion of the appropriation for mileage to officers shall be expended for inspections or investigations except such as are especially ordered by the Secretary of War, or such as are made by Army and department commanders in visiting their commands, and those made by Inspector General's Department in pursuance of law, Army Regulations, or orders issued by the Secretary of War. (Act Aug. 6, 1894, G. O. 32, 1894, and Cir. 16, 1903, A. G. O.) See also A. R., 1307, as to the Philippine Islands.

40. Special inspections and investigations within the limits of a command (territorial or tactical) may be made under orders of the commander thereof; but in all cases involving travel his selection of officers to perform such duty shall be restricted to inspectors general, acting inspectors general, or officers of the General Staff Corps on duty as such, at his headquarters under War Department assignment. (A. R., 903; see also A. R., 1307.)

(A. R., 905.)

47. The Secretary of War directs that in making periodical inspections of Army transports, the inspections be extended to develop whether or not the Army Transport Service Regulations prohibiting the introduction of liquor and gambling are strictly enforced, and whether there is any illegitimate traffic in commissary supplies by those having access to such supplies. If irregularities in this respect are found, responsibility therefor will be fixed and recommendation made looking to correction. (Cir. Letter, O. I. G., Feb. 17, 1911; 4481-AP, O. I. G.)

(A. R. 192.) See par. 899, post.

67. The division commander will inspect the troops under his command at least once each year, and will assure himself by personal examination and observation that all officers and men under his control are efficient in the performance of duty; that the troops are thoroughly drilled and instructed in their field duties and tactical exercises; that supplies are properly distributed; that proper care is exercised in the purchase and preservation of public property; and that strict economy is exercised in all public expenditures. (A. R., 191.)

68. Inspections by, or under direction of, division commander to be made at arsenals, depots of the supply departments, general hospitals, general recruiting depots, the United States military prison, or any branch thereof, or other place, with the exception of the United States Military Academy, at which officers and enlisted men are on duty within the limits of the division; scope of such inspections; reports, etc. (A. R. 189, amended by G. O. 99, W. D., 1911.)

69. All supplies furnished under contract or otherwise will be subjected, whenever practicable, to the personal inspection of a commissioned officer at the time of delivery; otherwise such inspections will be made by civilian inspectors under his personal supervision, subject to test and verification at irregular intervals and at unexpected times by such officer. (G. O. 167, W. D., 1905.)

The Secretary of War has decided that all drugs and food for the Army, whether purchased in the United States proper or in the out-lying possessions, shall conform to the standard required by law. (Indorsement, A. G. O., Mar. 18, 1908; 12346, O. I. G.)

70. Of fresh beef and beef cattle. (W. D. G. O. 27, 1904; 28, 1906; M. S. D., 150, 151, 152, 158, 331 (1), 333.)

71. Of beef cattle and beef, by veterinarians. (G. O. 28, W. D., 1906; M. S. D., 151, 152, 157, 158, 160.)

73. By the Ordnance Department, of field artillery matériel issued to the organized militia. (G. O. 225, W. D., 1910, G. O. 116, W. D., 1911.)

74. Of raw material used by manufacturers in furnishing finished products. (G. O. 167, W. D., 1905.)

Exercises.—Ceremonies and drills prescribed in the drill regulations of the various arms, first aid, signaling, a problem, fire drill, call to arms, etc.

Artillery inspection of Coast Artillery post.—See D. R. C. A., 621-628.

76. Inspections of troops will be conducted as prescribed in the authorized drill regulations. When the command consists of more than one company the inspection will, if practicable, be preceded by a review. (A. R., 911.)

77. In the case of inspections by a superior commander, or by a staff officer deputed to perform that duty, such officer may prescribe any regulation uniform and equipment according to the special object which he has in view. (U. R., 35.)

78. Subjects which inspections of garrisoned posts should embrace. (A. R., 913.)

79. Special attention should be paid by inspectors to the extent and thoroughness of the instruction of troops, especially for field service. To this end such practical tests as are possible should be made in regard to the subjects prescribed in the various regulations and other authorized books. The efficiency of the mobile troops should be thoroughly tested under the requirements of orders promulgating schemes of instruction. The problems or exercises for these tests should be adapted to the strength of the command, so that officers will, as far as possible, perform the duties which pertain to their rank, and an opportunity be thus afforded to observe their capacity to perform the duties that would devolve upon them in actual field service. These tests should include the preparation of field orders, reports, sketching, etc.

The extent of the instruction of noncommissioned officers and soldiers, especially in scouting, patrolling, etc., should also be observed. At posts where there is sufficient wagon transportation to form a train, and where there are pack animals, practical tests of the instruction of these should be made.

A list of the authorized schools is given in paragraph 877 (post), and the value of the training and instruction at these schools, as shown by the work of the graduates, should be observed as opportunities offer. At a number of posts there should be found bakers, cooks, farriers, blacksmiths, and saddlers who have been trained at the Army schools.

Machine-gun platoons, the use of range finders by officers, and their ability to accurately estimate distances are other matters that should be inquired into. And, in general, it is desired that practical tests shall, as far as possible, be made to determine the result of the theoretical and practical instruction prescribed for the Army. These are all matters which affect the efficiency of the command.

80. "The Secretary of War directs that the attention of infantry officers of your command be called to the purpose and importance of this training [use of the bayonet as a fighting weapon and especially to the provisions of paragraphs 75-96, Manual of Bayonet Exercise], and that future inspections, by whomever made, include a thorough demonstration of the bayonet efficiency of every company and a full report of deficiencies, if any found." (Circular letter, W. D., A. G. O., Nov. 10, 1911, to Division Commanders; 14661-A, O. I. G.)

81. The Secretary of War directs that the following, which was communicated to department commanders by letter October 29, 1910, be also carried out by the officers of the Inspector General's Department at their regular inspections:

"In these inspections, all mounted officers of infantry regiments and of Staff Corps will be required to show proficiency in riding. In the inspection of mounted troops, there will be an actual trial of all officers and men over jumps of reasonable stiffness, including hurdles, ditches, fences, and other obstacles simulating those which would ordinarily be met going across country. Inspections will include a rigid examination of officers' mounts, and in all cases where private mounts do not come up to the required standard you will take the necessary action to insure stoppage of pay and forage for the same. Officers who are unable to comply with this test and requirement will be reported to The Adjutant General." (Instructions of the Chief of Staff, Dec. 7, 1911; 13505-U; O. I. G.)

82. Inspector will especially inquire into and report by name, affirmatively or negatively as the case may be, whether the field officers of the command are believed to be physically fit to perform all their duties in the field. (G. O. 181, W. D., 1907.) Decided that line and staff are included in this requirement. (Secretary of War, July 25, 1907; 11804-a, O. I. G.) The words "field officers" are held to include all officers below the grade of brigadier general and above the grade of captain. (G. O. 198, W. D., 1907.)

83. Inspector while inspecting a command will call upon post, regimental, battalion, and company commanders and post surgeons for a report by name of any officer under their immediate command who is incapacitated for service either mentally, morally, or physically. When any officer is so reported the inspector will thoroughly investigate the case and submit his conclusions therein to the officer ordering the inspection. (A. R., 914.) The reports of commanders and surgeons will be in writing and signed by the officers making them.

84. Inspector will ascertain the number and percentage of desertions from each organization during the 12 months preceding the inspection, and, if abnormal, special inquiry as to the cause therefor will be made and the result briefly reported. (A. R., 913, sec. 7.)

85. Chaplains will not be required to turn out with troops on occasions of ceremony, but will be inspected at chapels, school-rooms, libraries, or such places as may be designated by commanding officers. (A. R., 46.)

86. Hospital Corps will not be required to attend ceremonies, except when directed by the commanding officer, and will ordinarily be inspected and mustered at the hospital. (A. R., 1436.)

87. Chief baker will be inspected and mustered at the post bakery. (A. R., 339.)

88. One cook of a company and such of the regular attendants of a general mess as the commanding officer may designate will be inspected and mustered in the kitchen or mess hall. Cooks may be excused from ordinary post duties and from target practice, but the attendants may be excused from the ordinary post duties only. (A. R., 333.)

89. Extra and special duty men will attend as many inspections, drills, and other duties as the commanding officer deems practicable, unless specifically excused by higher authority. (A. R., 174.)

90. When practicable, the ambulance fully equipped for service will be presented for inspection with the animals attached. (A. R., 1455.)

91. Inspectors will, at the annual inspection of posts, examine the methods adopted for the care and preservation of the library, condemn and destroy such books as may be unserviceable and worthless, and note action in their reports of the inspections of the posts. (A. R., 347.) See par. 180, post.

92. Inspectors should personally investigate complaints, especially those which may require action of the War Department, such as general unfitness of recruits received, inferior quality of supplies, etc.; and irregularities and deficiencies, such as failure of the supply departments to meet conditions, pitting of guns, etc.; and when such matters are of sufficient importance to record them in the inspection report, they will state their own views and conclusions. (Note 3, Form 5, I. G. D.)

93. Inspectors must give heed to all complaints of either officers or enlisted men. If they are well founded and too serious to correct by kindly advice they should be presented to the division commander, with a written statement of the accused accompanying the report, upon the return of the inspector to his station. (Par. 5, Cir. 22, W. D., 1903; A. R., 196, 198, amended by G. O. 87, W. D., 1911.)

Special instructions to inspectors.

94. To make test check between retained vouchers of the quartermaster and the clothing accounts of the organization, covering one or more issues since the preceding inspection. (Cir. letter, O. I. G., Dec. 27, 1905; 10558, O. I. G.)

95. To ascertain whether regulations for care and use of fur and blanket-lined canvas overcoats have been complied with. (Cir. letter, O. I. G., Mar. 28, 1906; 10712, O. I. G.) See A. R., 1184, and Q. M. M., 623.

96. To ascertain and report what telephones of post system are installed at places other than those prescribed in G. O. 97, W. D., 1906, amended by G. O. 170, W. D., 1908. (Cir. letter, O. I. G., June 5, 1907; 11697, O. I. G.)

To take especial notice of condition of all telephones and field glasses of the Signal Corps both in use and in storage, with a view to the remedying of such deficiencies or bad conditions as may be developed. (Cir. letter, O. I. G., July 14, 1904; 9513, O. I. G.)

97. To note and report at their regular inspections all failures to comply with either the letter or the spirit of G. O. 194, W. D., 1909, relative to morning and guard reports. (P. 6, G. O. 194, W. D., 1909.)

98. To exercise especial care in making their inspections to see that the instructions of the War Department relative to the points hereinafter mentioned are observed: (1) The avoidance of unnecessary correspondence; (2) the avoidance of reports not prescribed in regulations; (3) a strict compliance with the War Department instructions governing the method of transacting public business. (13505-P, O. I. G.)

99. To make particular inquiry that, in accordance with the provisions of Circular 20, W. D., 1908, interpreting A. R., 235 of 1904, as amended by G. O. 139, W. D., 1907 (A. R., 244 of 1910), battalion and squadron commanders are not eliminated as channels through which correspondence pertaining to the personnel, instruction, discipline, and equipment of their commands should pass. (13505-F, O. I. G.) See par. 577, post.

100. In a number of reports of inspections of posts lack of uniformity in equipment or supplies has been reported as a deficiency, although all the articles referred to were in serviceable condition and had been issued by a supply department of the Army. Lack of uniformity is to be regretted, but it is the policy of the War Department to continue in use, so long as they are serviceable, such articles, even though they may have been superseded by similar articles of a different pattern or color, and officers should receive credit instead of criticism for continuing them in use. (Cir. letter, O. I. G., Jan. 31, 1908; 12208, O. I. G.) See G. O. 129, W. D., 1911.

101. Field Artillery.—Inspectors will so conduct their inspections of field artillery as to ascertain whether the prescribed scheme of instruction is properly carried out by regimental, battalion, and battery commanders, and by adjutants, and will report all failures to comply with the provisions of the order publishing such scheme. (Secretary of War, June 24, 1910; 14392, O. I. G.) Latest order: G. O. 46, W. D., 1911.

102. Inspectors are enjoined to test field artillery troops and matériel under both normal and unusual conditions. It must be remembered that field artillery will be required to follow the infantry and that its fire may be required in winter, in rain, and at night. (G. O. 46, W. D., 1911, par. 25.)

103. To inquire into the instruction of field artillery battalions as tactical units and to give special attention to this subject in their reports. (Chief of Staff, May 23, 1905.)

104. Coast Artillery.—An inspector should require coast artillery troops to show proficiency as infantry to the extent ordered in G. O.

93, W. D., 1905 (G. O. 229, W. D., 1910), and hence should turn them out for inspection other than at the guns, range, towers, etc.

Each coast artillery enlisted man of the grades indicated in section I, paragraph 1, G. O. 23, W. D., 1906, will be provided with the arms and equipments therein prescribed for such enlisted men. They will not be provided with intrenching tools.

The coast artillery enlisted men turned out for inspection will not be provided with either field or surplus kits as such except in immediate preparation for active duty in the field as infantry when specifically designated for such duty by orders from the War Department. In such case they also draw the intrenching tools prescribed in G. O. 23, W. D., 1906. (Secretary of War, June 9, 1906; 10821, O. I. G.)

105. Inspectors are enjoined to test coast artillery troops in the service of coast defense matériel under both normal and emergency conditions. All fire and mine commanders and superior commanding officers present at a post on the occasion of an inspection will be called on by the inspector to conduct personally a battle, fire, or mine command drill. (C. A. M. 11, 1910.)

106. When the annual inspection of a coast artillery post is made during the closed season, and the guns are laid up in heavy slushing oil, it is not contemplated that the guns shall be manned and the time of loading and serving ammunition taken, but the inspection should develop whether or not the guns are properly protected and laid up in slushing oil. (Cir. 88, W. D., 1907.)

107. To see whether the Drill Regulations for Coast Artillery are complied with in inserting primers at drill and attaching the lanyard. (10457, O. I. G.) There is no objection to the use of a wooden wedge behind the tripping lever to render the lanyard safety device operative during drill with the gun in the position from battery. It is a harmless expedient to simulate service conditions and admit of the training of the personnel in the proper pull of the lanyard. (14283-B, O. I. G.)

108. To inspect emplacement books to see that instructions for care and operation of 10-inch Taylor-Raymond chain ammunition hoists are entered where such hoists are installed. (Cir. letter, O. I. G., Dec. 8, 1904; 9781, O. I. G.)

109. Inspectors making inspections of coast artillery posts will include a thorough inspection of all boats assigned to coast artillery service at such posts, and if any lack of care or any uncleanliness in connection with such boats is observed, special mention of that fact will be made in the report, including the names of the officers responsible for such a condition. (G. O. 235, W. D., 1909.)

INSPECTION OF AN ARSENAL OR DEPOT.

110. The inspection of arsenals and depots of the various supply departments is of great importance and should be thoroughly and carefully made and the conclusions be based as far as possible upon the personal observation of the inspector. It is impossible to prescribe, except in a general way, the manner and extent of the inspection. If written questions are submitted for answers of commanding officer they should not be sent until after the inspection has been commenced, as it is desirable that these inspections should be made under normal conditions. All statistical data obtained should be filed and not incorporated in the report unless their use is desired as a basis for remark.

The following subjects are suggested as matters for inquiry and investigation:

(a) Officers.—Names of those who are and have been in charge or on duty as assistants during period covered by inspection; capacity and manner in which duties are performed; amount of personal supervision and control exercised by officers over matters under their charge; number of officers sufficient or deficient for the duty; any disqualified for any reason for service. (See pars. 82, 83, ante.)

(b) Civilian employees.—List of, with duties and compensation.

Determine by observation as far as possible if they are efficient and competent; that they actually perform the duties for which employed, reported, and paid. The actual presence of all employees should be verified. In the absence of retained receipt rolls, Form 1, Quartermaster's Department, may be used for this purpose; a comparison of this form with the time books in actual use is desirable.

Any change in number of such employees during period covered by inspection. Can any reduction in number be made without impairment to the service?

(c) Enlisted men.—If any enlisted men are on duty at the establishment, inquire as to their number, efficiency, and discipline; the state of their arms and equipments; sufficiency, uniformity, and fit of their clothing; their messing and medical attendance; the condition of their barracks and the facilities for bathing; whether the work performed by them is such as properly pertains to their position in the military service, and the necessity and economy for their being on such duty; whether the post exchange (at arsenal) is properly conducted.

Ordnance detachments should be inspected in ranks. Their arms and equipments are the same as prescribed for infantry. (See Sec. I, par. 1, G. O. 23, W. D., 1906.)

(d) Buildings and grounds.—Location and extent of grounds; number and capacity of buildings occupied and used and sufficiency of same; owned by the United States or rented; if rented, what is the rate and is it reasonable; are buildings suitable and properly ventilated; any improvement of grounds or repairs to buildings since last inspection; any new construction; if so, a list of buildings, material, purpose, and cost should be obtained for incorporation in report; any improvements or repairs recommended.

What protection against fire; what means taken to prevent theft; are these precautions satisfactory: if practicable, test fire system by unexpected fire alarm; any losses from fire or theft since last inspection.

Water supply: Service; cost. System of sewerage and drainage.

All buildings owned by the United States should be numbered. The grounds occupied should be gone over by the inspector to see that no unauthorized buildings have been erected; all buildings should be inspected and all rooms entered to observe the condition, arrangement, and use, and that the buildings are used solely for the purpose intended.

General appearance of the grounds in respect to cleanliness and good order.

To see that stores are systematically arranged, properly piled and stored, and that the rooms are neat, clean, and properly ventilated; to inquire into the system of lighting and whether any uncovered lights are used; whether the storerooms are infested with rats or other vermin; if so, means taken to destroy them.

(e) Business.—Purpose and function of depot or arsenal.

Articles manufactured: List of principal ones.

Articles repaired: List of principal ones.

Articles purchased: List of principal ones.

Total disbursements during the period covered by inspection; same during previous corresponding period.

Total expenditures for following purposes during period covered by inspection and for corresponding previous period: Rents; transportation; labor; purchases; repairs; new construction; miscellaneous.

Any unauthorized funds. (A. R., 323.)

Are all issues made in bulk.

For what period and for what number of troops are supplies kept on hand.

Any sales; if so, to what class of persons, and amount realized from such during period.

Any articles on hand in excess of needs.

Deficient supply of any articles.

Any articles on hand of unsatisfactory quality.

Value of the property condemned during the period covered by the inspection. Amount realized from sale of same.

Any sales of waste and accumulations under A. R., 690. (See pars. 1198, 1199, post.)

What is the system of filling requisitions. Is it satisfactory. Is there any delay in filling requisitions.

(f) Means of transportation.—Obtain a list of all kinds, showing purposes for which used. Necessity for. Condition.

(g) Purchases.—Are the regulations (A. R., 524 to 574, inclusive) strictly complied with, especially paragraph 549, that proposals will be opened and read aloud at the time and place appointed for the opening, and each proposal will then and there be numbered and entered on an abstract. The failure to comply with any requirements of this paragraph opens the door to irregularities and frauds in the award. The inspector should personally examine the methods of inspection of supplies delivered under contracts and assure himself that they are made by competent, honest inspectors; that the methods actually used are sufficient and that the supplies received are in all respects fully up to the requirements of the contract. In many cases standard samples are on hand which can be used in comparisons. Where weights, widths, lengths, color, etc., are stipulated, they should all be verified.

Examine the methods of receiving, handling, storing, and shipping property, to determine if properly and economically done.

Carefully examine whether the purchase and distribution of supplies are made to the best interest of the Government. (Instructions, Secretary of War, Apr. 6, 1911; 15008, O. I. G.; Cir. 5, Q. M. G. O., 1911.)

(h) Manufactures.—If any articles are manufactured, to inquire into the supply of the raw materials: Are they purchased as required by law; is the method of inspection used such as to insure the delivery of materials in the quantities and of the qualities contracted and paid for. Is the plant arranged so as to permit of the most economical handling of the articles in process of manufacture; for instance, do such articles travel in the same direction from process to process. Is there any system of cost keeping to determine the cost of the manufacture of each or of any of the articles made. Is the system satisfactory. How does the actual cost of some of the principal items compare with the published cost at which the articles are to be charged to officers and soldiers in case of sale or loss.

The inspector should note whether unauthorized articles, especially any intended for private use, are being made, and whether or not work of this kind is ever done. If so, the authority for same and the manner of reimbursement of the United States.

REPORTS OF INSPECTIONS, STATEMENTS OF IRREGULARITIES AND DEFICIENCIES, AND REMEDIAL ACTION REPORTS.

111. The written reports of inspectors general and acting inspectors general will set forth a correct return of the troops, the number present at and absent from the station, and the absentees from inspection, and whether irregularities, etc., reported at last inspection have been remedied; after which will follow a statement of the results of the inspection, dealing only with defects, deficiencies, irregularities, recommendations, and commendations whereof the various items will be paragraphed and stated separately. These items will be grouped under the department within whose sphere the responsibility for the conditions stated falls, viz: Commanding officer, Quartermaster's Department, Corps of Engineers, etc. Brief statement will be made of the various drills and exercises held for the inspector and the report concluded with an exposition of the conclusions arrived at as to the military efficiency, discipline, and instruction of the command. (A. R., 912.)

NOTE.—For approved "Form for report of an inspection of a garrisoned post," with "Directions," and "Form for statement of irregularities and deficiencies," see appendix.

112. The object of the inspection of a post is, first, to ascertain the military efficiency of the command; and, second, to determine whether or not the laws and regulations are complied with by the executive and administrative departments of the post.

The efficiency depends upon supply and instruction, and weakness in these respects indicates deficiencies and irregularities. Failure to comply with orders and regulations indicates irregularity. It comes within the scope of the duty of an inspector to ascertain the practical working of orders and regulations. If, in his opinion, certain orders or regulations do not work well, or fit the case for which they were intended, it is entirely within his province to state his opinion and make recommendation in reference thereto. Compliance with orders and regulations, or existing law, should in no case be reported as an irregularity or a deficiency for which any responsibility can attach to local authority. If the inspector desires to make any remarks in such reference, they should be in the form of a recommendation or as a conclusion. The statement of irregularities and deficiencies should not contain the personal opinion of the inspector as to the wisdom of a law or regulation. If he desires to bring any such subject before higher authority, it should be done in a separate paper, in which he should state his conclusions and recommendations.

The inspection of a post refers to a particular duty—a particular locality; and a report of such inspection should be confined to facts, conclusions, and recommendations with respect to that post only. General questions involving betterment, etc., in the service should be made the subject of separate report to the commander upon whose staff the inspector is serving, with a view to forwarding for consideration of the War Department, if appealing to the commander as possessing merit, etc. Including all sorts of subjects in the report of an inspection of a post defeats the object of the inspection, confuses the issue, and is apt to militate against prompt action of higher authority. (12291, O. I. G.)

113. Reports of inspections of troops will contain a statement of the names of the various drills, from the setting-up exercises to the evolutions of the highest organization examined by the inspector. A similar statement will recite the tests of the classes in signaling and the Hospital Corps in litter-bearer drill and first aid to the wounded.

114. When public buildings are criticised, etc., in an inspection report, the designation and number (see A. R., 1035), should be given, as Barracks Nos. 5, 6; Officers' Quarters Nos. 7, 8; Granary No. 9, etc. (Cir. letters, O. I. G., Jan. 26, 1894, and Oct. 17, 1910; 52-A, 2, and 13505-M, O. I. G.)

115. It is desired that inspectors mention in their reports, by name, officers who are deserving of commendation for the superior condition of their commands. (Cir. letter, O. I. G., Sept. 11, 1905; 10334-A, 1, O. I. G.)

116. When an irregularity or a deficiency, based on a regulation or an order, is reported, the specific regulation or order will be cited in the report of the inspection and in the statement of irregularities and deficiencies furnished the commanding officer. (12519, O. I. G.)

117. In the inspection of a recruiting station, the inquiries and examinations by the inspector should be complete and searching; but so far as the conditions are found to be satisfactory a single general statement to that effect will suffice for the report. The statement of the results of the inspection should deal only with defects, deficiencies, irregularities, recommendations, and commendations. (A. R., 912.) So far as practicable the conclusions of the inspector should be based on his own observation rather than on the recruiting officer's replies to questions. To set forth statistics, descriptions, and other information, which are already of record in The Adjutant General's Office, is superfluous. (Cir. letter, O. I. G., Mar. 15, 1907; 10401, O. I. G.) See par. 1406, post.

118. Reports of prescribed inspections of troops, stations, and accounts of disbursing officers under the authority of division commanders will be forwarded, through military channels, to The Adjutant General of the Army and transmitted to the Inspector General of the Army. In case irregularities, deficiencies, or misconduct are reported, a commander in forwarding a report will state what remedies he has applied or will apply to correct them, adding any recommendations that he may desire to make. All other reports of inspections will be forwarded directly to the Inspector General of the Army, except when otherwise specially directed, and all inspection reports not confidential will be filed in his office. The Inspector General will submit to the Chief of Staff all reports that contain matters requiring correction. (A. R., 909; 10455-A, O. I. G.) See par. 119, post.

119. The provisions of A. R., 902, 1904, as amended by G. O. 88, War Department, 1908 (continued as A. R., 909, 1910), contemplate that reports of inspections of arsenals, depots, general hospitals, recruiting stations, national cemeteries, money accounts of disbursing officers, etc., not under supervision of division commanders, shall be addressed and forwarded directly to the Inspector General of the Army. (Cir. letter, O. I. G., July 10, 1908; 12262-A, O. I. G.)

120. As ungarrisoned posts are under the division commander for inspection (A. R., 905) they are not among the inspections provided for in A. R., 910, and the reports of their inspection should be addressed to the adjutant general of the division. (12262-B, O. I. G.)

121. Copies or extracts from an inspection report reflecting upon or commanding the character or efficiency of an officer may be furnished him by the commander to whom the report is submitted. (A. R., 900.)

122. The Inspector General of the Army will forward to the Secretary of War extracts of all inspection reports containing specially favorable or unfavorable mention of any officer. Extracts respecting officers of the line and chaplains will be sent through The Adjutant General of the Army, and those respecting officers of the staff corps or departments through the respective chiefs of bureaus. Copies of unfavorable reports will be sent by chiefs of bureaus to officers reported upon, for their remarks, and these, when received, will be filed with the original extracts. (A. R., 848.)

123. The furnishing by inspectors of commendatory extracts from their inspection reports has not the sanction of custom or regulations. It is reserved for the commander to whom the report is submitted (or for higher authority) to determine whether such commendatory extracts shall be furnished. (9799-C, O. I. G.)

124. On completion of an inspection of a post or other command of troops, the inspector general or acting inspector general will furnish its commanding officer a written statement of all irregularities and deficiencies observed, which will be kept on file for the information of commanding officers and inspectors. The commanding officer will, as soon as practicable, submit to the next higher commander a copy of this statement, with a report showing what remedies he has applied or will apply to correct each of the irregularities or defects found, and will recommend the proper action with regard to those that he has not power or authority to remedy. These reports and statements will be promptly forwarded through military channels to The Adjutant General of the Army, by whom they will be transmitted to the Inspector General. At arsenals, depots, and stations not under the supervision of division or department commanders, inspectors will furnish like statements, and commanding officers will forward copies thereof with their reports to The Adjutant General for file with the inspection reports to which they pertain (A. R., 915.)

125. When an inspector furnishes the commanding officer of a post, arsenal, recruiting station, etc., or a transport quartermaster, with a list of irregularities, defects, or deficiencies, under A. R., 915, his report of inspection will conclude with a statement to the effect that such list has been furnished.

126. Trivial matters verbally called to attention of officers concerned and corrected on the spot should not be included either in the report or list of irregularities, but all defects, deficiencies, and irregularities of sufficient importance to be recorded in the report should also be included in the list furnished the commanding officer under A. R., 915.

127. Recommendations of inspectors on matters where initiative remedial action is within the province of the commanding officer (as, for example, "It is recommended that a crematory be constructed at this post for burning garbage") should be included in the list of defects, etc., furnished the commanding officer, as well as in the report. (Directions 9, Form for Report of an Inspection of a Garrisoned Post.)

128. The report of remedial action required by A. R., 908, 1904 (A. R. 915, 1910), will be over the commanding officer's own signature, and the action taken or recommended will be given separately for each item (numbered paragraph) on the list of irregularities and deficiencies. The commanding officer may, if necessary, obtain his information from responsible subordinates, but their reports should be filed in his office. (Cir. 14, W. D., 1906.)

129. Reports of remedial action under A. R., 908, 1904 (A. R. 915, 1910), from the commanding officers of coast artillery posts will be forwarded through the artillery district commanders. (Chief of Staff, Mar. 8, 1906; 10665, O. I. G.)

130. In order that it may be definitely known at the office of the Inspector General of the Army whether reports of inspections, investigations, etc., which have been acted upon by the War Department and returned to the division commander to note, etc., have been seen by the division inspector general, the latter will place his initials and the date below the last indorsement on such reports seen by him, unless he has occasion to use a formal indorsement. (13188, O. I. G.)

INSPECTION OF MONEY ACCOUNTS.

131. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of War to cause frequent inquiries to be made as to the necessity, economy, and propriety of all disbursements made by disbursing officers of the Army, and as to their strict conformity to the law appropriating the money; also to ascertain whether the disbursing officers of the Army comply with the law in keeping their accounts and making their deposits; such inquiries to be made by officers of the Inspection Department of the Army, or others detailed for that purpose: Provided, That no officer so detailed shall be in any way connected with the department or corps making the disbursement. Reports of such inspections shall be made out and forwarded to Congress with the annual report of the Secretary of War. (Act of Apr. 20, 1874; 18 Stat. L., 33.)

132. The concrete question is whether the act of April 20, 1874, applies to this commercial business (over the Alaskan cables and telegraph lines); and the answer seems to be that generally it does, but in some cases it does not. As the opinion of the Judge Advocate General shows that in all cases it is within the competence of the Secretary of War to order the inspection of all these accounts, and as no purpose would be subserved even if it were practicable to distinguish between those transactions involving line receipts and those not, it is advised that all the accounts pertaining to the commercial business over the Alaskan cables and telegraph lines be subjected to the inspection of the officers on the Inspector General's Department. (Memo. of the Chief of Staff, approved by the Secretary of War, Jan. 30, 1909; 12809, O. I. G.)

133. The accounts for disbursement of the funds pertaining to the International Commission of the Congresses of Navigation, the California Débris Commission, and the Board of Road Commissioners for Alaska, so far as these funds of this board are appropriated by Congress and disbursed by officers of the Army, fall within the provision of the act of April 20, 1874, and should be inspected by the Inspector General's Department, as contemplated by that act. (Memo. of the Chief of Staff, approved by the Secretary of War, June 30, 1908; 12468, O. I. G.)

134. Inspection of disbursements and money accounts of disbursing officers required by act of April 20, 1874, will be made by officers of the Inspector General's Department or by others detailed for that purpose, and, as far as practicable, at irregular intervals, but no officer so detailed shall be in any way connected with the corps or staff department making the disbursement. The frequency of these inspections will be regulated by the Secretary of War. (A. R., 908.)

135. The Inspector General of the Army will keep the inspectors general of the several military divisions informed, through the proper channels, of such inspections of accounts of disbursing officers and of places not under the immediate command of the division commander as the Secretary of War desires shall be made by them. Division commanders in issuing orders for inspections involving travel will consider the most advantageous and economical plan. (A. R., 910.)

136. Inspectors will inquire as to the necessity, economy, and propriety of all disbursements, their strict conformity to the law appropriating the money, and whether the disbursing officers comply with the law in keeping their accounts and making their deposits. (A. R., 916.)

137. Inspectors should investigate all infractions of the rules and regulations for conducting the business, keeping the records, and drawing checks; all disbursements, the necessity, economy, propriety, or legality of which are not clearly shown; or any irregularity whatever that may be developed by his "inquiry," and will note the result under the head of "Remarks" on the inspection report. (Note on Form 3, I. G. D.)

138. In inspecting paymasters' accounts inspectors will examine vouchers to see if they are properly filled out and briefed, that check books are kept in strict compliance with paragraph 75, Manual Pay Department, 1910, and that cashbooks are correctly kept, credits and debits for each day being properly posted. (9123, O. I. G.)

139. Inspectors should ascertain the number of check books in the possession of disbursing officers at time of inspection and should open and examine safes not in use to see if they contain any checks, check books, or money. (13210, O. I. G.)

140. Inspectors should ascertain whether A. R., 571 (see par. 665, post) has been complied with.

141. On the arrival of inspectors at posts the money accountability of all disbursing officers, such as quartermasters, commissaries, and post treasurers, should be inspected first. If cash is carried its verification should precede the inspection. (Par. 6, Cir. 22, W. D., 1903.)

Method of inspection.

142. The following are the general instructions for making inspections of money accounts:

(a) The inspector will obtain from the inspector general of the division or department the lists of the disbursing officer's outstanding checks at date of last inspection and the balance of funds for which he was accountable at that date, showing the amount in each depositary and the cash on hand; also the form No. 28, I. G. D., used by the last inspector.

(b) He will require from the disbursing officer a statement of his money accounts since date of last inspection and the distribution of his funds at date of present inspection on "Form 3," I. G. D., with a list of his outstanding checks on "Form 3a," I. G. D. (a separate list for each depositary) to include the last check embraced in the current inspection. The statement of his money accounts and each list of checks outstanding must be signed by the disbursing officer.

(c) The distribution of funds at date of inspection will be verified as follows:

The cash reported on hand will be counted. This should be done at the beginning of the inspection. (See par. 141, ante.)

The number of the last check drawn included in the current inspection will be verified from the proper check book.

Amounts claimed as on deposit in the several depositaries will be verified as to date and amount from their statements made to the disbursing officer.

For amounts claimed as deposited since last statement, the disbursing officer should have receipts from the depositary notifying him of the credit.

Credit can not be claimed for funds in transit except for cash or checks en route from the disbursing officer to the depositary for his credit.

The list of checks now outstanding should be compared with the previous list, and all checks borne on that list as still outstanding may be checked as correct, and all checks not so marked should then be verified by their stubs as to date, number, and amount. The list of outstanding checks, after having been footed and amount compared with that entered on the statement, will be forwarded immediately to the depositary as required by the instructions printed on the form.

(d) Check stubs should be compared with the depositary statements of paid checks. All checks drawn must be accounted for as either paid, outstanding, or canceled. Blank checks transferred to another officer must be accounted for by his receipt.

(e) An examination should be made of the paid vouchers that have not been forwarded to the chief of bureau and comparison made with the check stubs and with the entries in the cash book to see that they agree. Nothing in these instructions shall be construed as limiting the inspector's scrutiny of all disbursements, inquiring into the propriety of the expenditures, and verifying the correctness of the transactions.

(f) Checks for currency should be represented by cash vouchers. The excess of all cash received from checks or otherwise over the amount expended per vouchers, transferred to other officers or deposited to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States should be accounted for as replaced in a depositary or as cash on hand.

(g) The check stubs should be examined to ascertain if they are properly filled and required notations made.

(h) The cashbook must show all receipts from whatever source and that the disbursements, as well as the receipts, are entered in chronological order and under the proper appropriations. (R. S., 3643.)

(i) The total of the amounts disbursed, transferred, deposited to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States, and such other items as may be admitted as expenditures, for the period covered by the inspection, deducted from the total of receipts from all sources as shown by the cash book and the balance on hand at last inspection, will show the amount for which the officer is now accountable, and it should agree with the amount shown to be on hand by the statement of the distribution of funds.

(j) To the total amount of checks paid as shown by the bank statements received since last inspection, add the amount of checks reported as now outstanding, and from their sum deduct the amount of checks reported as outstanding at last inspection, and the remainder will be the total amount of checks drawn since last inspection.

(k) When the list of checks outstanding is received back from the depositary it will be verified as follows:

The officer's balance, as reported by the depositary, should equal the sum of the balance reported by the officer (Form 3), plus the amount of checks not marked "Paid," plus any credits reported by the depositary not claimed on the officer's statement, minus any checks paid not listed.

(l) In the Statement of the Money Accountability, on Form 3, I. G. D., errors frequently arise from misunderstanding of what is meant by the expression "Cash from checks issued" and its counterpart, "Checks issued for cash." The latter expression includes all checks drawn by the disbursing officer in favor of himself under A. R., 610, and the amounts of all such checks must be embraced in the entries in the lower half of the statement, under the depositary or depositaries on which drawn. "Cash from checks issued" is the total of all checks drawn by the disbursing officer in favor of himself under A. R., 610, during the period covered by the inspection, and this total should be entered in the debit or upper half of the Statement of Money Accountability in the "Cash" column on the line of "Cash from checks issued." This last-mentioned total should equal the sum of the amounts entered on the credit or lower half of the statement under the depositary headings on the line of "Checks issued for cash."

(m) When cash is deposited to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States, it should appear in the "Cash" column on the line "Deposited to credit of Treasurer U. S.," on Form 3, and not on the line "Cash deposited."

(n) At each inspection of money accounts the inspecting officer should note in each check book, on the back of the stub of the last check issued, the number of the last check included in the inspection, the balance on deposit in that depositary subject to check, and the total amount of checks outstanding on that depositary; also the amount of cash on hand, if any.

(o) In case of officers of the Quartermaster's, Subsistence, and Pay Departments note that the date of bond reported shows that it has been approved within four years and since date of present commission. (See par. 204, post.)

(p) Conventional signs used by inspectors on the stubs of checks:

O means outstanding (at date of inspection).

✓ means paid (as reported by depositary).

✗ means canceled check (verified).

— means saw voucher.

It is desirable that inspectors have a uniform method of marking stubs. Colored pencils (blue or green) will distinguish the inspector's marks from those of the disbursing officer.

Checks:

143. A disbursing officer may draw his check in favor of himself (1) to make payments of amounts not exceeding $20; (2) to make payments at a distance from a depositary; or (3) to make payments of fixed salaries due at a certain period. In the first and last named cases the check will be drawn not more than two days before the payments become due. In all other cases the checks will be drawn only in favor of the persons, firms, or corporations, by name, to whom the payments are to be made. (A. R., 610; 15 Comp. Dec., 604.)

144. A disbursing officer is not authorized to draw a single check in favor of superintendent for payment of salaries to other employees, nor to draw it to his own order indorsed to his chief clerk for such payments. (Cir. 26, W. D., 1906.)

145. On the face of each check that he draws a disbursing officer will state his address, the object of the expenditure, the number or other necessary description of the voucher, and, in case of payment to an officer, enlisted man, or civilian employee, the period for which the payment is made. (A. R., 611.)

146. Disbursing officers shall identify their official checks with the vouchers upon which they are issued in payment by noting on each check the number or other necessary description of the voucher. (Treasury Dept. Cir. No. 52, 1907, par. 4.)

147. Officers serving in and disbursing funds pertaining to more than one staff department, and officers assigned to duty in any of the staff departments, will, in issuing checks, confine the designation of their official capacity to their rank and the particular staff department on account of which the checks are drawn. (A. R., 612.)

148. Checks for deposit of army paymasters' collections and soldiers' deposits will be dated on the last day of the month in which the collections are made or deposits received or when an account is closed. If the paymaster is unable to deposit checks on that date he will do so at the earliest practicable date. (M. P. D., 77.)

149. Should any officer make an erasure or alteration of any of his checks, however slight, he will certify to the correctness of such erasure or alteration on the upper margin of such check. (A. R., 620.)

150. The signing of a check for public money in blank is prohibited. (A. R., 648.)

151. Rubber stamps or the typewriter will not be used to insert the date, payee's name, or the amount of the check issued in payment of a public creditor, and all United States disbursing officers are instructed to use pen and ink for this purpose. (A. R., 611; G. O. 12 and 22, A. G. O., 1900.)

152. Mutilated or spoiled official checks upon the United States Treasurer or assistant treasurer will be forwarded promptly to the office to which they pertain, but mutilated or spoiled checks upon a national bank depositary will be forwarded promptly, for preservation and future reference, to the chief of bureau by whom issued, who will acknowledge the receipt of such checks. In either case a record of the dates of both cancellation and transmission will be entered on the stub. (A. R., 621.)

153. The data on the check stub will be the same as on the check to which it relates. (A. R., 611, 1340.) If check stubs are accompanied by information as to name of depositary and name and address of disbursing officer it is not necessary to repeat these names and address on each stub. (Secretary of War, July 23, 1910; 5795-CP, O. I. G.)

On comparison of the depositary statements with the stub books, the stubs of paymasters' paid checks will be marked with the date of the depositary statement upon which payment is reported. (M. P. D., 75, sec. 5.)

154. In making payments only official checks will be used. (A. R., 619.)

155. Checks outstanding for a longer period than three full fiscal years must be reported to the Secretary of the Treasury by the disbursing officer upon receipt of the statement of his disbursing account for the month of June of each year from the office or bank in which his funds are kept. (A. R., 616.)

156. Checks outstanding for a longer period than three full fiscal years, procedure necessary for payment. (A. R., 618; R. S., 308.)

157. Procedure when an original check is lost, stolen, or destroyed. (R. S., 3646, 3647, amended by act Feb. 23, 1909, 35 Stat. L., 643; G. O. 56, W. D., 1909; A. R., 613.)

Check books and unused checks.

158. Official check books are issued by the Treasurer and assistant treasurers of the United States direct to disbursing officers who have public money on deposit with them. Those on national bank depositaries are furnished by chiefs of bureaus. Rules for issue, transfer, etc., accompany each book. (A. R., 619, 620.)

159. Check books will be kept under lock and key when not in use, and the serial numbers of the unused checks will be frequently examined to see that no check in the series is missing. (G. O. 110, A. G. O., 1901; M. S. D., 104; M. P. D., 74; S. C. M., No. 7, par. 247.) See par. 139, ante.

160. An officer who for the convenience of any disbursing officer detaches any blank checks and stubs from the check book on the Treasurer or any assistant treasurer in his possession will take the receipt of such disbursing officer in duplicate for such checks by serial numbers and transmit one copy of the same in the manner directed in paragraph 2, G. O. 110, A. G. O., 1901. (G. O. 110, A. G. O., 1901, par. 3.)

161. Under no circumstances will unused check books or blank checks taken from check books on the Treasurer or an assistant treasurer be kept for an unreasonable time in the possession of any disbursing officer of the War Department. (G. O. 110, A. G. O., 1901.)

162. An officer relieved from duty as a disbursing officer and having a check book on the Treasurer or an assistant treasurer in his possession will cut from the book the stubs used by him (to be filed with his retained papers), and will transfer the unused checks and stubs to his successor, taking a receipt therefor in duplicate, which shall describe the unused checks by their serial numbers, one copy of which will be transmitted by the officer relieved to the Treasurer or to the assistant treasurer by whom the check book was originally issued. Before transferring any check book the transferring officer will first examine the unused checks to see that there is no break in the serial numbers showing that checks are missing. (G. O. 110, A. G. O., 1901.) (See Treasury Department instructions of Mar. 18, 1910, pasted on inside of cover of each check book.)

163. Check books of paymasters will be kept in condition for inspection by an inspector general, chief paymaster, or other authorized inspector at any moment. (M. P. D., 75.)

Certificates of deposit.

164. Regulations governing. (A. R., 622-627; Cir. 9, W. D., 1906.)

165. Regulations governing. (A. R., 628-630, 1111, 1542, 1543.)

166. That from the proceeds of sales of old material, condemned stores, supplies, or other public property of any kind, before being deposited into the Treasury, either as miscellaneous receipts on account of "proceeds of Government property" or to the credit of the appropriations to which such proceeds are by law authorized to be made, there may be paid the expenses of such sales, as approved by the accounting officers of the Treasury, so as to require only the net proceeds of such sales to be deposited into the Treasury, either as miscellaneous receipts or to the credit of such appropriations, as the case may be. (Act June 8, 1896, 29 Stat. L., 268; Cir. 27, W. D., 1906.)

167. The act of June 8, 1896 [see preceding paragraph], authorizing the payment of expenses, "as approved by the accounting officers of the Treasury," incurred in the sale of old material, etc., from the gross proceeds thereof, and the payment into the Treasury of the net proceeds only, does not require that such expenses shall be so approved before payment, but simply that an itemized account thereof shall be rendered to the accounting officers for settlement as any other item of expenditure of Government funds. (III Comp., 149.)

168. Decision of the Comptroller of the Treasury in regard to disbursing officers depositing proceeds of sales with a Government depositary to their official credit, pending payment of expenses of sales; retention beyond 30 days of so much thereof as may be necessary for payment of expenses of sales, etc. (Cir. 27, W. D., 1906.)

169. When a disbursing officer of the Army receives any moneys of the United States as the proceeds of sales, as miscellaneous receipts, or funds of like character, not available for disbursement, he will deposit, without delay, such funds to his official credit with an authorized depositary. At the close of the month in which such funds are received the total will be made the subject of one check issued by him in favor of the Treasurer of the United States. (A. R., 626.)

170. Congress is vested by the Constitution with the exclusive power of disposition of the personal as well as the real property of the United States; and by section 3618, Revised Statutes, Congress has provided generally that the proceeds of sales of personal property of the United States shall be paid into the Treasury as "miscellaneous receipts." Held therefore that the various funds received at military posts, on military reservations, or otherwise, as compensation for public property occupied, sold, or allowed to be used or appropriated, or for labor furnished, or privileges, or facilities conceded, etc., * * * were public money of the United States, to be accounted for to the Treasury, and could not be legally retained as a so-called "slush fund," or disbursed for the use or benefit of the post or command. * * * The proceeds of all public property of any material value, including all moneys exacted or received from civilians, are to be turned into the Treasury; and otherwise to dispose of them is embezzlement. (D. J. A. G., 2083.)

171. Hereafter all moneys arising from disposition of serviceable quartermaster's supplies or stores, authorized by law and regulations, shall remain available throughout the fiscal year following that in which the disposition was effected, for the purposes of that appropriation from which such supplies were authorized to be supplied at the time of the disposition. (Act Mar. 23, 1910; G. O. 54, W. D., 1910, p. 23.)

172. Of surplus ice, surplus electric light and power, and proceeds from laundry work done for other branches of the Government. (Army appropriation act, Mar. 2, 1905; G. O. 40, W. D., 1905, p. 14; and subsequent annual Army appropriation acts.)

173. Old typewriting machines exchanged for new ones. (Cir. 1, W. D., 1906.)

174. Of manure sold at posts. (See par 949, post.)

175. Of subsistence supplies are immediately available for the purchase of fresh supplies. (A. R., 628; M. S. D., 223.)

176. Fiscal year to which funds pertain which are received for subsistence supplies when payment is made in a later fiscal year than the one in which the stores were delivered. (Dec. Comp, June 19, 1906; Cir. 37, W. D., 1906.)

177. Hereafter all moneys arising from dispositions of serviceable medical and hospital supplies authorized by law and regulation shall constitute one fund on the books of the Treasury Department, which shall be available to replace medical and hospital supplies throughout the fiscal year in which the dispositions were effected and throughout the following fiscal year. (Act June 12, 1906, 34 Stat. L., 256; G. O. 115, W. D., 1906, p. 25.)

178. Of useless ordnance material. (Act Mar. 3, 1875; Sup. R. S., vol. 1, p. 74.) Of serviceable ordnance and ordnance stores. (Act Apr. 23, 1904, 33 Stat. L., 276; G. O. 76, W. D., 1904, p. 29.)

179. The transfer of public property other than subsistence supplies is not regarded as a sale. Vouchers for property so transferred will be sent through the chief of the bureau concerned to the proper accounting officer of the Treasury Department for settlement, as prescribed in A. R., 682. If credit is received therefor the money may be used to replace the property transferred. (A. R., 630.)

180. Books for a post library purchased out of post-exchange funds or donated to the library are not "public property" within the meaning of section 3618, Revised Statutes. Proceeds from a sale of them may, therefore, legally be expended in the purchase of new books. (D. J. A. G., 2283.)

Appropriations.

181. Regulations governing fiscal years and accounts current. (A. R., 631-641.) Also see pars. 214-220, post.

182. The Chief of Ordnance, in conducting manufacturing or similar operations under any particular appropriation heretofore or hereafter made, is authorized to use material procured under any appropriation and to replace the same in kind or otherwise: Provided, That in doing so the methods shall be such that each appropriation will be charged with the full value of the material used in carrying out its object. (Act Mar. 4, 1911; G. O. 45, W. D., 1911, p. 59; Ordnance Orders 6, 1911.)

183. Hereafter whenever pressing obligations are required to be paid by a disbursing officer of the Quartermaster's Department and there is an insufficient balance to his official credit under the proper appropriation or appropriations for the purpose, he is authorized to make payment from the total available balance to his official credit, provided sufficient funds under the proper appropriation or appropriations have been apportioned by the Quartermaster General for the expenditure. When such disbursements are made the accounts of the disbursing officer shall show the charging of the proper appropriations, the balances under which will be adjusted by the disbursing officer on receipt of funds or by the accounting officers of the Treasury. (Act Mar. 3, 1909, 35 Stat. L., 747; G. O. 49, W. D., 1909, p. 25.) The above provision applies to any funds in the hands of such disbursing officer and is not limited to funds of the fiscal year in which the obligations are incurred. (Cir. 55, W. D., 1910.)

(For similar provisions of law for the Ordnance Department, see act Mar. 3, 1909, 35 Stat. L., 750; G. O. 49, W. D., 1909, p. 30; and for Engineer Department see act Mar. 3, 1911; G. O. 45, W. D., 1911, p. 32.)

184. Preparation of, etc. (A. R. 642-665.)

185. The practice of requiring public creditors to receipt for moneys in advance of actual payment will be discontinued after September 30, 1907. No payments made after said date shall be evidenced by a receipt, except where receipts are required either by law or contract, unless such payments are made in cash, that is, currency. (Treasury Dept. Cir. No. 52, 1907, par. 1.)

The giving or taking of a receipt for public money in blank or in advance of actual payment is prohibited. (A. R., 648.)

186. After September 30, 1907, no receipt for moneys paid by disbursing officers' checks shall be required or taken by disbursing officers except where receipts are required either by law or contract. Disbursing officers will note on vouchers for check payments the date, number, name of payee, and amount of the check and the name of the depositary on whom drawn. (Treasury Dept. Cir. No. 52, 1907, par. 2.)

187. A voucher for a payment made or an invoice for money transferred will have noted thereon the number, date, and amount of checks given and the depositary on which drawn. If payment or transfer is made with currency, wholly or in part, the facts will be stated and a receipt given for the currency. (A. R., 651.) See A. R., 649.

188. All vouchers for payment by disbursing officers, except those required by law to be verified by affidavit, and the expense accounts of the civilian officers, employees, and agents of the Government, which shall be verified by affidavit as heretofore, shall be certified by the claimant as correct and just, except that vouchers for personal compensation for services rendered under the personal supervision of some administrative officer and so certified by him need not be certified by the claimant, provided the voucher describes specifically the position, the rate of compensation, and the period covered. (Treasury Dept. Cir. No. 52, 1907, par. 3.)

189. Disbursing officers shall make cash payments only in cases authorized by Treasury Department Circular No. 102, dated December 7, 1906, and then in only those cases where the payment is made by the disbursing officer in person, or by his deputy, and the exchange of money and the receipt therefor is simultaneous. (Treasury Dept. Cir. No. 52, 1907, par. 5.)

NOTE.—For Treasury Circular No. 102 see paragraph 228 (post).

190. When payments are made in cash, that is, currency, they must be evidenced by a statement of such fact in the receipt and in substantially the following form (except upon pay rolls which shall embody instructions calculated to insure the receipt thereof only under the conditions laid down in the form given in this paragraph):

"Received from _____ in person, or by his deputy, and in cash, the sum of _____ dollars and _____ cents, in full payment of voucher No. _____, account _____." (Treasury Dept. Cir. No. 52, 1907, par. 6.)

191. The form of the signature to the certificate, and to the receipt when required, and the name of the person or business firm as entered at the head of an account must be literally alike. When a signature is not written by the hand of the party it must be witnessed by a disinterested party, a commissioned officer when practicable. (A. R., 657, 658.)

192. Unless required by law, vouchers shall not be taken in exact duplicate, triplicate, etc. Only one copy of a voucher, the original, shall contain signed certifications, approvals, and receipts. As many copies, in memorandum form, duly authenticated if desired, may be taken as administrative requirements demand. (Treasury Cir. No. 52, 1907, par. 7.) See A. R., 642; 12895, O. I. G.

193. When a fraction of a cent less than one-half occurs in the footing of a voucher, it will be disregarded. If the fraction be one-half or greater, it will be reckoned as a cent. (A. R., 646.)

194. Rules for computation of time in payment of services. (A. R., 662; see Cir. 74, W. D., 1910.)

195. A voucher for purchases and services not personal will show thereon the mode of purchase or engagement, using the form of notations on the standard prescribed forms. (A. R., 647.)

196. When copies of papers are necessary to establish the validity of a voucher in a disbursing officer's account, the copies must be certified by some officer other than the disbursing officer claiming credit on the voucher. (Cir. 15, W. D., 1903.)

197. Disbursing officers will not issue vouchers for unpaid accounts as due bills against the United States, but a certified statement of personal services and of wages due may be given to a discharged employee who for want of funds was not paid at time of discharge. (A. R., 661.)

198. It is very doubtful whether an officer of the Government would be justified, in the absence of a law authorizing it, in paying public money to a bank in the purchase from it of a draft or bill of exchange. I am of the opinion that the vouchers of the class you refer to (for purchases made abroad) should ordinarily be paid by official check in the manner prescribed by Treasury Department Circular No. 52, 1907. In exceptional cases (as when the creditors will not receive official checks because of delay and expense of collection) a most liberal construction of existing law would justify the purchase of international post office money orders with which to effect payments. These orders can be purchased through checks drawn to the order of the postmaster. A memorandum of the transaction, showing the number of the order, its amount in foreign money, name of the payee, and the place on which drawn, should be obtained from the postmaster, and the disbursing officer's statement that the order had been mailed to the payee should be attached to the voucher. (Comp. Dec. 4, 1907; 12393, O. I. G.)

199. Pecuniary responsibility of officers who issue orders for expenditure of money. (A. R., 664, 665.)

200. Sundays and holidays are days for which pay is allowed, therefore when the last day of the month falls on Sunday or a holiday, payment for the month can not be made on the preceding day without a violation of section 3648, Revised Statutes. (Cir. 2, A. G. O., 1886.)

Disbursing officers.

201. Disbursing officers of the Quartermaster's, Subsistence, and Pay Departments, before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, will give bonds as required by law. Chiefs of bureaus will see that such bonds are examined as to sufficiency of sureties at least once in two years, and renewed once in four years, or more frequently if necessary. (A. R., 575; R. S. 1191.)

202. Under the provisions in the act of February 2, 1901, that certain vacancies in the Quartermaster's Department of the Army "shall be filled by detail from the line" for a period of four years, officers so detailed are officers of the Quartermaster's Department within the meaning of section 1191, Revised Statutes, and they are required to give bonds to faithfully account for all public moneys or property which they may receive. (7 Comp. 793, June 10, 1901.) (Also applicable to officers detailed to the Subsistence and Pay Departments.)

203. Until otherwise provided by law, no bond shall be accepted from any surety or bonding company for any officer or employee of the United States which shall cost more than 35 per centum in excess of the rate of premium charged for a like bond during the calendar year 1908: Provided, That hereafter the United States shall not pay any part of the premium or other cost of furnishing a bond required by law or otherwise of any officer or employee of the United States. (Act Aug. 5, 1909, 36 Stat. L., 125; G. O. 189, W. D., 1909, p. 2.)

204. The accounts of a bonded disbursing officer must be kept separately under each bond except when the second bond is cumulative, in which case the accounts will be stated under both bonds. When a new bond is given the officer will close his accounts under the former bond and will deposit to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States, or transfer to a bonded officer of the same department who is authorized by law to handle the same class of funds, any unexpended balance before an advance is made under the new bond, in order that the liability of the sureties on the respective bonds may be definitely fixed. In all cases where a transfer is made to a bonded officer there must be an actual transfer of funds and not a mere paper transaction. The date of the bond of a disbursing officer is the date on which it is approved by the Secretary of War. (A. R., 599; Cir. 2, W. D., 1903.)

205. On and after October 1, 1907, all disbursing officers who, for any reason (e. g., separate bonds, etc.), are required to render separate and distinct accounts to the auditors of the Treasury Department, shall keep separate and distinct accounts of their funds in the Government depositaries, and shall unmistakably designate such several depositary accounts on their vouchers, requisitions, deposits, and accounts current. (Treasury Dept. Cir. No. 52, 1907, par. 9.)

206. When an officer is relieved from duty in a staff department at any station he will certify outstanding debts, if any, to his successor, and transmit a list of the same to the head of the proper bureau. Unless otherwise ordered, he will turn over to his successor the public money, property, books, and papers pertaining to the service from which he is relieved. (A. R., 641.)

207. If any disbursing officer shall bet at cards or any game of hazard, his commanding officer will suspend his functions, require him to turn over all public funds in his keeping, and will immediately report the case to the proper bureau of the War Department. He will also report the case to the division commander, who will at once convene a court-martial for the trial of the officer. (A. R., 604.)

208. No officer disbursing money for the military service, or directing the disbursement thereof, shall be concerned individually, directly or indirectly, in the purchase or sale of any article intended for, used by, or pertaining to the department of the public service in which he is engaged. (A. R., 601.)

209. No officer or clerk of a disbursing officer shall be interested in the purchase of any soldier's certificate of pay due, or any other claim against the United States. (A. R., 602.)

NOTE.—But when an officer purchases final statements as an accommodation to the soldier, and not himself profiting thereby, payment will be admitted on the officer's certificate to the facts. (M. P. D., 443.)

210. Officers or agents in the military service will not purchase supplies for the Government from any other person in the military service, nor contract with any such person to furnish supplies or service to the Government, nor make any Government purchase or contract in which such person shall be admitted to share or receive benefit. (A. R., 603.) See pars. 666, 667, post.

211. An officer is not authorized to insure public money or property. (A. R., 607.)

212. The Auditor for the War Department proposes to audit and settle the accounts of disbursing officers of the Quartermaster's Department monthly instead of quarterly as heretofore, and he requests that such officers reply promptly and fully to letters calling for explanations and to suspensions noted in difference sheets, thus avoiding the necessity of carrying such items forward in the successive difference sheets. Compliance with the request of the auditor is enjoined on all concerned. (Cir. 66, W. D., 1910.)

213. When partial payments are made on account of salaries or wages and claim for credit for the same is deferred until completed payment for the period has been made, the amounts of such partial payments constitute a part of the acknowledged balance, and the total of such amounts, together with the facts, shall be set out in the analysis of balance provided by the standard form prescribed by Treasury Department Circular No. 46, dated May 24, 1906. (Treasury Dept. Cir. No. 52, 1907, par. 11.)

214. The balances acknowledged by disbursing officers and their analyses thereof must actually represent the state of their business at the close of the last day for which the accounts are rendered. They must so order their business that they may, when called upon so to do, close their accounts and analyze their acknowledged balances. (Treasury Dept. Cir. No. 52, 1907, par. 12.)

215. Whenever feasible, disbursing officers are, at the close of business on the last day of periods for which they are required to render accounts, to count and schedule, in the presence of a duly authorized and disinterested witness or witnesses, all items of cash, i. e., currency, memorandum payments, and other items, to appear in their analyses of balances for which vouchers are not to be submitted to the auditor with the current account; whenever it is not feasible to do so they will so state in writing, giving reasons, etc., and attach same to the account current; form of certificate for witness; depositary balance not to be verified by the witness. (W. D. Cir. 63, 1909, and 19, 1910; 13848, O. I. G.)

216. It is held by the War Department that the responsibility for accepting personal checks tendered by officers in payment of their monthly bills, under existing law and regulations, rests with the officer who receives them; that the law does not recognize such checks as money, and that the verifying witness, under Circular 63, W. D., 1909, has no authority to consider these checks as cash. (13752, 13920, O. I. G.)

217. All transactions coming within the time covered by an account shall be reported therein. No payments or collections not actually made during the period of an account shall be included therein. The provisions of this paragraph do not apply to partial payments of salaries or wages which are provided for by paragraph 11, Treasury Department Circular No. 52, 1907. (Treasury Dept. Cir. 52, 1907, par. 13.) See par. 213, ante.

218. If disbursing officers do not for any reason receive from their depositaries the monthly statements required to be rendered to them by paragraph 16, Treasury Department Circular No. 52, 1907, in time for them to analyze their balances in the manner contemplated by the standard form of account current prescribed by Treasury Department Circular No. 46, dated May 24, 1906, they shall not delay the rendition of their accounts so as to make them delinquent, but shall compute their net balances from their check stubs and state that such balances are so computed, together with a report of the cause of their failure to compute such balances in the prescribed manner. (Treasury Dept. Cir. No. 52, 1907, par. 14.)

219. All disbursing officers in or under the War Department are hereby instructed to promptly acknowledge the correctness of the monthly statement furnished them by the Treasurer of the United States, the assistant treasurers of the United States, or a designated national bank depositary. (Cir. 9, W. D., 1910.)

220. Each officer disbursing in part by cash and drawing his official checks to obtain cash to make payments shall render with his account current a subsidiary cash account, the balance of which should agree or be reconciled with his cash as shown by his analysis of balance with his account current. (Treasury Dept. Cir. No. 52, 1907, par. 15.)

221. The use of moneys for purposes other than those for which appropriated, liquidation of liabilities of one fiscal year by use of moneys appropriated for another, and expenditures in a fiscal year of any sum in excess of appropriations for that year, or involving the Government in any contract for future payment of money in excess of appropriations, except as authorized by A. R., 524, are prohibited. (A. R., 590; see also R. S. 3678; R. S., 3679, as amended by act of Feb. 27, 1906, 34 Stat. L., 49; p. 3, G. O. 69, W. D., 1906.)

222. Every person who shall have moneys of the United States in his hands or possession, and disbursing officers having moneys in their possession not required for current expenditure, shall pay the same to the Treasurer, an assistant treasurer, or some public depositary of the United States, without delay, and in all cases within 30 days of their receipt. (R. S., 3621, amended by act May 28, 1896; 29 Stat. L., 179.)

223. Public money, subject to disbursement, coming into the hands of an officer from any source will be promptly placed by him to his credit with the Treasurer or an assistant treasurer of the United States, or a duly designated depositary, or else transferred to a disbursing officer of that branch of the public service to which the money pertains. Exceptions to this rule are allowed in the cases and to the extent authorized by A. R., 597, and in cases where an officer, when stationed on the extreme frontier or at a place far remote from depositaries, has been specially authorized by the Secretary of War to keep at his own risk such money as may be intrusted to him for disbursement. Money in hand, subject to disbursement, may be disbursed at once without being placed in depositaries if a payment is due. (A. R., 596.)

224. Recruiting officers and officers doing subsistence duty at posts or independent stations are authorized to keep on hand, at their own risk, moneys pertaining to the appropriation "Subsistence of the Army" in such restricted amounts as may be necessary for facilitating payments of small amounts to public creditors. (A. R., 597; see act Mar. 2, 1907, 34 Stat. L., 1166; G. O. 48, W. D., 1907, p. 14.)

225 Commissaries on United States transports plying between the United States and Cuba or Porto Rico are authorized to keep in their personal possession, at their own risk, not to exceed $500 subsistence funds; those on transports plying between the United States and the Philippine Islands, not to exceed $4,500 subsistence funds. All money received by transport commissaries from the sale of subsistence stores, or meals furnished aboard, in excess of the above amounts, will be transferred to such officer of the Subsistence Department as may be directed by the Commissary General at the end of each journey. (G. O. 52, A. G. O., 1900.)

226. The commanding officer of each mine planter, except the Gen. Samuel M. Mills, is authorized to keep on hand, at his own risk, in his capacity as acting commissary, not to exceed $300, subsistence funds, for use in emergency. (Secretary of War, July 9, 1910; 14297, O. I. G.)

227. Disbursing officers of the War Department, stationed in Cuba, Porto Rico, Philippine Islands, and Alaska, being far remote from designated depositaries, are specially authorized by the Secretary of War to keep, at their own risk, moneys received in coin or currency which they may be authorized to disburse, and such moneys as may be officially intrusted to them for disbursement. (G. O. 22, 89, A. G. O., 1899; G. O. 61, A. G. O., 1900; G. O. 120, W. D., 1905.)

228. Treasury Department Circular No. 102, December 7, 1906, is as follows:

"The following sections of the Revised Statutes are published for the information and guidance of all concerned:

"SEC. 3620. It shall be the duty of every disbursing officer having any public money intrusted to him for disbursement, to deposit the same with the Treasurer or some one of the assistant treasurers of the United States, and to draw for the same only as it may be required for payments to be made by him in pursuance of law (and draw for the same only in favor of the persons to whom payment is made); and all transfers from the Treasurer of the United States to a disbursing officer shall be by draft or warrant on the Treasury or an assistant treasurer of the United States. In places, however, where there is no Treasurer or assistant treasurer, the Secretary of the Treasury may, when he deems it essential to the public interest, specially authorize, in writing, the deposit of such public money in any other public depository, or, in writing, authorize the same to be kept in any other manner; and under such rules and regulations as he may deem most safe and effectual to facilitate the payments to public creditors."

"SEC. 5488. Every disbursing officer of the United States who deposits any public money intrusted to him in any place or in any manner, except as authorized by law, or converts to his own use in any way whatever, or loans with or without interest, or for any purpose not prescribed by law withdraws from the Treasurer or any assistant treasurer, or any authorized depositary, or for any purpose not prescribed by law transfers or applies any portion of the public money intrusted to him, is, in every such act, deemed guilty of an embezzlement of the money so deposited, converted, loaned, withdrawn, transferred, or applied; and shall be punished by imprisonment with hard labor for a term not less than one year nor more than ten years, or by a fine of not more than the amount embezzled or less than one thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.'

"In accordance with the provisions of the above sections, any public money advanced to disbursing officers of the United States must be deposited immediately to their respective credits, with either the United States Treasurer, some assistant treasurer, or, by special direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, with a national bank depositary nearest or most convenient, except—

"1. Any disbursing officer of the War Department, specially authorized by the Secretary of War, when stationed on the extreme frontier or at places far remote from such depositaries, may keep, at his own risk, such moneys as may be intrusted to him for disbursement.

"2. Any officer receiving money remitted to him upon specific estimates may disburse it accordingly, without waiting to place it in a depositary, provided the payments are due and he prefers this method to that of drawing checks.

"Any check drawn by a disbursing officer upon moneys thus deposited must be in favor of the party, by name, to whom the payment is to be made, and payable to 'order,' with these exceptions:

"(1) To make payments of amounts not exceeding $20, (2) to make payments at a distance from a depositary, and (3) to make payments of fixed salaries due at a certain period; in either of which cases any disbursing officer may draw his check in favor of himself, or 'order,' for such amount as may be necessary for such payment, but in the first and last named cases the check must be drawn not more than two days before the payments become due.

"Any disbursing officer or agent drawing checks on moneys deposited to his official credit, must state on the face or back of each check the object or purpose to which the avails are to be applied, except upon checks issued in payment of individual pensions, the special form of such checks indicating sufficiently the character of disbursement. If the object or purpose for which any check of a public disbursing officer is drawn is not stated thereon, as required, or if any reason exists for suspecting fraud, the office or bank on which such check is drawn will refuse its payment.

"Such statement may be made in brief form, but must clearly indicate the object of the expenditure, as, for instance, 'pay,' 'pay roll,' or 'payment of troops,' adding the fort or station, 'purchase of subsistence,' or other supplies; 'on account of construction,' mentioning the fortification or other public work for which the payment is made; 'payments under $20,' etc.

"Any check drawn by a United States disbursing officer payable to himself, or 'order,' 'to make payments of amounts not exceeding twenty dollars each,' under the provisions of this circular must bear indorsed thereon the names of the persons to whom the amount drawn is to be paid, or be accompanied by a list, or schedule, made a part of the check, containing the same information.

"The object, or purpose, to which the avails are to be applied in case of any check drawn by a disbursing officer of the Army for an amount to be retained in his possession by authority of the Secretary of War, given under the provisions of this circular, or by any disbursing officer given such special authority by the Secretary of the Treasury, under the provisions of section 3620, Revised Statutes of the United States, must be clearly indicated by a statement on the check that it is to obtain cash to hold in personal possession, and date of authority given so to hold funds. Checks will not be returned to the drawer after their payment but will be retained by the depositary arranged separately by officers and consecutively by number and date convenient for ready reference as they are liable to be called for by the Department at any time as evidence of proper payment. The depositary will furnish each disbursing officer with a detailed monthly statement of his account.

"All disbursing clerks and agents of the Executive Departments, independent offices, and commissions, and offices under and part of the Executive Departments located in the District of Columbia, to prevent carrying unnecessary balances of cash, are directed to deposit, on or before the 5th and 20th of each month, with the Treasurer of the United States, to their official credit subject to check, any and all balances of cash drawn to meet pay rolls and remaining in their hands; and thereafter, until the next regular pay day, to make payments appropriate to be made by check and not in cash.

"Deposits to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States on account of repayment of disbursing funds must be made with the office or bank in which such funds are to the credit of the disbursing officer. Disbursing officers are not authorized to transfer funds standing to their credit with one depositary to their credit with another depositary; such transfers will be made by the Secretary of the Treasury upon the requests of the heads of the departments under which the officers are serving.¹

"No allowance will be made to any disbursing officer for expenses charged for collecting money on checks.

"Whenever any disbursing officer of the United States shall cease to act in that capacity he will at once inform the Secretary of the Treasury whether he has any public funds to his credit in any office or bank, and, if so, what checks, if any, he has drawn against the same, which are still outstanding and unpaid. Until satisfactory information of this character shall have been furnished, the whole amount of such moneys will be held to meet the payment of his checks properly payable therefrom.

"In case of the death, resignation, or removal of any disbursing officer, checks previously drawn by him will be paid from the funds to his credit, unless such checks have been drawn more than four months before their presentation, or reasons exist for suspecting fraud. Any check previously drawn by him and not presented for payment within four months of its date will not be paid until its correctness shall have been attested by the Comptroller of the Treasury or his chief clerk.

"Every disbursing officer, when opening his first account, before issuing any checks, will furnish the depositary on whom checks are drawn with his official signature, duly verified by some officer whose signature is known to the depositary.

"For every deposit made by a disbursing officer, to his official credit, a receipt in form as below shall be given, setting forth its serial number and the place and date of issue; the title of each officer shall be expressed, and the title of the disbursing account shall also show for what branch of the public service the account is kept, as it is essential for the proper transaction of departmental business that accounts of moneys advanced from different bureaus to a disbursing officer serving in two or more distinct capacities be kept separate and distinct from each other, and be so reported to

“These regulations are intended to supersede those of August 14, 1897, and circular of April 17, 1899, amendatory thereof.”

“Treasury Department Circular No. 17, March 19, 1908, amends the foregoing (Treasury Dept. Cir. 102, 1906) as follows:

“1. The deposit of cash balances on the 5th and 20th of each month required by Treasury Department Circulars Nos. 39 and 102, dated, respectively, April 10 and December 7, 1906, need not be made hereafter, but cash obtained for making payments of salaries may be retained by disbursing officers, for the purpose of paying the proper persons in cash, not to exceed 30 days from and after the period during which the services were rendered.

“2. To enable them to make payment of salaries in cash at times other than regular pay days, disbursing officers in the District of Columbia may, upon written application, obtain from the Secretary of the Treasury permission to keep in their possession and at their own risk additional moneys not to exceed specific amounts fixed by him.

“3. The auditors of the Treasury Department shall, in the examination of the accounts of disbursing officers generally, report to the Secretary of the Treasury any excessive cash balances discovered.”

“4. Disbursing officers drawing checks payable to themselves or order for the purpose of making payments of amounts not exceeding $20 each need not hereafter accompany such checks with the lists or schedules of the names of the persons to whom the amounts drawn are to be paid.

“5. Treasury Department Circulars Nos. 39 and 102, dated, respectively, April 10 and December 7, 1906, are amended accordingly.”

“Treasury Department Circular No. 102, 1906, further amended by Treasury Department Circular No. 7, February 7, 1910, with reference to disbursing officers drawing checks to make payments of United States customs duties levied upon the importation of public property purchased abroad.

229. Held * * * that the accounting officers are required by law to see that the funds appropriated by Congress for public purposes are applied to the objects specified in the appropriation acts, and to no others; that relief from responsibility for public money lost or misapplied is not within the legitimate functions of the accounting officers, but belongs to Congress, or else to the courts authorized to hear and determine equitable rights and to extend equitable remedies. (Dec. 2d Comp. (Gilkeson), vol. 3, par. 741.) See R. S., 1060-1062; A. R., 1331, 1332.

230. The pay of officers of the Army may be withheld under section 1766, Revised Statutes, on account of an indebtedness to the United States admitted or shown by the judgment of a court, but not otherwise, unless upon a special order issued according to the discretion of the Secretary of War. (Act July 16, 1892, 27 Stat. L., 177.) Held, That the last part of this provision was to be construed not separately but in connection with the former, and could not be interpreted as empowering the Secertary of War to stop the pay of officers of the Army to satisfy private debts or claim for alimony. (D. J. A. G., 2383.)

231. Penalty for falsification of accounts or records and the making of false reports, or aiding or abetting therein, by any officer, clerk, agent, or other person holding any office or employment under the Government of the United States. (Act Mar. 4, 1911; G. O. 45, W. D., 1911, p. 100.)

232. Instructions to be observed by officers of the Quartermaster's Department who disburse or transfer public funds as to the preparation of accounts current, pay rolls, vouchers, and abstracts, and keeping of the cash book. (Cir. 11, Q. M. G. O., 1909.)

233. Instructions governing the procurement of supplies and engagement of services, Quartermaster's Department. (Cir. 7, Q. M. G. O., 1909, amended by Q. M. G. O. Cirs. 13, 16, 1909; 2, 4, 5, 1910; 3, 7, 9, 10, 1911.)

234. Instructions governing the financial operations of the Ordnance Department. (Ordnance Orders 12, 1910; G. O. 1, Office Chief of Ordnance, 1911.)

Depositaries.

235. To render statements to disbursing officers. (Treasury Dept. Cir. 52, 1907, pars. 16, 17, 19.)

236. National-bank depositaries to list paid checks consecutively by number in the monthly statements to United States disbursing officers. (Treasury Dept. Reg., Dec. 7, 1906; 12034, O. I. G.)

237. To render statements of disbursing officers' accounts to inspecting and administrative officers upon their request when engaged in the duly authorized inspection of accounts. (Treasury Dept. Cir. 52, 1907, pars. 17, 19.)

238. Lists of national-bank depositaries designated for the use of disbursing officers, with the amounts of securities filed by each with the United States Treasurer, will be published from time to time in orders from the War Department. (A. R., 592.)

239. When there are two or more designated depositaries in the same place, credit should be so regulated by each disbursing officer there stationed as to maintain, as far as possible (by deposits, disbursements, and transfers), a proportion between the amount of his credit at each depositary and the amount of securities filed by it with the United States Treasurer. (A. R., 593.)

240. Transfers from one depositary to another are not authorized except through the Treasury Department. (A. R., 593.)

Closing statements.

241. When an officer ceases to act as a disbursing officer, or for any reason closes his accounts, he will prepare a closing statement of his money accounts, from date of last inspection to and including the closing of his accounts, with a separate list of checks outstanding for each depositary. If he is under the command of a division commander, or his accounts are assigned for inspection to the division inspector, he will forward the statement and list of checks to division headquarters, through military channels, for the usual action, including inspection, if practicable. If disbursing under the direction of the Secretary of War without such assignment, he will forward his papers directly to The Adjutant General of the Army, who will transmit them to the Inspector General of the Army. (A. R., 917.)

In case of a closing statement submitted under this paragraph by a disbursing officer changing station, the original list, or lists, of checks outstanding and the balance, if any, will, after verification, be furnished the inspector general of the division to which the disbursing officer is transferred. (4912-B, O. I. G.)

Reports of inspections, etc.

242. A statement of receipts and expenditures and of the distribution of funds (Form 3, I. G. D.), with lists of outstanding checks

(Form 3a, I. G. D.), will be submitted by the disbursing officer to the inspector, who should immediately transmit the lists of outstanding checks to the several depositaries. Upon return from a depositary, balances will be verified and noted on the inspection report, which will then be forwarded to the Inspector General, with a copy of each list of outstanding checks and the indorsements thereon. The original lists will be retained by the inspector to be used at the next inspection of the officer's accounts, and then sent to the Inspector General. (A. R., 916.)

For instructions as to forwarding, filing, etc., reports of inspections of money accounts, see paragraphs 118, 119, and 131 (ante).

INSPECTION OF PROPERTY FOR CONDEMNATION.

243. The Congress shall have power to dispose of and make all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory or other property belonging to the United States. (Constitution. Art. IV, sec. 3.)

244. The President may cause to be sold any military stores which, upon proper inspection or survey, appear to be damaged, or unsuitable for the public service. Such inspection or survey shall be made by officers designated by the Secretary of War, and the sales shall be made under regulations prescribed by him. (R. S., 1241.)

245. Section 1241, Revised Statutes, is the reenactment of the statute of March 3, 1825 (4 Stats., 127), entitled "An act to authorize the sale of unserviceable ordnance, arms, and military stores," and in regard to which Attorney General R. B. Taney (to whom the question had been submitted by the President) said:

"After the passage of this law and the regulations made under it, I think it evident that no sale of ordnance, or iron, or stores of any description, can lawfully be made without the order of the President, upon proper inspection and condemnation as therein directed, and according to the regulations of the War Department on this subject above referred to." (2 Op., 580.)

That opinion clearly answers the question as to how unserviceable stores may legally be disposed of, and is, in my opinion, as applicable to-day as it was when written. (J. A. G., Feb. 7, 1895; 543, O. I. G.)

246. The Constitution gives to Congress the "power to dispose of and make all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory or other property belonging to the United States," and it is well settled that no public property can be disposed of without the authority of law, either by an express act of Congress for that purpose or by giving the authority to some department or subordinate agent. Congress has given authority to "cause to be sold any military stores which, upon proper inspection or survey, appear to be damaged, or unsuitable for the public service" (sec. 1241, R. S.); but no authority to sell military stores which have not been condemned as unserviceable, and the sale of the mules in question was therefore illegal. (Op. J. A. G., Sept. 12, 1899; 4752, O. I. G.)

247. Held, that section 1167, Revised Statutes, does not direct or authorize the Chief of Ordnance, subject to the approval of the Secretary of War, to draw up and enforce in his department a system of rules and regulations for the inspection of ordnance property with a view to its condemnation and sale or destruction. (D. J. A. G., par. 1862.)

248. The word "unsuitable," as used in section 1241, Revised Statutes, evidently refers to some unfitness for use other than that caused by being "damaged." Uniform clothing, for instance, of sizes that could not be used would be unsuitable. But held that the meaning of the word could not properly be restricted to things of a quality inferior to that which is required for the service. A thing may be unsuitable by reason of its being of such superior quality as not to be adaptable for the purpose for which it was intended. And held that military stores can not properly be deemed unsuitable under this statute for the sole reason that they are in excess of the quantity required for use. (D. J. A. G., 2279.)

249. Under the provisions of section 1241, Revised Statutes, that military stores which are "unsuitable for the public service may be sold," stores which it is found inexpedient to transport to a place where they can be serviceable may be condemned and sold. (7 Comp. Dec., 260; see D. J. A. G., 2279, footnote 2.)

250. Certain Government property (a quantity of cordwood and a hay scale) was left on hand at a military post which had been abandoned. The property was no longer needed there and the expense of transporting elsewhere would largely exceed its cost. Held, therefore, that it was "unsuitable for the public service" within the meaning of section 1241, Revised Statutes. (D. J. A. G., 2280.)

251. In the case of certain quartermaster property on hand at the quartermaster depot, Manila, P. I., in excess of that which, based on consumption in former years, could be absorbed in the Philippine Islands within a year, and which could not be utilized at the depots in the United States to sufficient advantage to justify transportation thereto, the War Department decided, October 22, 1910, that, with a view to sale locally as unsuitable for the military service, it could be submitted to the action of an inspector under Revised Statutes, section 1241. (14525, O. I. G.)

252. I, therefore, am clearly of the opinion that a sale by Government officers under Revised Statutes, section 1241, is as much subject to the provisions of the food and drugs act (34 Stat. L., 768) as a sale by a private person would be under similar circumstances. (Op. Attorney General, Mar. 27, 1908; 9724-H, O. I. G.)

253. Obsolete property.—The class of property referred to within (coffee roasters obsolete for use at posts) falls clearly within the designation of property "unsuitable for the public service" in the sense this language is employed in section 1241, Revised Statutes, and may be sold as therein provided, viz, "upon proper inspection or survey." The statute further provides that "such inspection or survey shall be made by officers designated by the Secretary of War," and this provision is not, in the opinion of this office, met by the certificate * * * herewith. An officer should be designated to make the inspection and survey required by the statute. Disposition of the property found to be unsuitable is governed by paragraph 684, Army Regulations of 1904 [A. R. 691, 1910]. (J. A. G., Aug. 29, 1906; 6127-M, O. I. G.)

254. Except as provided in paragraph 728, A. R., inspections having in view the condemnation of property will be made by inspectors general or acting inspectors general; but in cases of emergency, such as when a station is abandoned or when troops change station, such inspections may be made by officers specially designated by the commander of a territorial division, or the commander of a division, corps, or army in the field, or higher authority. (A. R., 918.)

255. The appointment of a special inspector to act on unserviceable ordnance stores is limited to cases of emergency, the nature of which will be described in the order appointing the inspector. Care will be exercised in the selection of an officer for this duty. An inexperienced officer, or one who is junior to the responsible officer commanding the troop, battery, company, or detachment to which the property pertains, will not be appointed. (Cir. 87, W. D., 1907, par. 8.)

256. The inspection of unserviceable property is one of the duties imposed by law primarily upon the Inspector-General's Department, and it seems therefore desirable that such inspections be made by its officers whenever possible, and the unnecessary appointment of special inspectors for such duty be minimized. To this end the Secretary of War directs that whenever a tour of inspection is made, such arrangements should be made as will insure that all unserviceable property at places visited will be duly submitted and inspected. (See par. 34, ante.)

257. Unserviceable property is, with reference to its disposition, divided into classes as follows:

1. Property worn out by fair wear and tear in the service which has no salable value.
2. Property worn out by fair wear and tear in the service which presumably has some salable value.
3. Property which has been rendered unserviceable from causes other than fair wear and tear in the service.

Property of the first class may be submitted to a surveying officer and disposed of as indicated in paragraph 728, Army Regulations, or it may be submitted to an inspector without prior action of a surveying officer.

Property of the second class will be submitted to an inspector without prior action of a surveying officer. [For exception see par. 1490, post.]

Property of the third class will be submitted to a surveying officer, except as provided in paragraph 1089, Army Regulations, in case of public animals, and unless destroyed under the provisions of paragraph 728, Army Regulations, will subsequently be submitted to an inspector. The inventory and inspection reports will be accompanied by the report of the surveying officer. (A. R., 689.) Also see paragraph 728, Army Regulations, quoted in full as paragraph 1485, post.

258. Officers will prepare and sign in duplicate, on blank forms furnished by the Inspector General of the Army, inventories of public property requiring inspection, and present them, with the property, to the inspector general or acting inspector general at the time of his visit. (A. R., 919.)

259. In the case of rapidly deteriorating subsistence stores or of unserviceable public animals, or pressing emergency, inventories will be prepared whenever necessary, and one copy will be forwarded to the commander having authority to appoint an inspector. (A. R., 919; also see par. 1485, post.)

260. When the regulations require the authority of the Secretary of War or of the chief of a bureau for the submission of property for the action of an inspector, such authority should be obtained by the accountable or responsible officer and shown to the inspector when the property is presented for action. The inventory and inspection report should contain a notation that the required authority had been obtained.

261. An officer responsible for public property furnished him on memorandum receipts and holding the same for use of his command will sign the certificate on the inventory of unserviceable property when presented for the action of an inspector. (Acting Secretary of War, Oct. 10, 1907; 2318-H, O. I. G.) See par. 1498, post.

262. Public property which has been damaged, except by fair wear and tear, or is unsuitable for the service, before being submitted to an inspector for condemnation, will be surveyed by a disinterested officer, preferably the summary court officer. (A. R., 721.)

263. If an inspection of property follows the report of a survey thereon, one copy of the proceedings will accompany the inventory and inspection report which is transmitted for approval, and will afterwards be returned to be used as a voucher to the officer's returns. (A. R., 736.)

264. For inspection the property will be arranged in the order of enumeration in the inventory, every article will be examined by the inspector, and the officer responsible will accompany him and be prepared to give all necessary information in regard to it. (A. R., 920.)

265. Inspectors will examine all property properly presented for condemnation. (A. R., 921.)

266. Inspectors will exercise great care in examining property submitted to them for condemnation and in making recommendations regarding its disposition. (A. R., 922.)

267. The general regulations governing recommendations as to the disposition of property inspected with a view to condemnation are as follows:

(a) To be continued in service.—Articles that are still serviceable. (A. R., 922.)

(b) To be dropped.—Articles that can not be sold at the post and are not worth cost of transportation to an arsenal or depot for repair.

64 INSPECTION OF PROPERTY FOR CONDEMNATION.

If worthless they must be so far destroyed as to prevent any possibility of future presentation. Such articles as can not be destroyed will, when practicable, be marked "I. C.," or will be broken up and serviceable parts retained. (A. R., 922.) See (d) below.

NOTE.—When articles or buildings are recommended "to be broken up," the inspector should state in the column for remarks in the I. and I. report the use to which the serviceable parts are to be applied.

(c) To be sold.—Such articles as are of no further public use or not worth cost of transportation to a depot. (A. R., 922.)

(d) To be turned in to depot or arsenal.—Such articles as can not be repaired at the post and are worth cost of transportation. Small arms must not be destroyed. (A. R., 922, 925.) See par. 337, post.

268. When an inspector recommends that property be turned in to depot or arsenal for purposes other than repair, he should state in the column for remarks in the I. and I. report, the purpose, as, "for reissue," "for sale," etc.

269. When all the articles inventoried are not presented to the inspector, the number or quantity not presented should be carried in the column "To be continued in service," and a note made in the column for remarks, as, "7 not presented."

270. Officers of the Inspector General's Department inspecting public property for condemnation will decline to inspect such articles as have no cost price (which may be estimated) given in column 3, Form No. 1, Inspector General's Department. In the examination of inventory and inspection reports division inspectors general will note all failures to complete column 3, and will take the necessary steps with a view to having the "cost price" inserted by the responsible officer before the reports are forwarded. (12848, O. I. G.)

271. Property will not be turned in to depots without authority from the head of the staff department to which the property pertains, except in the Philippines Division, where such authority may be given by the commanding general of the division. The authority of heads of staff departments will usually be given in general terms in the form of approved memoranda indicating the most advantageous method of disposing of various classes of unserviceable property, which memoranda will serve as guides to division and higher commanders and inspectors. (A. R., 922.)

272. When property ordered "to be turned in to depot" on the recommendation of an inspector is found, upon receipt at the depot, to be in such condition that it can not be made suitable for issue, it may be destroyed or broken up under such instructions as may be given by the head of the department concerned, or by the commanding general, Philippines Division, so far as pertains to property turned in to depots at Manila, P. I. (A. R., 922.)

273. Public property in use will not be reported as unserviceable nor condemned by an inspector merely because worn or shabby in appearance when really strong and serviceable. (A. R., 923.)

274. Great care will be taken to prevent property once condemned and ordered dropped from the returns from being again presented for inspection. (A. R., 924.)

275. Inspectors will, when practicable, cause the destruction, in their presence, of all property found to be worthless and which is without money value at or near the place of inspection, except small arms. The action of an inspector on property of this character will be final, and his report will be a valid voucher for the responsible officer. Inspectors will be held responsible for their action in this particular. When property thus condemned is not destroyed in the presence of the inspector or a disinterested officer representing the inspector, the responsible officer will certify to the fact of subsequent destruction in his presence. (A. R., 925.) See par. 281, post.

A certificate that the destruction was "personally superintended" is not deemed to fulfill the requirement of the regulation (A. R., 925). The witnessing officer should certify to the fact of destruction in his presence. (O. I. G.)

276. There is no authority for donating unserviceable public property, through any action of the Inspector General's Department, to relief committee for the sufferers of the cyclone-swept districts of Louisiana. (Indorsement of Inspector General, concurred in by Acting Secretary of War May 8, 1908; 12404, O. I. G.)

277. Division commanders may give orders, on the reports of authorized inspectors, to make such disposition of condemned property as the case may require, except public buildings, for which the order of the Secretary of War is required. (A. R., 927.) See also par. 279 (c) and (d), post, as to cannon, electrical installations, etc.; par. 279 (e), post, as to sale of blankets and uniform clothing; and par. 287, post, as to temporary buildings.

278. Orders for the final disposition of condemned property will be indorsed by the proper authority on the inspection reports, each copy being made complete in itself. (A. R., 929.)

279. Disposal of inventory and inspection reports after inspection of property:

Accountable officer.	Disposition of Inventory and inspection reports. property recommended.	In duplicate by inspector to division or army corps headquarters. After approval, both copies are sent, through military channels, to accountable officer. (A. R., 921, 922, 927, 929.)
Serving under division or Army corps commander.	Sale or transfer to depot or arsenal.	In duplicate by inspector directly to Inspector General of the Army, by whom they are submitted through chief of bureau to Chief of Staff for action if the amount involved exceeds $500; or to the chief of bureau for action if it does not exceed $500. After approval both copies are sent, through military channels, to the accountable officer. (A. R., 921, 929; W. D. O. Nov. 7, 1905.)
Not serving under division or Army corps commander.	Sale or transfer to depot or arsenal.	Inspector delivers both copies to the accountable officer. (A. R., 921, 925.)
Serving or not serving under division or Army corps commander.	All destroyed.

Exceptions to the foregoing:

(a) Buildings.—Under A. R., 927, the orders of the Secretary of War are required for the final disposition of public buildings; and the I. and I. reports, in duplicate, are submitted by the inspector through the division commander under whom the accountable officer is serving; or forwarded directly by the inspector to the Inspector General of the Army if the accountable officer is not serving under a division commander. (See par. 287, post.)

(b) Valuable property.—If the property be of considerable value, and there be good reason to suppose that it can be more advantageously applied or disposed of elsewhere than within the command, the report will be forwarded for the action of the War Department. (A. R., 927.)

(c) Cannon and their carriages, machine, and automatic guns with their carriages and mounts, but not including spare parts, accessories, implements, and equipments required in their maintenance and operation; also ammunition for cannon.

(d) Electrical and mechanical installations and appliances furnished to the Coast Artillery Corps by the Engineer or Signal department and forming part of the permanent seacoast defenses, but not including supplies such as wiring, tools, clamps, and battery fluid, fragile articles like battery cells or jars and carboys, or spare parts and accessories not essential to the operation of the installation, such as battery syringes and hydrometers.

All of the copies of the inspection report will be forwarded by the division commander directly to the chief of bureau concerned for final action of the Secretary of War. (A. R., 928.)

Recommended to be sold at auction: All copies of the I. and I. report must be forwarded for action of War Department. (G. O., 186, W. D., 1907.)

Recommended to be shipped to quartermaster depot: All copies of the I. and I. report must be forwarded for action of War Department, unless the accountable officer is serving under a department or division commander and the Quartermaster General has already designated a depot. (G. O., 186, W. D., 1907.) See pars. 295-297, post.

(e) Blankets and articles of uniform clothing condemned as unserviceable or obsolete.

280. Animals.—Public animals will be inventoried singly, with brief description of color, sex, age, and distinguishing marks. (A. R., 919.)

281. Public animals inspected and found unsuited for one branch of the service may be transferred to another for which they are fitted. When of no further use for any branch of the service they will be submitted to an inspector and if condemned sold at public auction or destroyed under the following circumstances: (1) To terminate suffering (from disease or other cause); (2) to prevent contagion; (3) on account of incurable disease or injury; (4) on account of old age, when to sell them for work in the hands of irresponsible persons would be cruel and cause suffering to the animals.

Horses assigned to troops of cavalry, batteries of artillery, companies of the Signal Corps, and mules assigned to the combat transportation of the Signal Corps, will not be sold or turned in to the Quartermaster's Department unless previously acted upon by an inspector, except in the Philippines Division, where the sale of such horses may be made to mounted officers, as provided in paragraph 1111, A. R. (A. R., 1089). See par. 1179, post.

282. "Inspection reports condemning cavalry horses for being vicious, unmanageable in ranks, etc., should not be approved except in rare instances." (Cir. letter, A. G. O., Sept. 3, 1896.)

283. "The Secretary of War directs that no horses be inspected or condemned in your department unless it is clearly manifest that they are entirely unsuited for the service for which they are required." (Cir. letter, A. G. O., June 5, 1900; to division and department commanders.)

284. Books.—Inspectors general will, at the annual inspection of posts, condemn and destroy such library books as may be unserviceable and worthless. (A. R., 347.) See par. 180, ante.

285. Soldier's handbooks, excepting those in hands of enlisted men, copies of Drill Regulations, Army Regulations, Small-Arms Firing Regulations, manuals and other books of instruction (Government publications) issued to organizations, will be accounted for on the muster rolls of the organizations. When lost, worn out, or damaged they should be disposed of under Article LIX, A. R., 1901 (Art. LIV, A. R., 1910), as in case of other Government property. They will not be turned in to the War Department unless especially directed. Soldier's handbooks issued to enlisted men will be dropped from the muster rolls. (Cir. 2, W. D., 1904.)

286. Buildings.—Public buildings which have become unserviceable and can not be kept in repair at reasonable cost, or which occupy ground required for new buildings or other improvements, will be entered upon a separate inventory and brought before an inspector for his action. (A. R., 919.)

287. Orders of the Secretary of War are required on inspection reports of public buildings. (A. R., 927.) The commanding general, Philippines Division, is authorized to give such orders as may be necessary on the reports of authorized inspectors to dispose of temporary buildings. (Acting Secretary of War, Nov. 8, 1907; 11785; O. I. G.)

288. Submarine mine property.—Submarine mine property ordered by an inspector to be turned in to depot shall be shipped to the torpedo depot at Fort Totten, N. Y. (G. O. 86, W. D., 1905.)

289. In the opinion of this office almost any damaged mine cases can be repaired with economy, unless it is one which has not enough metal in the flange to permit rewelding, and many of these can be sufficiently repaired at the post for use in the annual practice firing. It is believed that cases not too badly damaged and not repairable at the post should be shipped to the torpedo depot to be repaired. (Chief of Coast Artillery, Mar. 31, 1909; 13202, O. I. G.)

290. At national cemeteries.—Held, that under section 1241, Revised Statutes, unserviceable tools and materials, which had been in use at a national cemetery, could not legally be ordered to be sold upon the mere inspection and report of their unserviceableness made by the superintendent of the cemetery, but that, as required in the section, there must be first an inspection, "by an officer (i. e., commissioned officer) designated by the Secretary of War." (D. J. A. G., 2281.)

Quartermaster's property.

291. Band instruments.—When any band instrument has become unserviceable, it will be submitted to a surveying officer. A copy of his report will be forwarded to the Quartermaster General with a view of having the instrument repaired, if practicable, or otherwise disposed of. When an instrument needs minor repairs, involving only a slight expense, and the work can be done in a workmanlike manner in the vicinity of the post, it will not be necessary to submit the instrument to a surveying officer. (A. R., 1195.)

NOTE.—As a general rule, band instruments are not submitted to an inspector until they have been transferred to depot and examined by experts to determine whether or not they are worth cost of repairs. (Q. M. G., Sept. 14, 1907; 11243-D, O. I. G.)

292. Bedsteads.—The old-pattern bedsteads should not be condemned unless they are absolutely unserviceable, as the reduced condition of the appropriations for clothing and equipage makes it impracticable to supply bedsteads of new pattern to meet the demands. (Recommendation of Quartermaster General, approved by Acting Secretary of War Oct. 29, 1907; 11953, O. I. G.)

293. Clothing.—An inspection report on damaged clothing will set forth the amount of damage to each article; also a list of such articles as are fit to issue to prisoners, or, at reduced prices, to enlisted men willing to receive them. (A. R., 926.)

294. White summer clothing (coat, trousers, and cap) issued to members of recruiting parties at general recruiting stations, will be submitted to the action of an inspector when no longer fit for service. Such clothing will be charged to the enlisted men only in case of loss or damage. (A. R., 1183.)

295. Hereafter, blankets and articles of uniform clothing that have been condemned as unserviceable or obsolete will not be sold at auction without special authority from the War Department. If they are of no value they will be destroyed in the manner prescribed in the Army Regulations. If they are fit to be issued to prisoners they will be held for that purpose at the place of condemnation, in whole or in part, or shipped to such quartermaster's depot as may be designated by the Quartermaster General for renovation, storage, and issue to the United States Military Prison at Fort Leavenworth, Kans., or to the Pacific Branch thereof at Alcatraz Island, Cal. (G. O., 186, W. D., 1907.)

296. The general depot of the Quartermaster's Department, Philadelphia, Pa., is designated as the depot to which deserters' outer clothing, and such damaged and unserviceable clothing as may be designated by inspectors for issue to prisoners, shall be transferred under the provisions of A. R., 116, 1908 [A. R., 117, 1910] (G. O., 97, W. D., 1910.)

297. General authority granted for shipment from time to time of condemned clothing (articles needed for issue to prisoners in the Philippine Islands excepted) from Manila to the San Francisco depot of the Quartermaster's Department; but chevrons, hat cords, letters, numbers, hat and cap ornaments, leggings, uniform hats, coats, flannel shirts, and trousers, which are believed by inspectors to be not worth the cost of transportation to the United States for sale, are to be destroyed. (Secretary of War, Mar. 24, 1908; 12314, O. I. G.)

298. Odd articles of the uniform, such as shoes, leggings, and gloves, will not be submitted for the action of a surveying officer or inspector, but will be turned into such depot or depots as may be designated by the Quartermaster General, in order that such articles may be mated. (G. O. 51, W. D., 1909.)

299. Colors.—Service colors and guidons will be submitted for the action of an inspector when unfit for further use. (A. R., 239.)

300. Silken colors, standards, and guidons when unserviceable are submitted to action of a surveying officer, but not for action of an inspector. (A. R., 239.)

301. Lamps.—Lamps submitted to an inspector upon I. and I. report, it is thought, should, if repairable at reasonable cost, be ordered turned in to nearest quartermaster depot. If, in the judgment of the inspector, lamps are in such condition that the cost of repairs would nearly equal the cost of new lamps, it is thought they should be destroyed or ordered sold.

Surplus and repairable lamps on hand at posts have been ordered turned in to depots for repair and reissue, and only such lamps as in the opinion of accountable officers are not worth cost of repairs are supposed to be submitted to the action of inspectors upon I. and I. report. If, however, in the judgment of inspecting officers, lamps submitted to them are repairable, as above mentioned, action as suggested should be taken without regard to previous action of accountable officers. (Q. M. G., Aug. 17, 1908; 12548, O. I. G.)

302. Tableware.—A. R., 1194 does not contemplate action of an inspector on china and glassware. (See par. 1504, post.)

Agate and similar tableware should be treated the same as china or glassware, namely, that 5 per cent per quarter be allowed for breakage, and that it be not submitted for the action of an inspector. (Q. M. G., Mar. 2, 1904; 12443, O. I. G.)

The decision of the Quartermaster General of March 2, 1904 (see above), pertains only to breakage of china and glassware at posts. Unserviceable china and glassware pertaining to messes on transports, mine planters, etc., may be acted upon by an inspector. (Secretary of War, June 4, 1908; 12443, O. I. G.)

303. Silverware (tableware) not to be replated. (Q. M. G., Mar. 23, 1894, and May 23, 1910; 14262, O. I. G.)

304. Trumpets.—Trumpets and cords and tassels are not articles pertaining to a band, and should be inspected, if unserviceable, without the action of a board of survey (surveying officer) required for band instruments. (Q. M. G., Oct. 1, 1901; 12070, O. I. G.)

305. Typewriting machines.—Authority of the Quartermaster General must be obtained for the submission of old and unserviceable typewriting machines to the action of an inspector. (Cir. 6, Q. M. G. O., Feb. 15, 1906.)

306. Window shades.—In the judgment of this office the Inspector General's Department, in inspecting these shades for condemnation, should be governed by the conditions in each case. Should the rollers and brackets be in good condition they certainly should not be condemned, since the material for shades can be purchased by the yard, and can be installed by any post employee. Should, however, the roller be split or the spring broken or weakened the rollers should be condemned. (Q. M. G., May 4, 1909; 13249, O. I. G.)

Subsistence supplies.

307. Inventory and inspection reports.—Separate inventories will be made for "subsistence property" as distinct from "subsistence stores." (Directions on Form 1, I. G. D.)

In the case of rapidly deteriorating subsistence stores, inventories will be prepared whenever necessary, and one copy will be forwarded to the commander having authority to appoint an inspector. (A. R., 919.) Also see par. 1485, post.

308. Ovens.—Whenever it becomes necessary to condemn an oven, care will be taken to preserve, if possible, all parts that are serviceable and that can be used again. Such parts will be taken up and accounted for on the returns of the post commissary. (G. O. 37, W. D., 1910.)

309. Stores.—Subsistence stores which have deteriorated, but are of value for other purposes than human food, will be condemned and sold at auction, and prior to the sale the accountable officer will cause each can, box, bottle, or other container to be stamped or indelibly marked as follows: "Deteriorated military supplies condemned and sold under section 1241, Revised Statutes." Stores which have deteriorated to such an extent as to render them without value for any purpose whatever will be condemned and destroyed. (M. S. D., 130; Cir. 89, W. D., 1908.) See par. 252, ante.

Instructions as to condemnation and sale of subsistence stores when there is danger of heavy loss by the stores deteriorating and there is no prospect of such stores being consumed in the near future; or when stores have not deteriorated so as to render them unfit for human consumption, and are not required in the military service. (M. S. D., 129; Cir. 89, W. D., 1908.)

Medical property.

310. Damaged or unserviceable medicines, medical books, surgical or scientific instruments and appliances, pertaining to the Medical Department, will not be presented to an inspector for condemnation until authority for so doing has been obtained from the chief surgeon of the division or department. (A. R., 1510.)

NOTE.—The supply tables published in Manual for the Medical Department give lists of surgical and scientific instruments and appliances.

311. Medical journals.—In the case of a collection of old medical journals at a post, in which the Surgeon General recommended that instead of causing the destruction of large numbers of valuable medical publications authority be granted to turn them in to such libraries contiguous to posts where they accumulate as may desire them, and in the event that it is not possible to take this action they be sold as waste paper rather than destroyed, the following recommendation of the Judge Advocate General, concurred in by the Acting Inspector General, was approved by the Secretary of War, July 11, 1910:

"That, in future cases, a similar submission be made of this class of property with a view to its being acted upon by an inspector; such action looking to the sale of the property, if no longer of use at the post to which it pertains; if the property is found to be of value for medical societies, bids will be submitted in behalf of such societies. If none are submitted, bids will probably be submitted for the reports, etc., as old paper. In either case the requirements of section 1241 of the Revised Statutes will have been complied with." (8772-E, O. I. G.)

312. Medicines.—In a case of certain deteriorated drugs and medicines inspected and recommended to be sold, the Acting Secretary of War, April 2, 1908, authorized their destruction upon the following recommendation of the Surgeon General:

"It does not seem good morals for the Government to sell medicines that are unfit for use as such, in the absence of complete power to control their ultimate application, even in cases where such sales are not within the prohibition of the food and drugs act. Authority to destroy these goods is therefore requested." (9724-H, 1, O. I. G.) See par. 252, ante.

313. Turning in unserviceable property.—It is well known that a great deal of medical property which is worthless so far as sale disposition is concerned is turned in to depots, * * * and it is much to be desired that this matter be met by making disposition of it at the posts instead of sending it to far-removed supply depots. (Surg. Gen., June 10, 1910; 12427, O. I. G.)

Engineer property.

314. Boats.—Skiffs or barges of slight cost and not worth the expense of caring for them or of transporting them to some other locality where they may be of service, should, if of no salable value at the place where located and not warranting transportation to any other point for sale, be destroyed. (E. R., 514.)

315. Electrical and mechanical installations and appliances.—The following-mentioned property will not be presented for the action of an inspector without the authority of the Secretary of War: Electrical and mechanical installations and appliances furnished to the Coast Artillery Corps by the Engineer Department and forming part of the permanent seacoast defenses, but not including supplies such as wiring, tools, clamps, and battery fluid, fragile articles like battery cells or jars, and carboys, or spare parts and accessories not essential to the operation of the installation, such as battery syringes and hydrometers. (A. R., 928.) See Cir. 14, W. D., 1909, par. 7; and par. 279 (d), ante.

Property which requires this special authority for its submission to an inspector will not be on the same inventory and inspection report with other property. (Directions on Form 1, I. G. D.)

316. Electrical machines.—When a part of an electrical machine is condemned, it will be preserved and turned over to the nearest district engineer officer for repairs or renewal, and will not be thrown overboard or destroyed. (Chief of Engineers, approved by Secretary of War, April 11, 1901; 6310-A, O. I. G.)

317. Harbor charts.—Harbor charts issued by the Engineer Department which have been presented to a surveying officer, under the provisions of A. R., 682, 1908 (A. R., 689, 1910), and have been found unserviceable, or which have been inspected and condemned, will not be destroyed, but will be turned into the office of the Chief of Engineers for proper disposition. (G. O. 146, W. D., 1909.)

318. Inventory and inspection reports.—Inventory and inspection reports will show the class of works to which engineer property pertains, whether to rivers and harbors, to fortifications, etc. The items on any inventory and inspection report should not pertain to more than one property return. (E. R., 523.)

319. River and harbor and fortification property.—The Secretary of War, November 4, 1911, approved the following recommendation of the Inspector General of the Army, with reference to the inspection of unserviceable river and harbor and fortification property for which the several district officers of the Corps of Engineers are accountable.

“That the Chief of Engineers be authorized to cause inspection, having in view the condemnation of river and harbor and fortification property to be made by division engineers, or other suitable disinterested engineer officers stationed in the vicinity, when the property is of such a character that it can not be disposed of by the surveying officer under paragraph 728, A. R.

“It should be clearly understood that the regulations with respect to the examination and condemnation of unserviceable property remain in force, except as to the change in the inspecting officer.” (15202-E, O. I. G.)

320. The regulations with reference to property accountability, as contained in the Army Regulations, were intended to cover all public property under the control of the Secretary of War, whether military stores or not. The regulations (and orders) relating to the inspection of unserviceable property with a view to its condemnation apply, therefore, to public property used in river and harbor improvements. (D. J. A. G., 1496.) See par. 319 ante.

321. When any land or other property which has been heretofore or may be hereafter purchased or acquired for the improvement of rivers and harbors is no longer needed, or is no longer serviceable, it may be sold in such manner as the Secretary of War may direct, and the proceeds credited to the appropriation for the work for which it was purchased or acquired. (Act June 13, 1902; 32 Stat. L., 373.)

322. Surveying, reconnaissance, or drafting instruments.—Unserviceable surveying, reconnaissance, or drafting instruments have generally some salable value and can usually be repaired or utilized in part. Such property will be submitted to an inspector with a view to being turned in to an engineer depot for repair or final disposition under the provisions of A. R., 915, 1908 [A. R., 922, 1910]. (Par. 2, Cir. 14, W. D., 1909.)

With reference to paragraph 2, Circular 14, W. D., 1909, it is requested that, as a general rule, all surveying, reconnaissance, or drafting instruments issued to the various organizations of the Army that have become unserviceable and are submitted to an inspector for his action be ordered turned in to the engineer depot, Washington Barracks, D. C., or, if in the Philippines, to the engineer depot, Manila, P. I. With the exception of an occasional surveying instrument that may be in the hands of a post engineer officer, these articles are so small that they can be shipped through the mails, and the cost of transportation is therefore nominal. It is difficult to find a sale for one or two of these instruments when they are unserviceable, and unless so worthless as to warrant their destruction, it would be economy on the part of the Government to repair them, or utilize parts thereof. (Chief of Engineers, June 21, 1909; 13413, O. I. G.) See G. O., 145, W. D., 1907.

323. Transportation for inspectors.—The expense for transportation to a point not located on a railroad incurred by an officer of the Inspector General's Department in inspecting unserviceable river and harbor material is properly payable from the appropriation for the river and harbor work. Engineer officer to provide such transportation. (3 Comp. Dec., 3; E. R., 270 (j).)

Ordnance and ordnance stores.

324. Brass rings, buckles, etc.—When leather or other stores belonging to the Ordnance Department are condemned by an inspector and ordered destroyed or broken up, all rings, buckles, and other trimmings of brass will be cut off by enlisted labor before the property is destroyed and turned in to the post ordnance officer. When a sufficient quantity of the brass thus secured shall have accumulated to justify the cost of transportation, it will be shipped to the Rock Island Arsenal, Ill., for use in new manufactures or as scrap, except that in the Philippines Division it will be shipped to the Manila ordnance depot. (G. O. 9, W. D., 1911.)

Inspectors will state under "Remarks" on inventory and inspection reports that all rings, buckles and trimmings of brass, on ordnance stores ordered destroyed or broken up, are to be cut off and shipped to the Rock Island Arsenal, except in the Philippine Islands, where they will be shipped to the Manila depot of the Ordnance Department.

325. Cannon, machine guns, cannon ammunition, etc.—The following-named property will not be presented for the action of an inspector without the authority of the Secretary of War: Cannon and their carriages, machine and automatic guns, with their carriages and mounts, but not including spare parts, accessories, implements, and equipments required in their maintenance and operation; also ammunition for cannon. (A. R., 928.) Such property not to be on the same inventory and inspection report with other property. (Directions on Form 1, I. G. D.) See par. 279 (c) ante.

326. Spare parts for seacoast and mobile artillery are not expendable, and will be borne on the property returns irrespective of their condition. When damaged or worn out they will be submitted for the action of an inspector. (G. O. 182, W. D., 1905.)

327. Canteens.—Whenever canteens become unserviceable because of worn-out covers or lost corks, they will not be presented for condemnation, but will be repaired by the troops. Timely requisitions will be made on the Ordnance Department for extra covers, corks, etc., with which to repair them. (A. R., 1556.)

328. Equipments.—Equipments and ordnance stores which are strong and serviceable will not be condemned or replaced merely because they are unsightly or do not conform to the most recent requirements. (A. R., 923; O. S. M., p. 632.)

329. Equipments, horse, issued to mounted officers.—Horse equipments issued by the Ordnance Department to officers below the grade of major, required to be mounted, which become unserviceable shall be submitted to the action of an officer of the Inspector General's Department, and upon his recommendation to that effect may be turned in and new articles issued in exchange therefor. (A. R., 1542; for the articles which constitute a set of horse equipments see par. 379, post.) Also see par. 1497, post.

330. Equipments, personal and horse.—The following statement, showing the considerations that should govern an inspector in ordering the disposition of ordnance property so far as pertains to personal and horse equipments, is published for the information and guidance of all concerned:

In general it may be stated that since the supplies furnished for repairs are liberal in amount, it is believed that many of the stores which are now turned in to arsenals as unserviceable, should be retained and repaired in the organizations to which they belong. This remark applies more particularly to cavalry and field artillery organizations, which, since the establishment of the training school for saddlers at the Rock Island Arsenal, Rock Island, Ill., should be able to execute satisfactorily a large variety of repair work.

The following is a list of stores showing the disposition that is recommended when the stores are placed before an inspector:

(a) INFANTRY EQUIPMENTS.

Articles.	Disposition.
Bayonet scabbard, model of 1905.	Retain in service or destroy. (The repair of these scabbards is too expensive to justify turning them in for this purpose.) ¹
Blanket bag.....	Now obsolete; turn in to Rock Island Arsenal if serviceable.
Blanket-bag coat strap.....
Blanket-bag shoulder strap.....
Blanket-roll strap.....	Repair and retain in service or destroy. Do.
Canteen.....	(When canteens can no longer be repaired in the field, they are of no use to the arsenals, as new covers, corks and chains, thread, etc., are issued for making repairs, and if turned in on account of rust inside, nothing can be done with them.) ²
Canteen-haversack strap.....	Now obsolete; turn in to Rock Island Arsenal if serviceable.
Canteen strap, web.....	If unserviceable, destroy.
Cartridge belt.....	Retain in service or destroy. Turn in brass fasteners. (These cartridge belts are purchased from contractors and no facilities are on hand at the arsenals for making repairs, nor have any repairs ever been made at the factory. H. & H. soap, a cake for each man, is issued for cleaning these belts.)
Cartridge-belt suspenders.....	Retain in service or destroy.
Cartridge box, McKeever, cal. .30.	Do. (These boxes are expensive and those turned in are often in such a condition that they could have been continued in service.)
Cup, aluminum.....	Retain in service or destroy. (These cups can not be repaired as they can not be soldered.)
Cup, tin.....	Retain in service or destroy. (The cups turned in have been examined. Some are bent, some have been used over a fire, while others contain paints, oils, etc. Many are rusted and some have been stored in damp places and become rusted without unpacking. These cups are not now manufactured, the standard cup being the aluminum.) ³
Fork.....	Turn in for retinning, if otherwise serviceable.
Gunsling.....	Retain in service or destroy. Turn in brass parts to Rock Island Arsenal.
Haversack.....	Should as a rule be retained in service or destroyed. ⁴

² Modified by Cir. 51, W. D., 1910, so as to provide that canteens that become unserviceable in the hands of troops serving in the Philippine Islands and that can be repaired shall be turned in to the Manila Ordnance Depot for repairs. (See also par. 325, ante.)

Articles.	Disposition.
Knife.....	Retain in service or destroy. (Knives are frequently turned in for retinning. The blades of the knives are of steel and, if properly cared for after issue, are just as serviceable after the tinning wears off.)
Meat can, aluminum.....	Retain in service or destroy. (These meat cans, like aluminum cups, can not be soldered, and the material is rustless. If handles should break they can be issued for replacement in the field.)
Meat can, tin.....	Retain in service or destroy. (Meat cans turned in have been examined. Some are bent and some have broken handles. A great percentage of them have been used over a fire and are of little value for repairs. Many are rusted from damp storage, otherwise serviceable. Tin meat cans are not now the service pattern.) ¹
Sliding frog.....	Retain in service or destroy.
Spoon.....	Turn in for retinning, if otherwise serviceable.
Waist belt.....	Retain in service or destroy.
Waist-belt adapter.....	(All brass parts should be cut from old equipments to be destroyed and, where a sufficient quantity has accumulated, shipped to Rock Island Arsenal, as now required.)

(b) CAVALRY EQUIPMENTS.

Canteen strap, cavalry.....	Retain in service or destroy.
Cartridge belt.....	Same remarks as made with reference to infantry cartridge belt.
Cartridge belt, revolver.....	Same remarks as made with reference to infantry revolver cartridge belt.
Cartridge box, McKeever...	Same remarks as made with reference to this article under infantry equipments.
Revolver holster.....	Retain in service or destroy.
Revolver lanyard.....	Do.
Saber belt.....	Do.
Saber knot.....	Turn in to Rock Island Arsenal for repair, unless badly worn, in which case destroy.
Spur.....	Turn in if broken; if not broken, continue in service.
Spur strap.....	Retain in service or destroy.
Saber attachment.....	Do. (Make requisition on Rock Island Arsenal for hooks, buttons, etc., required for repairs.)

(c) ARTILLERY EQUIPMENTS.

Knapsack.....	Continue in service or destroy.
---------------	---------------------------------

¹ Modified by Cir. 51, W. D., 1910, so as to provide that tin cups and tin meat cans that become unserviceable in the hands of troops serving in the Philippine Islands and that can be repaired shall be turned in to the Manila Ordnance Depot for repairs.

(d) BAND EQUIPMENTS.

Band equipment should be continued in service or destroyed and brass parts sent to Rock Island Arsenal, as the equipments are made of enameled leather and are not susceptible of repairs.

(e) HORSE EQUIPMENTS.

Articles.	Disposition.
Bridle.....	Retain in service or destroy except bits, which should be sent to Rock Island Arsenal for replating, if otherwise serviceable.
Bridle, watering.....	Same remark as made above with reference to bridle.
Bit, curb.....	If broken destroy; if rusted turn in to Rock Island Arsenal for replating.
Bit, watering.....	Same remarks as made above with reference to bit, curb.
Cincha, hair.....	Retain in service or destroy.
Cincha strap.....	Do.
Coat strap for saddle.....	See remarks under saddle.
Curryeomb.....	Retain in service or destroy.
Halter chain.....	Retain in service or turn in to Rock Island Arsenal.
Halter head stall and strap.....	Retain in service or destroy.
Horse brush.....	Do.

Lariat.....	Do.
Lariat strap.....	Do.
Link.....	Do.
Nose bag.....	Do.
Picket pin.....	Do.
Rifle scabbard.....	Do.
Saber strap.....	Do.
Saddle.....	Retain in service or turn in to an arsenal, unless the trees are badly broken, in which case they should be destroyed after stripping off hardware.
Saddlebag.....	(With the present supplies issued by the Ordnance Department, it should be possible for the organization to repair any part of a saddle except the rawhide cover for the tree. If for any reason saddles are turned in to an arsenal they should, if practicable, be turned in complete.)
Saddle blanket.....	Saddlebags are made of bag leather, which leather is not included in the list of materials supplied to organizations. They should, therefore, be retained in service, destroyed, or turned in for repairs, depending on their condition.
Saddlecloth.....	Retain in service or turn in to Rock Island Arsenal.
Stirrup, hooded.....	(The gray saddle blanket is being gradually replaced by the new olive drab blanket under the provisions of paragraph I, Circular, No. 101, War Department, December 16, 1908, which requires that the gray blankets in the hands of organizations be turned in to the post ordnance officer in exchange for olive drab blankets. Unsatisfactory gray blankets in the hands of post ordnance officers should be turned in to Rock Island Arsenal, where most of them can be used in the manufacture of blanket-lined horse covers.)
Stirrup strap.....	When saddlecloths require repairs special authority should be requested to turn them in to an arsenal where this work can be done. If entirely unsatisfactory they should be destroyed. Saddlecloths when repaired should be returned directly to the officer or organization.
Surcingle.....	Retain in service or destroy.

Articles.	Disposition.
Polo equipment.....	Retain in service or turn in to Rock Island Arsenal. (The polo saddle can not, as a rule, be satisfactorily repaired in the organization; certain parts of the polo equipment can, however, and this work should be done, if possible, with the supplies furnished by the Ordnance Department. When repairs of these equipments are required which can not be made in the organization, special request should be made for authority to turn them in for repairs. When repaired such equipments will be returned to the organization directly.) (Cir. 79, W. D., 1909.)

NOTE.—The foregoing circular (79, W. D., 1909) does not forbid the making by an Inspector of a recommendation for the sale of personal and horse equipments. It contains statements and suggestions for the consideration of an inspector in making his recommendations and is not understood to be mandatory. (Views of the Chief of Ordnance, concurred in by the Acting Inspector General and Secretary of War, Sept. 27, 1911; 15439, O. I. G.)

331. Field Artillery equipment.—Battery and store wagon bodies, ammunition chests, and other large parts of artillery equipment, which usually contain material that can be again used, even though the article as a whole be entirely unserviceable, should not be destroyed, but should be turned in to an arsenal. (Secretary of War, Nov. 29, 1910; 14742, O. I. G.)

Old black leather artillery harness which has reached the stage at which it can no longer be kept in good repair in the battery should, upon condemnation, be stripped of all metallic or other parts which may be of use and the latter shipped to Rock Island Arsenal. (Chief of Ordnance, July 20, 1906; 10995, O. I. G.) Inspectors will state under "Remarks" on inventory and inspection reports condemning such harness that all metallic or other parts which may be of use will be shipped to the Rock Island Arsenal.

332. Gas check pads.—Gas check pads pertaining to the breech mechanisms of seacoast guns and mortars when condemned as no longer satisfactory for service are not worth the cost of transportation to an arsenal and should be destroyed. (Secretary of War, Aug. 19, 1910; 14501, O. I. G.)

333. Haversacks.—Haversacks when merely soiled or greasy must not be condemned for that cause, but should be washed at the post. Portions of the equipment rendered unserviceable by the loss of minor parts should be repaired at the post. Timely requisition should be made for buckles, rings, straps, and the necessary tools and materials for repair. (O. S. M., p. 633.)

334. Machine-gun parts.—Barrels chambered for model 1903 ammunition, and graduation strips corresponding with the same ammunition for the Maxim automatic machine gun, model of 1904, can not be prepared or converted for use with the model 1906 ammunition, and should not be turned into an arsenal when presented for condemnation. (Chief of Ordnance, Nov. 2, 1910; 14670, O. I. G.)

There are no obsolete nozzles for the Maxim automatic machine gun, model of 1904, in service, and the extra nozzles issued to the machine-gun platoons are for a reserve supply and should not be turned in. (Chief of Ordnance, June 16, 1909; 13397, O. I. G.)

Firing pins for Maxim automatic machine guns, model of 1904, made in one piece, when broken in service and condemned, will not be sold or destroyed, but will be turned in for repair to the Springfield Armory, Mass., or to the Manila Ordnance Depot, P. I. (A. G. O. Circular Letter, Jan. 13, 1911, to department and division commanders; 14670-A, O. I. G.)

335. Repairs.—Ordinary repairs can usually be made in the company or at the post or within the district with the means provided for that purpose by the Ordnance Department. When the repairs required can not be thus made, the articles, except small arms, hand arms, and personal and horse equipments, will be sent, on the approved recommendation of an inspector, to an arsenal designated by the Chief of Ordnance. Small arms, hand arms, and personal and horse equipments, on the approved recommendation of an inspector, will be turned in to the post ordnance officer, who will, when sufficient stores have accumulated to make an economical shipment, send them to an arsenal designated by the Chief of Ordnance. A certified extract from the inspection report will accompany the invoice describing the articles as the authority for turning them in to an arsenal, or to the post ordnance officer. (A. R., 1559.)

(For regulations authorizing a division commander, in the absence of an inspecting officer, to order the disposition of ordnance and ordnance stores which need repairs that can not be made at the post or within the district, see A. R., 1560.)

336. Sand glasses.—Sand glasses rendered unserviceable will be presented for the action of an inspector, who will recommend that they be turned in to Rock Island Arsenal for repair. (Cir. 47, W. D., 1906.)

337. Small arms, etc.—Small arms found to be unfit for service, and hand arms ordered turned in to depot, will first be turned in to the post ordnance officer for economical shipment to an arsenal. (A. R., 922; see par. 335, ante.)

The destruction of small arms by inspectors is prohibited. (A. R., 925.)

The most general definition of the term "Small arms" makes it include all portable arms, whether firearms or cutting arms; that is, such as do not require a carriage. Although the usage of the Ordnance Department has tended to confine the term to firearms only, it is thought that for the purpose of paragraphs 915 and 1572 of the Army Regulations (A. R., 922, 925, 1910) the more general definition should govern, and that the term should include hand weapons of all kinds; that is, rifles, shotguns, pistols, revolvers, sabers, swords, bayonets, machetes, and Hospital Corps knives. The small arms enumerated above should be turned in to the Springfield Armory, the Rock Island Arsenal, or Manila Ordnance Depot, where the necessary repairs may be made. (Chief of Ordnance, Dec. 5, 1907; 12062, O. I. G.)

338. The only safe method of determining whether the accuracy life of the barrel of the United States magazine rifle, model 1903, is ended is by actual firing. A conclusion has been reached that rifles which give the following results when fired by an expert should be considered serviceable:

	Mean radius.
At 100 yards.....	2.5 inches
At 200 yards.....	3.5 inches
At 300 yards.....	5.0 inches
At 500 yards.....	10.0 inches

To be obtained by taking the mean radius of a target of ten shots. (Acting Chief of Ordnance, May 29, 1911; 15199, O. I. G.)

339. When small arms are presented for inspection with a view to condemnation, strict attention should be paid to A. R., 916 (A. R., 923, 1910), which provides: "Public property in use will not be reported as unserviceable nor condemned by an inspector merely because worn or shabby in appearance when really strong and serviceable." (O. S. M., p. 589.)

340. Whenever the magazine rifles, carbines, or revolvers of companies, troops, or batteries have become much worn and in need of repairs, and the deterioration is general throughout the organization, responsible officers are authorized, with the approval of their post commanders, to submit the arms for the action of an inspector upon a separate inventory and inspection report. Should the inspector recommend that the arms, or a portion of them, be turned in for renovation and rebonning, responsible officers will at once make requisition for new arms for their commands, or for such number as the inspector has recommended for renovation, and will forward with it a copy of the inventory and inspection report, and when the new arms are received the old ones will at once be turned in to the armory, arsenal, or depot from which the new ones were issued. (G. O. 33, A. G. O., 1900, amended by G. O. 11, A. G. O., 1903.)

341. Issued to colleges, universities, etc.—Instructions governing inspection of. (Par. 53, G. O. 231, W. D., 1909; par. 8, Cir. 14, W. D., 1908.)

(A. R., 928.) See par. 279 (d), ante.

354. Guard cartridges.—Ordnance officers of posts will keep on hand at all times a supply of guard cartridges, caliber .30, not to exceed 10 rounds per man stationed at post, for issue to post guards and for such other purposes as may be necessary. This ammunition is not subject to expenditure for target practice. (G. O. 48, A. G. O., 1903.) Also see G. O. 12, W. D., 1911, Par. I, sec. 7.

355. Powder.—Information relative to powder. (Cir. 16, W. D., 1904; C. A. M. 8, W. D., 1910; G. O. 22, W. D., 1911; also "Artillery Notes, No. 16, Mar. 4, 1904"; the Coast Artillery Drill Regulations; Gunnery and Explosives for Field Artillery Officers.)

Smokeless powder charges are supplied to forts in hermetically sealed cases and shall be opened only in accordance with War Department instructions. (D. R. C. A., 969.) Smokeless powder will not be used for blank charges, and will not be exposed to the direct rays of the sun. (G. O. 22, W. D., 1911, p. 13, and par. 5, 1.)

Unless there are instructions to the contrary the charges to be used during each target season will be taken from those lots of powder of earliest date of manufacture on hand in the artillery district, no matter whether they be marked for reserve or for target practice, (G. O. 22, W. D., 1911, par. 5, b.)

Powder of the same lot shall be used for each series of shots from a battery, including trial shots. (D. R. C. A., 663.)

Powder marked for one caliber or piece must not be used for any other caliber or piece of different chamber capacity. (D. R. C. A., 664.)

356. Projectiles.—Cleaning: Projectiles shall be cleaned carefully before being inserted in the bore, lubricant removed, and the bourrelets freed of paint. (D. R. C. A., 666.)

Marking of projectiles. (G. O. 5 and 89, W. D., 1907.)

The last paragraph of G. O. 89, W. D., 1907, requires officers having charge of armor or deck-piercing projectiles to see that all marks of identification are promptly renewed when effaced or rendered illegible, which would require not only the lot numbers to be renewed when necessary, but also the projectiles to be repainted with the distinctive colors showing the type of projectile. These distinctive colors are described in Ordnance Pamphlets Nos. 1868 and 1877. (Chief of Ordnance, Dec. 29, 1909; 13799, O. I. G.)

In view of the importance of having the lot numbers on the projectiles in a permanent form, armament officers will be instructed to have them stamped in small figures on the bands. (Chief of Ordnance, Mar. 31, 1910; 13600, O. I. G.)

Distinguishing marks for shrapnel for 3-inch field gun, powder-charged shell, and high-explosive shell. (G. O. 110, W. D., 1907.)

Painting of projectiles. (Cir. 43, A. G. O., 1902; D. R. C. A., 880.)

In case the magazines or galleries in which the projectiles are stored are wet, the projectiles will be slushed after painting. (G. O. 22, W. D., 1911, par. 4, c.)

Storing and piling of projectiles: When stored in magazines after removal from the wooden packing boxes, projectiles will be placed on skids or rails in such a manner that the rotating band does not support the weight of the projectile. If necessary to pile projectiles, the layers will be separated from each other by a wooden frame, in such a manner that the rotating bands do not support any weight. Proper precautions will be taken to see that rotating bands are not burred or deformed in handling. (G. O. 22, W. D., 1911, par. 4, c.) Projectiles will always be piled with points to the wall and base out, so that they may be easily inspected and fused. (Cir. 43, A. G. O., 1902; D. R. C. A., 878.)

357. Steel projectiles with or without bursting charge of high explosive issued to the seacoast fortifications as part of their reserve ammunition will not be used in target practice or other firings without special authority. (G. O. 92, W. D., 1904.)

358. Method of repairing and altering dummy projectiles to prevent sticking during drill. (Artillery Bulletin No. 60 (serial No. 71), Aug. 7, 1909.)

359. Reserve supply of small-arms ammunition per man (authorized strength), to be kept on hand at all times, is: 180 rounds rifle ball cartridges; 40 rounds revolver ball cartridges. (Secretary of War, Aug. 10, 1907; 12646, O. I. G.)

360. Expenditure of ammunition. (A. R., 1550-1553.)

361. Where hunting for large game is practicable the men will be encouraged to hunt, and for this purpose company commanders may permit their men to purchase cartridges, if the supply warrants it, such sales to be accounted for on the returns of ordnance. (A. R., 365.)

362. Frequent inspections will be made by company commanders to see that no cartridges are lost; and if any soldier can not satisfactorily account for all his ammunition he will be disciplined in addition to being charged with the cost of the loss. Special care will be taken not to have cartridges left where unauthorized persons entering barracks might steal them. (G. O. 26, Philippines Division, 1906.) The precautions taken are fairly subject to inquiry of inspectors elsewhere than in the Philippines. (O. I. G.)

363. There is nothing in regulations warranting the conclusion that it is forbidden to store small-arms ammunition in company store or property rooms, and unless there is some special and exceptional condition existing making it dangerous, the fact that such ammunition is stored in a company storeroom should not be reported as a "defect" by an inspector. (Secretary of War, Sept. 14, 1908; 12505, O. I. G.)

364. Original packages containing blank cartridges—procedure when first opened. (G. O. 182, W. D., 1905.)

365. Of division inspectors general. (A. R., 897.) See par. 17, ante.

376. The field glass of the visual-signal outfit issued to each company of infantry, coast artillery, and Philippine Scouts, troop of cavalry, and machine-gun platoon is not issued for the personal use of an officer, and will not be used in lieu of the officer's personal field glass. In view of probable changes in horse equipments that may be made as a result of the work of the cavalry equipment board, the provisions of paragraph 1542, Army Regulations, which require an officer to whom horse equipments have been issued to turn them in on promotion to field rank, are waived. Such officers will be allowed to retain their equipment and account for it as heretofore until such time as the new equipment is available for sale. (Cir. Letter, W. D., A. G. O., July 5, 1911; 15317, O. I. G.)

An officer upon whom the command of a squadron or battalion devolves by reason of his being the senior officer of the squadron or battalion with which he is serving will not, because of the assumption of such command, be relieved from the performance of duties which normally devolve upon him, but will continue to command the troop, battery, or company to which he is assigned, or to exercise the functions of a squadron or battalion staff officer, as the case may be. (G. O. 211, W. D., 1909.)

A. R., 235, of 1904, as amended by paragraph I, G. O. 139, W. D., 1907 [A. R., 244, 1910] is not to be interpreted as eliminating the battalion or squadron commander from the channels through which correspondence regarding the personnel, instruction, discipline, and equipment of his command should pass. Under such regulation, however, no official record will be kept by the battalion or squadron commander of such correspondence. (Cir. 20, W. D., 1908.)

578. Provisional battalions may be designated, by whom and when. (A. R., 244.)

627. Private property lost in the service. (A. R. 737.)

BUILDINGS.

628. Changes in buildings at military posts are not to be made without proper authority from the War Department. (G. O. 163, W. D., 1908.)

629. It appears that there is a special appropriation for barracks and quarters at seacoast artillery posts (34 Stat. L., 1348); that the wording of the regular appropriation under "Barracks and Quarters"

(34 Stats., 1168) is for barracks and quarters for troops other than seacoast artillery, storehouses for the safe-keeping of military stores, for offices, recruiting stations, etc. Construing the appropriations together, I am clearly of the opinion that the words in the regular appropriation "other than seacoast artillery," following, as they do, the words "barracks and quarters," qualify those words only, and that the regular appropriation is, therefore, applicable to the construction of storehouses, offices, etc., at seacoast artillery posts as well as at other posts. It follows also that the appropriation for "barracks and quarters for the artillery" at seacoast posts is limited strictly to barracks and quarters.

As to the appropriations in the Sundry Civil Act (34 Stat. L., 1348), the one for barracks and quarters for the artillery in connection with the adopted project for seacoast defenses, etc., is to be regarded as a specific one for barracks and quarters at seacoast artillery posts, and as to these objects the general appropriation for "the construction and enlargement of military posts of such building as, in the judgment of the Secretary of War, may be necessary," etc., can not, of course, be used to supplement it.

The general appropriation is, however, available for the construction of necessary buildings other than barracks and quarters at seacoast artillery posts as well as at other artillery posts. (Op. J. A. G., Aug. 17, 1907; 12192-A, O. I. G.)

630. Hereafter wooden buildings are not to be constructed at military posts, except where they are intended for temporary use only. (Recommendation of Quartermaster General, approved by Acting Secretary of War, May 14, 1908; 12427, O. I. G.)

631. Upon completion and acceptance of construction work at a military post the constructing quartermaster will turn the work over to the post commander, who will inspect it and submit to The Adjutant General of the Army, through military channels, a report as to whether the work meets all requirements. (G. O. 146, W. D., 1909.)

632. Occupancy of public buildings by officers' clubs, messes, or similar social organizations. (G. O. 54, W. D., 1909.)

633. Action to be taken whenever a public building is destroyed or seriously damaged by fire, storm, or other natural cause. (A. R., 720.)

634. Following the established practice with regard to naming military posts, no camp or vessel, and no building, hall, street, driveway, etc., on a military reservation will be named in honor of a living officer. Any name not conforming to this rule will be changed. (Cir. 64, W. D., 1906.)

CEREMONIES.

635. When desirable that an organization should be reviewed before an inspector junior in rank to the commanding officer, the commanding officer receives the review, and is accompanied by the inspector, who takes post on his left. (I. D. R., 724.)

636. At reviews the commanding officer of the troops, and the members of his staff accompanying him, will return saber after turning out of the column and placing themselves on the right (or left) of the reviewing officer and his staff, and will draw saber after the commanding officer salutes the reviewing officer preparatory to returning to the command. (G. O. 196, W. D., 1909.)

637. At ceremonies the position of companies or detachments of the Signal Corps, if dismounted, will be as laid down in paragraph 6, Army Regulations, viz: "On the right of the command to which they are attached." If mounted, they will form on the other flank. If both engineers and Signal Corps troops are together, the former, for ceremonies, will form on the right of the latter. (Cir. 36, W. D., 1906.)

638. The ceremony of "Escort of the Colors" should be so conducted as to render it one of the most impressive to the soldier, especially to the young recruit, of all the functions in which he is required to participate. (G. O. 125, A. G. O., 1900.)

639. Dress parade is not required at a one-company post. Attention is invited to A. R., 510, and the infantry drill regulations, which latter prescribe parade for no smaller command than a battalion. (Chief of Staff, Dec. 8, 1903.)

NOTE.—A. R., 510, of 1901, is same as A. R., 444, 1910.

CIVILIAN EMPLOYEES.

640. General regulations governing. (A. R., 699, 738-750, 1060, 1071, 1151, 1224, 1232, 1251, 1267, 1421, 1479, 1480, 1482, 1495.)

641. Hours of labor: Exceptions to the eight-hour law. (A. R., 742; Cir. 83, W. D., 1907.) On Saturdays during July, August, and September of each year. (Cir. 42, W. D., 1909.)

642. Transfer of, to and from the Philippines; tour of duty in the Philippines, etc. (G. O. 68, W. D., 1904.)

643. The Secretary of War considers that the interests of the service require that employees at large in the department must be subject to orders in regard to transfer of station, and a refusal to obey such orders will be deemed a proper and sufficient reason for discharge from the service. (Cir. 26, A. G. O., 1901.)

644. Officers or employees in the executive service of the Government, who are notaries public, are not to charge officers or employees for notarial acts; exceptions, etc. (Cir. 98, W. D., 1908.)

645. Control of employees of constructing quartermasters and of contractors for the Quartermaster's Department and their employees while engaged in construction work at military posts ordered by the War Department. (G. O. 146, W. D., 1909.)

646. Control of employees of the Engineer Department and of contractors of that department and their employees while engaged in construction or repair work at military posts ordered by the War Department. (G. O. 193, W. D., 1909.)

647. The per diem and traveling expenses allowed to civilian employees under the provisions of A. R., 744, of 1910, when such employees are on temporary duty at places other than their regular stations, will not be paid for more than the first 30 days of such temporary duty. (Secretary of War, Apr. 5, 1911; 12243-H, 1, O. I. G.)

648. Civilian employees of the Army when traveling under orders requiring them to be absent from their stations will be instructed to procure receipts for all expenditures incurred by them and charged for in their accounts for reimbursement. (A. R., 744.) In the event that they are unable to procure receipts for any items of expenditure therein, they will be required to submit with their accounts positive and satisfactory evidence that it was impracticable to obtain receipts therefor. (G. O. 117, W. D., 1911.) See Cir. 43, O. C. E., 1911.

649. Indorsements of the Quartermaster General and Acting Secretary of War of November 2 and 4, 1907, respectively, relative to making semimonthly payments to certain civilian employees of the Quartermaster's Department:

Quartermaster General: "Army Regulations, 733, 1904 [A. R., 741, 1910], has always been construed in this office as permitting a certain amount of discretion to the quartermaster making payment to employees, and the method of paying semimonthly is acceptable to the Treasury Department officials. When the quartermaster's depots are located in large cities, where it is customary for employees not in the Government service to be paid semimonthly, it has been thought that to adhere strictly to paragraph of regulations referred to would in most cases work a hardship upon the employees of the Government."

Acting Secretary of War: "The semimonthly payments of civilian employees referred to herein is approved under the circumstances." (Cir. letter, O. I. G., Nov. 20, 1907; 5795-Bk; O. I. G.)

650. Laws and regulations relative to political activity of civilian employees, and to political assessments or contributions by persons in the public service are published in Circular No. 65, War Department, 1910, a copy of which circular is, by the next to last paragraph thereof, required to be posted by the officers in charge in prominent places in all bureaus and offices in and under the War Department, and at all arsenals, depots, and stations in the service at large where civilians are employed.

651. All officers and employees of the United States of every description serving in or under any of the Executive Departments, and whether so serving in or out of Washington, are forbidden, either directly or indirectly, individually or through associations, to solicit an increase of pay or to influence or attempt to influence in their own interest any other legislation whatever, either before Congress or its committees, or in any way save through the heads of the departments in or under which they serve, on penalty of dismissal from the Government service. (Executive Order, Jan. 31, 1902; G. O. 18, A. G. O., 1902.)

652. Executive order as to bureau, office, or division chief, or subordinate in any department of the Government, or officer of the Army or Navy or Marine Corps stationed in Washington, applying for legislation, appropriations, or congressional action of any kind; furnishing information to Congress, etc. (Cir. 82, W. D., 1909.)

653. No officer or employee of the Government shall, directly or indirectly, instruct or be concerned in any manner in the instruction of any person or classes of persons, with a view to their special preparation for the examinations of the United States Civil Service Commission. The fact that any officer or employee is found so engaged shall be considered sufficient cause for his removal from the service. (Executive Order, Oct. 13, 1905; G. O. 183, W. D., 1905.)

654. That whenever there are already two or more members of a family in the public service in the grades covered by this act (Civil Service Act), no other member of such family shall be eligible to appointment to any of said grades. (Act Jan. 16, 1883, sec. 9; 22 Stat. L., 406.)

The "family" consists of those who live under the same roof with the pater familias—those who form his fireside; but when they branch out and become heads of new establishments they cease to be part of the father's family. (26 Op. Att. Gen., 301.) See also W. D. Cir. I, Mar. 31, 1909.

655. The loaning of money at usurious rates of interest by clerks or other civilian employees in or under the War Department or the military establishment, either as principal or agent, directly or indirectly, to others in the Government service, is prohibited, and any such clerk or employee who hereafter engages in the same will be dismissed from the service and no application for his reinstatement therein will be considered. (G. O. 52, W. D., 1911.)

656. Act of Congress granting certain classes of artisans and laborers employed by the United States the right to receive compensation for injuries sustained in the course of their employment, and regulations prescribed thereunder. (Cir. 68, W. D., 1908.) Rulings, etc. (W. D. Cirs. 3, 9, 10, 80, 1909; 6, 11, 1910.)

657. Action to be taken whenever the death of a civilian employee occurs at a military post or station or with a command in the field. (G. O. 67, W. D., 1910.)

CLAIMS AGAINST THE UNITED STATES.

658. The soliciting of pension or other claims against the United States on military reservations or at military posts, camps, or stations, including general hospitals, is hereby prohibited, and commanding officers will take measures effectually to prevent such soliciting within the limits of military reservations, posts, camps, stations, or hospitals under their command. Officers or enlisted men who give information with a view to aiding persons in soliciting such claims will be brought to trial and civilian employees who so offend will be discharged. (G. O. 163, W. D., 1906.) See Cir. 80, W. D., 1908.

659. Claims for damages to private property resulting from military operations, including heavy gun practice at the seacoast defense forts; how submitted, evidence, etc. (Cir. 22, W. D., 1910.)

660. Presenting false or fraudulent claims against, or conspiring to defraud the United States, etc.; penalty. (Act Mar. 4, 1909; 35 Stat. L., 1095; G. O. 22, W. D., 1910.)

CONTRACTS AND PURCHASES.

661. General regulations. (A. R., Arts. L, LI, LII.)

662. Instructions of the Secretary of War of October 6, 1905, in regard to advertisements for supplies, bids and bidders, bondsmen, modification or annulment of contracts, inspection of raw material used by manufacturers in furnishing finished products, inspection of supplies at time of delivery, etc. (G. O. 167, W. D., 1905.)

663. Advertisements should be in the briefest form possible consistent with clearness of expression and should be free from all verbiage. * * * It is directed that in future greater care be exercised in the preparation of advertisements and that the requirements of A. R., 513, be observed and complied with. (Cir. 14, Q. M. G. O., 1911.)

664. Contracts for rental of telephones by Corps of Engineers. (Cir. 30, O. C. E., 1911.)

665. A copy of each contract is to be transmitted directly to the Returns Office of the Department of the Interior by the officer who signs the contract, as soon as possible after the contract has been made and approved, and within 30 days after approval, together with one original of all bids, offers, and proposals made by persons to obtain the contract, and by a copy of the advertisement; all of which will be fastened together with a ribbon and seal, and numbered in regular order, with the affidavit of the contracting officer appended. Explanation in case of delay. (A. R., 571.) See R. S., 3744.

666. Paragraph 746, Army Regulations of 1889 (A. R., 603, 1910), to the effect that officers of the Army shall not contract with other persons in the military service to furnish supplies or service to the Government, does not apply to contracts on behalf of the United States which require for their validity the approval of the Secretary of War. (D. J. A. G., 956.)

667. Paragraph 593, Army Regulations, forbids, inter alia, any contract in which any person in the military service "shall be admitted to share or receive benefit." The arrangement in question by which recruits enlisted at New Haven, Conn., are lodged and fed by the wife of Corpl. — of the recruiting party, is, strictly speaking, a violation of this requirement of the regulations; but the arrangement is not a violation of any statute, and its requirements may be waived by the Secretary of War. (Op. J. A. G., Oct. 22, 1907, concurred in by Acting Secretary of War, Oct. 24, 1907; 11918, O. I. G.)

NOTE.—A. R. 593, of 1904, is same as A. R., 603, of 1910.

668. The practice of allowing members of a recruiting party and applicants for enlistment at a general recruiting station to receive a rebate for meals not taken by them from the contractor for meals is unauthorized. Where a member of a recruiting party or an applicant fails to take the meal called for by a meal ticket that has been issued to him by the recruiting officer, he should return the ticket to the recruiting officer. (Cir. 5, W. D., 1909.)

669. No officer of the United States will accept voluntary service for the Government or employ personal service in excess of that authorized by law, except in case of sudden emergency involving loss of human life or the destruction of property. (A. R., 524; R. S., 3679, amended by act Feb. 27, 1906; 34 Stat. L., 49.)

670. Convict labor on Government contracts prohibited. (G. O. 78, W. D., 1905.)

CONTRACT SURGEONS.

671. The services rendered by a contract surgeon are not restricted to those of a purely professional character; on the contrary, his eligibility for duty is the same as that of a first lieutenant of the Medical Corps, except in so far as it is limited by the fact that he is not a commissioned officer. A contract surgeon, though not eligible for detail on courts-martial, may prefer charges against enlisted men and may be detailed on councils of administration, and as post treasurer, etc.; he may also witness payments to enlisted men under the provisions of A. R., 1338 to 1360. (A. R., 1417.)

672. Contract surgeons and acting dental surgeons are entitled to the same protection in their positions and the same respect and obedience from enlisted men as commissioned officers. (A. R., 1414.)

675. For plate work or for the filling of teeth of enlisted men the materials supplied by the Government will be used and no other, and members of the Dental Corps are forbidden to enter into any financial agreement with enlisted men involving an obligation for payment for silver, platinum, or gold used for filling cavities in teeth, for the construction of bridge work, for the fitting of crowns, the making of artificial dentures, or other dental work. Exceptions beyond the territorial limits of the United States; conditions, etc. (A. R., 1424.)

676. Dental supply table. (M. M. D., Art. XIII.)

681. Purchase of, by enlisted men. (A. R., 143; G. O. 90, W. D., 1911.) By Philippine Scouts. (G. O. 80, Phil. Div., 1911.)

682. Character given on. (A. R., 147; Cir. 18, W. D., 1909.)

683. An executed honorable discharge can not be revoked unless obtained by fraud on the part of the soldier. Mere mistake on the part of officers executing it will not justify revocation. The same is equally true of a discharge without honor when once duly executed. (Cir. 92, W. D., 1909.)

684. Issue of certificates of discharge to soldiers or sailors who enlisted or served under assumed names in the Army or Navy during the War of the Rebellion, the War with Spain or the Philippine Insurrection. (Act June 25, 1910; G. O. 186, W. D., 1910.)

DISEASES.

685. Strict attention will be paid by company commanders to the cleanliness of the men and to the police of barracks or tents. The men will be required to bathe frequently. In garrison, and whenever practicable in the field, they will be required to wash their hands thoroughly after going to the latrines and before each meal, in order to prevent the transmission of typhoid fever and other diseases by germs taken into the mouth with food from unclean hands. The hair will be kept short and the beard neatly trimmed. Soiled clothing will be kept in the barrack bag. (A. R., 286.)

686. Preventive measures against typhoid fever: Personal hygiene. (Cir. 62, A. G. O., 1902.) Administration of antityphoid serum at posts. (W. D. G. O., 10, 1909; 227, 1910; 134, 1911.) Administration of the typhoid prophylactic to recruits. (G. O. 134, W. D., 1911.)

EIGHT-HOUR LAW.

688. Eight-hour law. (Act Aug. 1, 1892, 27 Stat. L., 340; G. O. 56, A. G. O., 1892, p. 8.) See A. R., 742, and Cir. 83, W. D., 1907.

689. Opinion of Attorney General relating to application of, (G. O. 141, W. D., 1906.)

690. Reports of infractions of the eight-hour law from any branch of the military establishment are to be rendered in duplicate. (Secretary of War, Apr. 11, 1907; 11576, O. I. G.) See Cir. 24, Q. M. G. O., 1911.

FORTIFICATIONS.

691. Fire-control installations to be designated "provisional" and "standard." (G. O. 81, W. D., 1907.)

714. In order to prevent delays, expense, and unnecessary correspondence, any damage to or defects in the engineer work or material at any artillery post will, as soon as observed, be communicated in writing by the artillery district commander directly to the district engineer officer, who is authorized to make needed repairs if the balances in his hands from the general allotment for preservation and repair of fortifications are sufficient; otherwise, he will make immediate report of the fact to the Chief of Engineers. (G. O. 62, W. D., 1908, Par. IV, sec. 43.)

715. Battery commanders will be responsible for the care, preservation, and proper handling of the equipment of their batteries and stations. They will make no changes in permanent installations. They will submit timely requisitions to post staff officer concerned for such supplies as may be needed for proper maintenance of equipment pertaining to their batteries and stations. They will report to the post staff officer of the department concerned such defects as they can not remedy and such repairs as they can not make with means under their control. (G. O. 62, W. For fire-control installations.—Will erect all stations (including battle and battery commander stations; primary, secondary, and supplementary stations for fire commands, mine commands, and batteries; searchlight, tide-gauge and meteorological stations, etc.), switchboard rooms, and telephone and telautograph niches and booths for emplacements and stations, all protected in the best manner practicable; it will furnish circular benches around observing instruments and plotting boards, and to reduce the noise will furnish corrugated rubber floor cloth for the floors of stations and telephone booths; it will also furnish searchlights and the electric power current required for all fire-control purposes (except that derived from Signal Corps storage batteries installed to operate telautographs), together with electric lamps and other material for lighting all stations, etc.; it will also furnish and install all wiring, underground or overhead, for lighting and power.

For fortifications and their accessories.—Will supply and install all necessary electrical appliances and apparatus for furnishing light and power, including linoleum for dynamo and engine rooms, switchboards and instruments attached thereto, and searchlight equipments, with the exception of the motors permanently attached to the gun and mortar carriages, and except where central electric plants have been installed which provide current for the post as well as the fortifications, in which case the necessary supplies, etc., will be furnished in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 1068, Army Regulations [A. R., 1076, 1910]. The Engineer Department will also make repairs to the fortifications, including the ramps, gutters, etc., connected therewith. It will also, as funds permit, supply reserve lanterns for use in permanent seacoast batteries and fire-control stations in case of failure of electric current. For fortifications and buildings accessory thereto, constructed by the Engineer Department, that department will furnish and install all necessary interior water and sewer apparatus and fixtures, and will make the necessary connections with mains provided by the Quartermaster's Department when the distance to such mains is not greater than 100 feet measured from the exterior lines of the Engineer Department structures. (G. O. 5, W. D., 1909, amended by G. O. 76, W. D., 1910.)

It will also supply electrical clocks, time-interval bells, firing signals, zone signals, aeroscopes, field glasses, telescopes (other than battle, fire, and mine commander's telescopes), and meteorological instruments. It will furnish and install all submarine cables for communication, including the construction of cable terminals, but excluding cover for the terminals or the cable approaches. It will also furnish all cable for communication by overhead or underground lines and the necessary terminal boxes. In case of underground lines the cables will be placed in trenches or ducts by the Engineer Department. In case of overhead lines they will be installed by the Signal Corps. When practicable any pole lines which have been installed by the Engineer Department for light and power wires may, with the consent of that department, be utilized by the Signal Corps for any of these wires. It will supply each garrisoned coast artillery post having a standard fire-control installation with the following equipment: One electrical engineer's tool chest, one inspector's pocket kit, and one tool bag. To each coast artillery post equipped with a provisional fire-control installation it will supply a post tool chest.

The Signal Corps will supply all the necessary lines and means of electrical communication, including telephones, dial and other telegraphs, wiring, all necessary electrical instruments not permanently attached to the switchboard, including portable ammeters and portable voltmeters, and such special instruments as may be directed to be supplied by the Secretary of War. (G. O. 5, W. D., 1909.)

(c) Ordnance Department.

For fire-control installations:—Will supply range finders, observation telescopes, plotting boards, deflection boards, range boards, wind component indicators, azimuth instruments, time-interval recorders, scale arms, range tables, prediction scales, set forward rulers, mine prediction rulers, predictors, range rods, time range boards, drawing instruments and materials, etc., prescribed for use in connection with the fire control and direction system for coast fortifications and for the control of mine fields.

The Ordnance Department will furnish all motors to be attached to gun and mortar carriages and mechanical loading apparatus, including motor generators, switchboards, terminal boxes, resistances, flexible metallic conduits, dry-cell batteries, magneto-generators, conductors, connections, etc., required for the power, illumination, and firing circuits attached to carriages; will supply all bench and hand tools and appliances for engineer power plants and ordnance repair shops, including supplies for the latter; will furnish and install, in buildings provided by the Quartermaster's Department, such machines, tools, etc., as may be prescribed for ordnance repair shops; will make all necessary repairs to guns, carriages, instruments of the fire control and direction system furnished by it, including implements accessories, tools, etc.; will furnish thermometers and hygrometers for use in connection with the ventilation of magazines, and stencils for all gun and mortar letters and figures for designating emplacements, etc., Clinometers and rests for each caliber and model of the gun in service will be supplied by the nearest district armament officer of the Ordnance Department whenever needed by artillery officers in complying with the requirements of General Orders, No. 65, Headquarters of the Army, Adjutant General's office, 1901. (G. O. 5, W. D., 1909.)

(d) Quartermaster's Department.

For fire-control stations, etc.—Will supply stationery, heating apparatus, oil lamps, and furniture (not including rubber floor cloth nor circular benches for observers and plotters).

The Quartermaster's Department will furnish all fuel and engine supplies, such as waste, lubricating oils, oil lamps, brooms, brushes, coal-handling and fire tools and appliances, etc., necessary for the maintenance, operation, and preservation of all electric plants; for central plants which furnish current to the post as well as to the fortifications, it will, in addition, furnish all material and funds necessary for their repair and preservation (A. R., 1068.) [A. R., 1076, 1910.] It will also furnish such materials as may be needed for the use of the battery mechanics, all grass-cutting tools, and all carpenter's tools. When under the provisions of paragraph 1523, Army Regulations [A. R., 1528, 1910], any seacoast post, or any part of it, has been turned over to and garrisoned by the coast artillery, all repairs to the post buildings and to all plumbing, water supply, and sewer systems, roads, walks, and grounds will be made by the Quartermaster's Department, governed in this work by the provisions of paragraph 1522, Army Regulations [A. R., 1527, 1910.] The Quartermaster's Department will furnish the water required for all purposes at seacoast fortifications, and will provide all necessary fire hydrants and all water and sewer mains. For all buildings constructed by the Quartermaster's Department that department will also furnish and install all necessary interior water and sewer apparatus and fixtures and will make the necessary connections with water and sewer mains.

Artillery district commanders will have prepared and forward through military channels for action of the Quartermaster General estimates, with plans and detailed information relative thereto, for water and sewer extensions required to make connections with fortifications and buildings accessory thereto constructed by the Engineer Department up to the point where under paragraph 5, G. O. 5, W. D., 1909, the Engineer Department mains and pipes are connected with those provided under paragraph 8, G. O. 5, W. D., 1909. (G. O. 5, W. D., 1909.)

724. Allowance of furniture for position-finding stations at coast artillery posts furnished by the Quartermaster's Department. (G. O. 45, W. D., 1906.)

725. Allowance of reserve lanterns for seacoast batteries. (Mimeo. No. 77, serial No. 450, Eng. Dept., Aug. 25, 1909.)

726. Difference charts, when to be used; material to be supplied for. (G. O. 166, W. D., 1907.)

727. Peace storage magazines, at what posts to be constructed. (2d Supp. to Memo. No. 38, serial No. 475, Eng. Dept., Nov. 4, 1910.)

728. Except when they are in actual use, time range boards will be removed from the walls of emplacements and stored so that they will be protected from the weather. (C. A. M. No. 7, W. D., 1909.)

FUNDS.

Regimental, bakery, company, and mess.

729. Regulations. (A. R., 316-334, 337, 338, 350, 913, 1159, 1229.)

730. No projects by which money will accrue will be entered upon under color of military control without specific authority from the War Department. (A. R., 323.)

731. Under no circumstances will regimental, bakery, company, mess, hospital, post exchange, or band funds be taken away from the post where the organization to which they pertain is stationed, except as may be necessary to pay indebtedness or for deposit in a bank.

Should the officer who is custodian of any of these funds be absent from the post, on leave or otherwise, for any period beyond 3 and less than 10 days, he will leave the funds with the officer acting in his place, taking memorandum receipt therefor. If an officer is to be absent for more than 10 days he will regularly transfer the funds of which he is custodian to his successor.

Company, post exchange, bakery, and other funds authorized by A. R., 316, will, if deposited in a bank, be placed under their official designation, as, for example, company fund, Company B, Twenty-first Infantry, and not to the credit of the officer who is custodian. (A. R., 324.)

732. The provisions of A. R., 320 and 321, 1908 (A. R., 323, 324, 1910), are applicable to regimental and other trust funds. If these funds have been loaned with a view to earning interest and without specific authority in each case from the War Department, the person responsible for the loaning would be a proper subject for disciplinary measures. (Chief of Staff, Mar. 27, 1909; 12835-C, O. I. G.)

733. The purchase from regimental, bakery, company, or mess funds of any article which can be obtained on requisition from a supply department is forbidden, except that, with the approval of the post commander, such articles may be purchased if necessity exists for their immediate use and they are not on hand for issue at the post. (A. R., 322.)

734. Paragraph 318, A. R., 1904, is not held to apply in its restrictions to ration articles, the word "articles" as therein contained being interpreted to mean those of a permanent or semi-permanent nature, as brooms, scrubbing brushes, tableware, kitchen utensils, etc. (Memo. Asst. to Chief of Staff, approved by Acting Secretary of War Apr. 9, 1908; 12305, O. I. G.)

NOTE.—A. R., 318, 1904, is continued as A. R., 322, 1910.

735. Pay forfeited by sentence of court-martial can accrue to the United States only. A sentence can not forfeit (appropriate, or "stop") pay for the reimbursement or benefit of an individual, civil or military, however justly the same may be due him, either for money borrowed, stolen, or embezzled by the accused, or to satisfy any other pecuniary liability of the accused whether in the nature of debt or damages; nor can a sentence forfeit pay for the support or benefit of the family of the accused, or for the benefit of a company fund, post fund, hospital fund, etc., none of these funds being money of the United States. But as the post exchange, company, and similar funds are agencies or instrumentalities of the Government, the pay of officers and soldiers may be stopped without sentence to reimburse these funds. (D. J. A. G., 1384, 1424, 2384.)

736. The act of May 26, 1900, does not prohibit the payment of extra-duty pay where such extra pay is not derived from an appropriation of Congress. (J. A. G., July 31, 1906; 11009-A, O. I. G.) Under this ruling enlisted men receiving or entitled to receive foreign-service pay, may receive extra pay from company, bakery, mess, and exchange funds, for services as cooks, bakers, attendants, etc.

737. Empty flour sacks and barrels may lawfully be sold by a post bakery, company, or general mess, and the proceeds of the sale taken up and accounted for in the proper fund. (Cir. 11, W. D., 1908.)

738. Councils of administration. (A. R., 316-321.)

739. In case of loss of regimental, bakery, exchange, company, or mess funds, the circumstances will be carefully investigated and reported by the post council, with recommendation as to responsibility, for the decision of the division commander. (A. R., 321.) See also M. M. D., 311.

740. Inspection of, by Inspector General's Department. (A. R., 913, par. 17.)

741. Remuneration for outside engagements of bands. (See par. 567, ante.)

742. Band fund, Coast Artillery Corps. (A. R., 326.)

743. The purchase of a typewriter, if its intended use is to "facilitate the transaction of regimental business," is authorized from regimental fund under A. R., 322, 1908 [A. R., 325, 1910] (Secretary of War, Aug. 17, 1909; 13541, O. I. G.)

744. The printing of a roster of troops serving in an artillery district will facilitate the transaction of business and the military administration of the district to such an extent as to warrant the appropriation of a portion of the band fund, Coast Artillery Corps, for that purpose. If a portion of the band fund can be used for printing, it naturally follows that it can with equal propriety be applied to the purchase of type and a press. (Op. of J. A. G., approved by Secretary of War Apr. 9, 1910; 14078, O. I. G.)

745. In accounting for the funds of a volunteer band, all receipts and expenditures are to be entered on the fund account as indicated in A. R., 323, 1908 [A. R. 326, 1910] (14529, O. I. G.)

746. The company fund, which will consist of the gross amounts of money received from all sources, is received by the company commander and, with the concurrence of the company council, is disbursed by him solely for the benefit of the company. (A. R. 331.)

747. The company fund is not intended for expenditure in the purchase of articles to facilitate the transaction of business in a company. On the contrary the legitimate and proper application of this fund is in supplementing the articles already furnished by the supply departments for the purpose of increasing the comfort, pleasure, contentment, mental and physical improvement of the organization. To accomplish this purpose, disbursements of company fund are authorized; disbursements for all other purposes are unauthorized. (Cir. 6, W. D., 1904.)

748. Circular 6, War Department, 1904, is construed as not prohibiting the purchase or repair of typewriting machines from the company fund, provided the officer responsible for expenditures from that fund decides that the same are made solely for the benefit of the company and for the purpose of increasing the comfort, pleasure, and contentment of the enlisted men. (Cir. 56, W. D., 1906).

749. The decision of the War Department in the matter of expenditures from company fund for blank passes, score cards (expert riflemen's course), rubber stamps, and clothing lists, is indicated in the following extract from A. G. O. indorsement dated August 27, 1909:

"Under date of October 10, 1906, the Acting Secretary of War decided, with respect to a purchase of articles somewhat similar to those now under consideration, as follows:

"No authority from the Department appears necessary for this purchase under the regulations; provided the officers charged with the duty decide that this article is solely for the benefit of the company and is for the purpose of increasing the comfort, pleasure and contentment of the organization. As Circular No. 6, War Department,

1904, is merely explanatory of the regulations and affords an excellent guide for the judgment of the officers responsible, no occasion for its repeal is seen.'

"This decision seems to cover the case in point. The money value of the articles in question appears to be very small, and the department commander and the post commander, taking into consideration all the facts in the case which they have at hand, should decide whether or not the expenditure was a proper one under existing regulations. The policy of the War Department has been to place a liberal construction upon the words 'solely for the benefit of the company for the purpose of increasing the comfort, pleasure and contentment of the organization.'" (13527-A, O. I. G.)

750. Seeds for post gardens may be purchased from company funds. (A. R., 353.)

751. So long as enamel ware can not be secured from the Quartermaster's Department, the purchase of it from the company fund is a proper expenditure. (Secretary of War, July 12, 1909; 13301, O. I. G.)

752. The purchase of the "Bulls-eye Score Book" (formerly the Army and Navy Target Book) from company fund is not authorized. (Secretary of War, Mar. 25, 1909; 13128, O. I. G.) See Cir. 79, W. D., 1910.

753. The purchase of heavy lounging chairs, writing table, card tables, rugs, etc., to be placed in the company recreation room, is a proper expenditure from the company fund. (Op. J. A. G., approved by the Secretary of War, Nov. 9, 1909; 13710, O. I. G.)

754. The purchase of aprons for company cooks from company funds is deemed to be authorized by Circular 6, W. D., 1904. (Chief of Staff, Sept. 5, 1905; 10274, O. I. G.)

NOTE.—White coats and trousers are issued to cooks and bakers by the Quartermaster's Department at cost price. (Cir. 60, W. D., 1907.)

755. The purchase, for use of company cooks, of khaki trousers "in lieu of the white suits" issued by the Quartermaster's Department, is not a proper expenditure from company fund. (Secretary of War, Apr. 12, 1910; 14120, O. I. G.)

756. Prizes to rifle competitors are not permissible expenditures from the company fund under existing regulations as interpreted by Circular 6, W. D., 1904. (Secretary of War, Dec. 18, 1906; 11274, O. I. G.)

757. The saving of the lard ration and purchasing in lieu elsewhere, from the company fund, of lard compound, is a violation of

A. R., 1238, 1908 (1242, 1910). (Commissary General, concurred in by the Secretary of War, Mar. 29, 1911; 13513-A, O. I. G.)

758. A request for authority to expend, out of the post exchange dividends of a company fund, for the benefit of the married enlisted men messing separately, "the same amount per man as is spent for the mess fund of the unmarried men per man," was disapproved by the War Department January 11, 1911. (14856, O. I. G.)

759. In the case of an appeal by a company commander against the orders of the post and department commanders directing him to reimburse the company fund with an amount expended for "a set of Moss-Dalton records," the War Department decided, May 17, 1910, that the post and department commanders were within their rights in the matter. (14179, O. I. G.)

760. Paying a man to look after a pool table should increase the profits therefrom; and paying men to cultivate a garden should increase its output. The post commander's statement shows that company * * * gained materially by paying for such services. These expenditures from the company fund benefited the company, and solely the company, if the men employed were paid no more than their extra services for the company were worth.

Paragraph 329, Army Regulations, 1904 (A. R., 333, 1910), authorizes paying an enlisted man extra compensation from company funds for cooking food for a company. The same principle would permit paying a gardener for providing food for a company. It is only a step further in the same direction to paying a pool table attendant for increasing the funds with which food may be purchased for a company.

It is recommended that the expenditures reported in this case be approved.

The Inspector General was consulted, and concurs in the above recommendation, adding, however, that unduly large expenditures for the purposes in question should not be made. (Report of Asst. to the Chief of Staff, approved by the Acting Secretary of War Mar. 31, 1908; 12240, O. I. G.)

761. Expenditures from company fund for payment of extra pay to a room orderly or to a lavatory orderly are not authorized. (Secretary of War, May 15, 1911; 15052-A, O. I. G.)

762. In payment of extra-duty pay to company cooks, A. R., 329, 1904, should be strictly complied with. Recommendation that the paragraph cited (329) be amended so as to give greater latitude in the payment of company cooks from company funds was not favorably considered by the War Department. (Secretary of War, May 29, 1906; 10806-A, O. I. G.)

NOTE.—A. R., 329, 1904, is same as A. R., 333, 1910.

763. Where soldiers are detached for duty as members of machine gun platoons and at rifle competitions, an allotment to improve their mess can be ordered by the department, regimental, or post commander from the fund of the organization to which they belong. (Inspector General of the Army, approved by Secretary of War July 28, 1908; 12515, 12518, O. I. G.)

764. Money accruing from the ration and sayings account of an organization will be spent only for food. (A. R., 1242.)

765. The establishment of company exchanges or other undertakings not authorized by the Army Regulations or the orders or instructions of the War Department, for the purpose of accumulating company funds, is prohibited. (G. O. 165, W. D., 1906.)

766. The establishment of company barber shops and of company billiard and pool tables, from which revenues may be derived, is authorized. All funds accruing therefrom will be accounted for as part of the company fund. (G. O. 28, W. D., 1911, Par. II.)

767. The amount of an enlisted man's indebtedness to the company barber shop or billiard and pool tables, established under paragraph II, G. O. 28, W. D., 1911, can not be charged against him on the company pay rolls. (Op. J. A. G., concurred in by Secretary of War, June 29, 1911; 15282, O. I. G.)

768. Companies or detachments are not authorized to act as agents for laundries doing business at a post through an agent. (Secretary of War, Apr. 3, 1911; 14983-B, O. I. G.)

769. When rations obtained from the commissary are found by a surveying officer to have been lost, or destroyed, through unavoidable circumstances, so that those for whom they were procured were insufficiently subsisted and money is expended from the company fund for necessary subsistence, the company fund may be reimbursed by the Subsistence Department for the amount so expended upon a full statement of the circumstances of the case and the approval of the Secretary of War. (M. S. D., 187.)

770. Fuel or mineral oil issued to troops can not be sold for the benefit of company fund. (A. R., 1058, 1072.)

771. No troop should have to exceed three cows and eight hogs. (Dec. Chief of Staff, Jan. 13, 1906; 10528, O. I. G.)

772. Debts due company fund by a deserter can not be deducted from balance of pay and allowances forfeited by desertion. (Cir. 5, W. D., 1903.)

773. Stoppages on pay rolls on account of dues to company fund should be limited to reimbursements for loss of money pertaining thereto, or for damages to property purchased therefrom when stoppage is directed by proper authority after responsibility is established. (M. P. D., 949.)

774. The amount of any loss that an exchange may sustain in consequence of the failure of a soldier to pay for articles properly bought on credit, whether by his discharge without sufficient money due on his final statements to pay the debt, or by his desertion, will be deducted from the share of the profits of the company or organization to which the defaulter belongs. (Par. 17, G. O. 176, W. D., 1909.)

775. The loaning of any portion of a company fund to a regimental fund is irregular and is in conflict with A. R., 321, 1908 (324, 1910). (Secretary of War, Oct. 29, 1910; 14537, O. I. G.)

776. The loaning of money out of the company fund to an enlisted man of the company, the other members of the company guaranteeing to reimburse the amount in case of loss, is highly improper, unseemly, and not conducive to discipline. (Views of the Inspector General of the Army, concurred in by the Secretary of War, Mar. 6, 1911; 15015, O. I. G.)

777. The custodian of a company fund may cash final statements without profit, and may retain a small portion until settlement by the paymaster; the balance to be transmitted to the soldier as soon as the actual status of the account is known. (M. P. D., 38.)

778. The company commander will keep an account of the company fund, which will be inspected by the post, regimental, battalion, or squadron commander at least once each quarter. (A. R., 332.)

779. The fund of the hospital, or of a detachment or band having a separate mess, is regarded as a company fund. (A. R., 331; M. M. D., 309.)

780. Hospital fund. (A. R., 316-318, 320-324, 331, 332; M. M. D., 292, 307-322, 353, 365, 369, 593.)

781. Moneys accruing to the fund of a detachment of the Hospital Corps, together with the proceeds from the ration and savings account of the sick in hospital, and the commutation of rations paid to the surgeon conformably to A. R., 1234, belong to the hospital fund. (A. R., 331.)

782. Under A. R., 328, 1908 (A. R., 331, 1910), the gross amounts of all money received by the hospital fund must be entered in the fund account and properly accounted for. (Secretary of War, Jan. 17, 1911; 14875, O. I. G.)

783. The surgeon of a post or command, or the commanding officer of a general hospital or other sanitary formation, will keep, account for, and expend the hospital fund, according to the instructions of the Surgeon General, exclusively for the benefit of the sick in hospital and of the enlisted men of the Hospital Corps and members of the Nurse Corps on duty therein. (A. R., 1484.)

784. The War Department has no objection to allowing enlisted men of the Hospital Corps on duty in a hospital and messing separately, the privilege of purchasing food supplies from those purchased out of the hospital fund, from outside dealers, at cost price, provided the arrangement is properly supervised and guarded, the sale to be kept on the accounts of the hospital mess and the receipts properly accounted for on the statement of the hospital fund. (Secretary of War, Sept. 25, 1911; 15240, O. I. G.)

785. Cows may be purchased from hospital fund upon authority of chief surgeons. (M. M. D., 316.)

786. The hospital gardener may be paid not exceeding $10 per month from the hospital fund, when authorized by chief surgeon. (M. M. D., 314.)

787. Gratuities to hospital cooks and assistant cooks. (M. M. D., 314.)

788. Purchase of ice from hospital fund. (M. M. D., 323.)

789. The purchase from the hospital fund of liquors (wines, beer, etc.), except for use of the sick in hospital, is prohibited. (M. M. D., 315.)

790. Receipts for expenditures of hospital fund for which the responsible officer claims credit are required to accompany the accounts when audited under paragraph 313, Army Regulations, or 283, Manual for the Medical Department. (Dec. Acting Secretary of War, Oct. 29, 1907; 12006, O. I. G.)

NOTE.—A. R., 313, 1904, is same as A. R., 317, 1910; M. M. D., 283, 1906, is M. M. D., 320, 1911.

791. It is not deemed advisable to require vouchers to hospital fund account to be made in duplicate; the inspection by the Inspector-General's Department should cover the hospital fund account to date if practicable, but if any vouchers have been forwarded to the chief surgeon of the department and not received back (see M. M. D., 283), the inspector should note this fact and what vouchers are missing. (Secretary of War, Aug. 9, 1907; 11829, O. I. G.)

NOTE.—M. M. D., 283, 1906, is M. M. D., 320, 1911.

792. The restrictions imposed on the custody of funds by A. R., 320, 1904, as amended by paragraph 1, G. O., 32, W. D., 1908, are not intended to have any bearing upon the working of paragraph 287, Manual for the Medical Department, 1906. (Secretary of War, Mar. 13, 1908; 8340-AA, O. I. G.)

NOTE.—A. R. 320, 1904, as amended, is same as A. R., 324, 1910. Paragraph 287, M. M. D., 1906, is same as paragraph 317, M. M. D., 1911.

793. The inspection of the hospital fund by the commanding officer should develop the fact whether or not the post surgeon complies with A. R., 1479 (A. R., 1484, 1910), with respect to the fund being spent "exclusively for the benefit of the sick in hospital and of the enlisted men of the Hospital Corps and members of the Nurse Corps on duty therein;" the correctness of the account; that the surgeon has in his possession the cash the account shows him to be responsible for. If the inspection should be made at a time when the vouchers are at department headquarters, proper notation should be made and the inspection completed upon the return of the vouchers. The post commander has no power to revise the action of the chief surgeon, but if, in his opinion, the fund is not expended as contemplated by the paragraph cited, it is his duty to report the facts in the case to the commanding general of the department, who will in turn bring the matter before the Surgeon General and have it decided by competent authority. The object of the inspection is evidently to have a disinterested person on the ground go over the account, verify the cash, and report any irregularity if such, in his opinion, should exist. (Views of Inspector General of the Army concurred in by the Surgeon General, and the Secretary of War, Oct. 5, 1910; 14572, O. I. G.)

794. When troops are transiently at a post or station for a period of less than 10 days they are not entitled to share in the bakery profits. (A. R., 327.)

795. Method of making an equitable distribution of the earnings of the post bakery, referred to in A. R., 324, 1908 (A. R., 327, 1910) will be determined by the post council of administration. (Cir. 76, W. D., 1910.)

796. The expense of the bakery will be restricted to the extra pay of the bakers, the purchase of articles necessary for making bread and utensils not furnished by the supply departments, and the cost of power used in the operation of authorized bread-making machinery. These expenses must be paid from the bakery fund. (A. R., 338.)

797. Post bakers should be provided with 12 aprons and 4 caps each, furnished and laundered at the expense of the bakery fund. (M. A. B., 91.)

798. The purchase of soap from the Subsistence Department by the post bakery is fully authorized both by A. R., 338 and 1263, 1910. It is not believed that soap should be issued by the Subsistence Department to the post bakery. (Commissary General concurred in by the Secretary of War, May 1, 1911; 15154, O. I. G.)

GENERAL STAFF CORPS.

799. Compilation and condensation of existing law, regulations, and orders relating to the General Staff Corps, including the detail and duties of the Chief of Staff; the submission to him of annual reports of division and department commanders and bureau chiefs, etc.; the organization of his office, with rules for the transaction of the business thereof; detail in, and duties of the General Staff Corps, etc. (G. O., 68, W. D., 1911.) See also 474, ante.

GUARD DUTY.

800. At all posts or stations where there are two or more companies, guard and fatigue duties will be performed in turn by organizations or subdivisions thereof. When an organization is detailed to form the guard the commander thereof will be the officer of the day and the junior officers thereof will be the officers of the guard. The organization may, in the discretion of the commanding officer, be inspected on its own parade by its commander and marched to the post of the guard by the senior subordinate.

When details of subdivisions of a company are made for guard duty, the detail of officer of the day, officer of the guard, if any, and musicians of the guard, will be made by roster. (M. G. D., 12, amended by G. O. 210, W. D., 1910.) See G. O. 193, W. D., 1910.

801. At coast artillery posts, each company in turn, except as otherwise provided for in G. O. 88, W. D., 1907, will furnish the entire enlisted strength of the post guard. (G. O. 88, W. D., 1907.)

802. Guard mounting, parade, and other ceremonies may be held at coast artillery posts after 1 o'clock p. m. (G. O. 136, W. D., 1911.)

803. Field artillery troops are no longer exempt from post guard, police, and fatigue duty. (G. O. 179, W. D., 1907, rescinding A. R., 368, 1904, and M. G. D., 14, 1902.)

804. The strength of post guards, as far as practicable, will be made so as to insure privates an interval of not less than six days between tours, or only one tour in seven days. When the number of available men at a post is not sufficient to fulfill this requirement, extra and special duty men should be regularly detailed for night guard duty, still performing their usual duties in the day time. When it becomes necessary to detail extra and special duty men for guard, a roster of such men containing a record of the guard duty performed by each will be kept by the sergeant major under supervision of the adjutant. (M. G. D., 27, amended by G. O. 210, W. D., 1910.)

805. Officer of the day will visit the guard and sentinels at least once between 12 o'clock midnight and daylight, and when there is no officer of the guard, he will visit each relief at least once while it is on post. (M. G. D., 50.)

806. Arsenals and armories are exempt from the requirements of the second section of paragraph 55, Manual of Guard Duty, 1902, as amended by G. O., 189, W. D., 1906, directing the officer of the day to visit the guard and sentinels between 12 o'clock midnight and daylight. (Ordnance Orders, 24, 1906; 11152-A, O. I. G.)

NOTE.—M. G. D., 55, of 1902 is same as M. G. D., 50, of 1908.

807. The commander of the guard will visit each relief at least once while it is on post, and at least one of these visits will be made between 12 o'clock midnight and daylight. (M. G. D., 64.)

808. The detail of officers of the guard will be limited to the necessities of the service and efficient instruction; inexperienced officers may be detailed as supernumerary officers of the guard for the purpose of instruction. (M. G. D., 23.)

809. Orderlies for commanding officers shall be selected daily from the guard at guard mounting. * * * * The unauthorized practice of detailing permanent orderlies has a tendency to establish a very objectionable connection between orderly duties proper and other employments not purely of a military character; this practice is, therefore, prohibited. (Cir. 10, A. G. O., 1890.)

810. Sentences imposing tours of guard duty are forbidden. (A. R., 980.)

811. By detachments of the Signal Corps. (Cir. 48, W. D., 1904.)

Sentries on duty at docks (seacoast posts) are to be instructed to report promptly any vessel that is about to anchor in the vicinity of military cables and to warn the master of such vessel that he is endangering the cables and is liable to prosecution if any damage is done. Additional sentries will not be posted for this purpose except when absolutely necessary. (G. O., 165, W. D., 1905.)

813. For batteries of field artillery. (W. D., G. O. 162, 1904; 131, 1907; 216, 1910; Ordnance pamphlets Nos. 1659, 1761, 1771.)

822. Guns mounted on disappearing carriages will be kept habitually in the loading position, which is at an angle of elevation of about 5°. Guns not mounted on disappearing carriages will be kept habitually at an angle of depression of about 5°.

Mortars will be habitually elevated so that they will be parallel to the piston rod with the breech cover left off. The translating roller will be left in place. At posts where the sand blows into the breech mechanism and at all posts during the cold season where snow and ice may collect and form around the breech mechanism, the mortar will be kept horizontal with the breech cover on.

All seacoast guns will be kept habitually with breech and muzzle covers on when not in use. (Cir. 76, W. D., 1907; D. R. C. A., 860, 861.)

823. The firing of mortars at greater angles of elevation than 65° is not authorized. (Chief of Ordnance, Feb. 13, 1909; 12819, O. I. G.)

824. No cannon that may hereafter be mounted in a seacoast fortification will be fired by the coast artillery until the artillery district commander has been notified in writing by the district armament officer that the cannon and its carriage have been proof-fired and are in condition for use. (G. O. 220, W. D., 1909.)

825. Precautions and responsibility for safety in firing guns: Coast artillery (D. R. C. A., 647-658, 684); field artillery (G. O. 46, W. D., 1911, par. 33); with blank ammunition (G. O. 22, W. D., 1911, par. 24).

853. Specially shaped paulins for the winter protection of seacoast guns and carriages at fortifications on the Atlantic coast, north of the fortieth parallel of latitude, will be provided by the Ordnance Department upon requisition, except for 12-inch mortars and their mounts, which will not be provided until the completion of the tests now in progress. (Chief of Artillery, approved by Secretary of War Jan. 2, 1908; Cir. 1, Dept. Gulf, 1908; Memo. No. 107, serial 384, Eng. Dept., May 27, 1908.)

HOLIDAYS.

858. The days that are declared legal holidays by the Federal Government are: New Year's Day (January 1), Washington's Birthday (February 22), Memorial Day (May 30), Independence Day (July 4), Labor Day (first Monday in September), Thanksgiving Day (day designated by the President for national thanksgiving), and Christmas Day (December 25). (Cir. 41, W. D., 1908.)

859. Whenever any day set apart as a legal holiday within the District of Columbia shall fall on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, then and in such event the day next succeeding shall be a holiday within the District of Columbia. (Act Dec. 20, 1881; 22 Stat. L., 1.)

860. It is hereby ordered that all offices of the Government, arsenals, navy yards, and stations, and other Government establishments shall, when the 1st day of January, the 22d day of February, the 30th day of May, the 4th day of July, and the 25th day of December, fall on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, be closed to public business on the following Monday and that all employees in the public service, wherever employed, who would be excused from work on the above-named days be excused on the following Monday when said days fall on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, excepting that where a State law fixes for a holiday another day than the Monday following such legal holiday, the Government offices and other Government establishments situated in such States shall close, and employees in the public service shall be excused on that day which is in conformity to State law. (Executive Order, published in Cir. 31, W. D., 1909.)

861. Holidays for per diem employees. (Joint Res., approved Jan. 6, 1885, 23 Stats. L., 516; and Feb. 23, 1887, 24 Stats. L., 644; Executive Order, published in G. O. 120, W. D., 1911.)

HONORS TO THE FLAG.

862. At every military post or station the flag will be hoisted at the sounding of the first note of the reveille, or of the first note of the march, if a march be played before the reveille. The flag will be lowered at the sounding of the last note of the retreat, and while the flag is being lowered the band will play "The Star Spangled Banner," or, if there be no band present, the field music will sound "to the color." When "to the color" is sounded by the field music while the flag is being lowered the same respect will be observed as when "The Star Spangled Banner" is played by the band, and in either case officers and enlisted men out of ranks will face toward the flag, stand at attention, and render the prescribed salute at the last note of the music. The national flag will be displayed at a seacoast or lake fort at the beginning of and during an action in which the fort may be engaged, whether by day or by night. (A. R., 446.) See par. 864, post.

863. Whenever "The Star Spangled Banner" is played by the band on a formal occasion at a military station, or at any place where persons belonging to the military service are present in their official capacity, all officers and enlisted men present will stand at attention, such position being retained until the last note of "The Star Spangled Banner." The same respect will be observed toward the national air of any other country when it is played as a compliment to official representatives of such country. Whenever "The Star Spangled Banner" is played under circumstances contemplated by this paragraph, the air will be played through once without repetition of any part, except such repetition as is called for by the musical score. (A. R., 389.) See par. 864, post.

864. There are two occasions on which officers and enlisted men are required to stand at attention when "The Star Spangled Banner" is played, namely:

1. When the air is played by a band on a formal occasion, other than retreat, at any place where persons belonging to the military service are present in their official capacity, in which case officers and enlisted men stand at attention throughout the playing of the air.

2. When the flag is lowered at retreat and aboard transport when the flag is hoisted at guard mounting. In this case part of the ceremony is the playing of "The Star Spangled Banner" (or "to the color" when there is no band) and another part is the salute to the flag. All officers and enlisted men out of ranks stand at attention facing the flag while the air is being played and at the last note of the music salute in the prescribed manner.

Sentinels on post in the vicinity of a place where the ceremonies mentioned above are taking place follow the rule for soldiers out of ranks, provided their duties are not such as to prevent their doing so; in the first case, standing at attention facing outward from their post throughout the playing of the air, and in the second case, standing at attention facing the flag until the last note of the music and then rendering the salute prescribed for the weapon with which they are armed. (Cir. 87, W. D., 1909.)

865. The national or regimental color or standard, uncased, passing a guard or other armed body will be saluted, the field music sounding "to the color" or "to the standard." Officers or enlisted men passing the uncased color will render the prescribed salute; with no arms in hand, the salute will be made by uncovering, the headdress being held in the right hand opposite the left shoulder, right forearm against the breast. (A. R., 388.)

ICE.

866. Manufactured with ice machines operated by the Quartermaster's Department, quantity issued to hospitals, commissaries, organizations, offices, etc., to be regulated by the post commander. (Q. M. M., 456.) See A. R., 1237, sec. 10.

Should it be discovered that since the publication of this order an officer of the Army or Navy has sought recommendation or support from the sources outside of those named above, this fact will debar him from obtaining the particular advancement, assignment, or detail which he has by such means attempted to secure, and the fact that he has sought such influence will be noted on his official record. (Executive order July 7, 1905; G. O. 112, W. D., 1905.)

Paragraph 14, clause (c), section 2, page 15, by G. O. 201, W. D., 1909.

Paragraph 16, by Circular 18, W. D., 1910, as to payment of telegraphic expenses.

Paragraph 17, by G. O. 109, W. D., 1911.

1074. The exchange officer is in charge of the exchange and is responsible for its management. He should be fully in sympathy with the purposes of the exchange, should be a good and close buyer, and possess the business qualifications necessary to the success of the exchange. He should take every precaution to have an honest steward and attendants, frequently checking their accounts in person. As custodian of funds belonging to enlisted men he should attend to all cash transactions in person, keeping the cashbook himself. No employee should have access to the cash of the exchange after it is turned over to the exchange officer. (Par. 3, G. O. 176, W. D., 1909.)

1075. It is not the intent of paragraph 3, page 9, G. O. 176, W. D., 1909 ("As custodian of funds belonging to enlisted men the exchange officer should attend to all cash transactions in person, keeping the cashbook himself"), that the exchange officer should attend to the current cash transactions of the day at the exchange, but that he should, at the close of each day's business, check up the steward's daily report of cash and coupons received, and, after verification, enter these data in the cashbook, as well as all other transactions involving cash receipts and expenditures, and deposit cash on hand in his safe. A file of the exchange steward's daily report should be kept to support the cash record. (Views of Inspector General of the Army, approved by the Secretary of War, Dec. 17, 1910; 14612, O. I. G.)

1076. Binding together and filing the daily reports of the exchange steward in lieu of a cashbook is not considered a compliance with the requirements of paragraph 14, G. O. 176, W. D., 1909. A cashbook will be kept. (Secretary of War, Apr. 29, 1910; 14052, O. I. G.)

1077. Funds of a post exchange, although not public moneys within the meaning of sections 5488, 5490, and 5492, Revised Statutes, are intrusted to officers of the Army in their official capacity, and their misapplication is punishable under the Articles of War. (G. O. 11, A. G. O., 1892; G. O. 176, W. D., 1909, p. 7.)

1078. When practicable, funds of a post exchange not required for immediate use should be deposited in bank. Deposits will be made to indicate clearly they are exchange and not personal funds. (G. O. 11, A. G. O., 1892; G. O. 176, W. D., 1909, p. 7.)

1079. For an officer in charge of a post exchange to lend its money to anyone would be a gross breach of trust. (G. O. 11, A. G. O., 1892; G. O. 176, W. D., 1909, p. 7.)

1080. The payment or receipt of interest on amounts due a post exchange by organizations or on amounts due organizations by a post exchange on account of indebtedness arising from the acquisition or relinquishment of shares in the post exchange is not permissible under the regulations governing post exchanges. (G. O. 98, W. D., 1911.)

1081. There is no authority for the employment of an expert (civilian accountant) to audit the accounts of a post exchange. The regulations require that the examination of the accounts of the exchange officer shall be made by the exchange council. (Inspector General of the Army, concurred in by the Secretary of War, Mar. 27, 1908; 12323, O. I. G.)

1082. Keeping an open money account with individuals against which checks may be drawn is not a proper feature of an exchange, and is forbidden. (Par. 10, G. O. 176, W. D., 1909.)

1083. Under paragraph 17, G. O. 176, W. D., 1909, it is within the province of the department [now division] commander to decide whether the legitimate expenses of a baseball team visiting a post shall be paid out of the post exchange profits. (W. D. dec., June 19, 1911; 15267, O. I. G.)

1084. In a case where a coast artillery volunteer band fund was receiving an amount of the post exchange profits in excess of 10 per cent of the declared dividends, the War Department decided, July 11, 1911, that the last sentence of section (b), paragraph 17, G. O. 176, W. D., 1909, can clearly be held to include the expenditure in question, provided it has the approval of the division commander. (15052, O. I. G.)

1085. While a post exchange is responsible for its bona fide purchases, it is without authority to bind the United States in any form of contractual undertaking. (Op. of J. A. G., concurred in by Secretary of War, Nov. 2, 1909; 13709, O. I. G.)

1086. A post exchange is not authorized to collect a tax on dogs. (W. D. dec., Oct. 1, 1910; 14574, O. I. G.)

1087. In case where the post exchange steward was bonded for $2,000, and the cost of bonding ($10 per annum) paid out of the exchange funds, the War Department decided, October 18, 1910, that if deemed advisable by the post council to bond him it is a detail of management which properly belongs to post authorities. (14515-A, O. I. G.)

1088. It is highly improper for a post exchange officer to receive compensation from the post exchange fund for his service as such. (Secretary of War, Aug. 8, 1911; 15133, O. I. G.)

1089. The post exchange is entitled to be paid its indebtedness against a soldier, because it is an individual within the meaning of the exemption contained in section 4818, Revised Statutes. (G. O. 138, W. D., 1910.)

1090. Exchange features.—An exchange doing its full work should embrace the following sections: (a) A well-stocked general store in which such goods are kept as are usually required at military posts, including tickets to approved entertainments; (b) a well-kept restaurant supplied with as great a variety of viands as circumstances permit, such as tea, coffee, cocoa, nonalcoholic drinks, soup, fish, cooked and canned meats, sandwiches, pastries, etc.; (c) reading and recreation rooms, supplied with books, periodicals, and other reading matter, billiard and pool tables, bowling alley, and facilities for other proper indoor games; (d) a well-equipped gymnasium, possessing also the requisite paraphernalia for outdoor athletics, sports, and games, such as baseball, football, tennis, cricket, polo, golf, etc.; (e) barber shop, laundry, tailor shop, and shoe-repair shop.

No other features than those enumerated will be added to the business of an exchange without the authority of the War Department. (Par. 10, G. O. 176, W. D., 1909, amended by G. O. 113, W. D., 1910.)

1091. Under the provisions of the post exchange regulations, as published in General Orders, No. 176, War Department, August 14, 1909, a post exchange is not authorized to act as agent for a private laundry. (Cir. 81, W. D., 1909; 13532, 13947, O. I. G.)

1092. There appears no provision forbidding the carrying of such goods as bicycles, shoes, collars, and cuffs on consignment. This method permits the sale of such articles at a more reasonable price, and necessitates the employment of smaller capital to operate the exchange. Since, as reported by the post commander, this is done without any liability to the post exchange, it is not thought that it should be forbidden. (Memo. report of Chief of Staff, approved by the Secretary of War, Oct. 12, 1910; 14459-B, O. I. G.)

1093. The coupon-book system of extending credit to enlisted men will be used by all exchanges conducted at posts where more than two organizations are stationed, except at temporary stations.

and at places where conditions of service have made it impracticable to procure the coupon books. (Par. 13, G. O. 176, W. D., 1909.) A band is an organization. (14832, O. I. G.)

1094. When practicable, one or more cash registers, purchased from the exchange funds, should be used in the exchange. (G. O. 176, W. D., 1909, p. 27.)

1095. The Subsistence Department is authorized to sell to the exchange at cost price any of the articles composing the ration, and such other articles as may be on hand for sale. But in reselling such goods in small quantities, except meat, no profit will be charged by the exchange beyond the fractions of cents that are necessary in making change. (G. O. 176, W. D., 1909, par. 11.)

1096. There is no provision of regulations under which property for a post exchange can be shipped on a Government bill of lading at public expense. Property purchased from firms in the United States by post exchanges in the Philippine Islands, if shipped without expense to the Government, in care of Depot Quartermaster, San Francisco, Cal., will be forwarded to Manila via Army transports. (Q. M. G., Feb. 17, 1908, published in Cir. 7, Phil. Div., 1908.)

1097. Occasional services to the Government by post exchanges, when authorized, etc. (G. O. 253, W. D., 1907.)

1098. Use by a post exchange of penalty envelopes in returning tobacco tags to a tobacco firm for premiums, is unauthorized. (W. D. dec., May 2, 1910, 14180, O. I. G.)

1099. Use by a post exchange of penalty envelopes in conducting a class of business not enumerated in paragraph 10, page 12, G. O. 176, W. D., 1909, and for which no authority was obtained from the War Department, is unauthorized. (W. D. dec., Apr. 12, 1910; 13914, O. I. G.) See also "Decisions," p. 7, G. O. 176, W. D., 1909.

1100. Information on the subject of "intoxicating liquors," duties of local commanders when the prohibition law is evaded or violated, policy of War Department, etc. (Memo. report of Asst. to Chief of Staff, approved by the Acting Secretary of War May 13, 1908; 12328, O. I. G. Copies furnished inspectors general.)

1101. Anticanteen legislation to have a fair trial. (Cir. 8, W. D., 1905.)

1102. There is no legal objection to the establishment of more than one exchange at the same military post. (Op. J. A. G., Oct. 11, 1910; 14564, O. I. G.)

1103. Membership in the post exchange is not obligatory on the units which go to form a garrison. (P. 8, G. O. 176, W. D., 1909; 12409, O. I. G.)

1104. A post exchange is not entitled to the issue of corn brooms and mops. (Cir. 81, W. D., 1908.)

1105. Company exchanges are prohibited. (G. O. 165, W. D., 1906.)

PRESENTS.

1106. The attention of officers and enlisted men is drawn to the following provision of the Revised Statutes:

"1784. No officer, clerk, or employee in the United States Government employ shall at any time solicit contributions from other officers, clerks, or employees in the Government service for a gift or present to those in a superior official position; nor shall any such officials or clerical superiors receive any gift or present offered or presented to them as a contribution from persons in Government employ receiving a less salary than themselves; nor shall any officer or clerk make any donation as a gift or present to any official superior. Every person who violates this section shall be summarily discharged from the Government employ."

The foregoing enactment includes within the statutory prohibition the soliciting of contributions by one officer or employee from other officers or employees of the United States, when such contributions are to constitute gifts or presents, or are to be used for the purchase of gifts or presents to those in superior official position. The receiving of presents by officers as contributions from those under their command or control, in either the military or civil service, also falls within the prohibition of the section, which imposes the penalty of summary dismissal upon all official superiors and those under their command or control who, by soliciting or receiving contributions, or by giving presents, become subject to its penal operation.

The practice of receiving presents from persons not in the military establishment or in the employ of the Government in recognition of services rendered, though not expressly forbidden, is opposed to the spirit of the statute and for that reason is not approved by the Department.

The requirements of the statute above cited will hereafter be strictly observed in all branches of the military establishment. (Cir. 77, W. D., 1909.)

PRISONERS.

1107. To be designated "awaiting trial," "awaiting result of trial," "garrison prisoners," and "military convicts." Enlisted men serving sentences of confinement, not involving dishonorable discharge, will be designated as "garrison prisoners;" those sentenced to dishonorable discharge and to terms of confinement at military posts or elsewhere will be designated as "military convicts." (A. R., 943.)

1108. Rules and regulations for the government of military convicts (formerly general prisoners) at military posts. (G. O. 155, W. D., 1908; M. G. D., 318-358.)

1109. Prisoners awaiting trial by, or undergoing sentence of, general court-martial and those confined for serious offenses will, if practicable, be kept apart from those confined by sentence of an inferior court, or for minor offenses. (A. R., 947.)

1110. Enlisted men awaiting trial or awaiting result of trial will not be sent to work with garrison prisoners or military convicts if it can be avoided, and may, in the discretion of the commanding officer, be required to attend drills, or sent to work under charge of a sentinel, during the usual working hours. (A. R., 947.)

1111. Military convicts will not be confined with other prisoners except in cases of necessity. (A. R., 947.)

1112. Soldiers against whom charges may be preferred for trial by summary court will not be confined in the guardhouse, but will be placed in arrest in quarters, before and during trial and while awaiting sentence, except when in particular cases restraint may be necessary. (A. R., 948.)

1113. Probation of garrison prisoners. (A. R., 957½, published in G. O. 78, W. D., 1911.)

1114. Paroling of prisoners. (M. G. D., 310, 324, 358.)

Instructions as to the paroling of garrison prisoners for work; the working of prisoners under armed guard and assignment of work to them, etc. (Letter W. D., A. G. O., May 27, 1911, to the commanding general, Philippines Division, and to all department commanders in the United States—1783572-A, A. G. O.; 15170-A, O. I. G.)

1115. With the exception of prisoners specially designated by the commanding officer, no prisoners will be allowed to leave the guardhouse unless under charge of a sentinel and passed by a noncommissioned officer of the guard. The commanding officer may authorize certain garrison prisoners and paroled military convicts to leave the guardhouse, not under charge of a sentinel, for the purpose of working outside under such surveillance and restrictions as he may impose. (M. G. D., 310.)

1116. Under the provisions of paragraphs 49 and 57, Manual of Guard Duty, the responsibility for the security of prisoners rests on the officer of the day. Paragraphs 99, 325, 328, and 333, Manual of Guard Duty, in so far as they relate to the security of prisoners, are regarded as simply providing certain proper aids in the performance of this important duty, but not as relieving the officer of the day from full responsibility, subordinate, of course, to that of the post commander. (Cir. 92, W. D., 1909.)

1117. If the number of prisoners, including military convicts, confined at a post justifies it, the commanding officer will detail a commissioned officer as "officer in charge of prisoners," and a non-commissioned officer as "overseer of prisoners." At posts where the average number of prisoners continually in confinement is less than 12, the detail of an officer in charge of prisoners will not be made. (M. G. D., 317.)

1118. Commanding officers of all military posts and stations, and of troops in the field, will themselves make a prompt and thorough investigation of the circumstances attending every escape of a military convict or other military prisoner occurring within their respective commands, and will themselves make a detailed report to The Adjutant General of the Army, through military channels, of each investigation thus made by them. What report must show, etc. (G. O. 179, W. D., 1910.)

1119. Military convicts will not be permitted to wear as an outer garment or have in their possession any clothing which is a distinctive article of the uniform worn by enlisted men. (A. R., 1186.)

1120. Kinds and prices of clothing in the possession of military convicts forwarded to places of confinement, to be properly noted on the clothing list. (Cir. 47, W. D., 1909.)

1121. Military convicts (formerly general prisoners) allowed by post commanders to retain their prison overcoats when released, if necessary to prevent suffering. (G. O. 37, W. D., 1904.)

1122. So far as practicable, an iron bunk will be furnished to each prisoner in a post guardhouse and prison room. (A. R., 1100.)

1123. Letter paper, envelopes, and postage stamps for use of military convicts. (Cir. 13, A. G. O., 1901.) See M. G. D., 344.

1124. List of articles issued by the Subsistence Department for use of military convicts confined at military posts without pay and allowances. (A. R., 1238.)

1125. When specially authorized by the Secretary of War, the Subsistence Department will supply to posts where thirty or more military convicts are confined a sewing machine and other necessary tailors' utensils for use in mending their clothing. (A. R., 1238.)

1126. Trial of a military convict for an offense committed while a soldier. (Cir. 63, W. D., 1910.)

PRIVATE MOUNTS.

1128. What officers are required to be mounted. (A. R., 1295.) Status of officers on duty with the Organized Militia with reference to A. R., 1295, etc. (G. O. 121, W. D., 1911.)

1129. The question of the necessity of a field officer's owning a private mount will be determined, under the provisions of A. R., 1104, 1908 (A. R., 1112, 1910), by the proper department commander in conformity with the necessities of the public service. (Cir. 64, W. D., 1908.)

1130. So far as mounts for field officers at coast artillery posts and those of the artillery district staff are concerned, no rigid rule will be laid down. Many posts are on islands and sand spits where mounts can not be used and the requirement as to owning mounts will not be enforced where the officer can show that this is the case, or where the facts are known to the War Department. (Recommendation of Chief of Coast Artillery, approved by the Secretary of War Apr. 7, 1911; 14832, O. I. G.)

1131. Private mounts furnished by officers below the grade of major required to be mounted. (Act May 11, 1908; 35 Stat. L., 108; G. O. 80, W. D., 1908, p. 4.)

1132. Suitable mount described, etc. (W. D. G. O. 125, 1908; 29, 1911; Cir. 88, W. D., 1908.) A stallion is regarded as a suitable mount. (Cir. 78, W. D., 1910.)

1134. Salt and vinegar for private mounts. (Cir. 33, W. D., 1909.)

1135. Mallein treatment. (Cir. 74, W. D., 1909.)

1136. Regulations governing the sale by the Quartermaster's Department of horses to mounted officers, and the purchase by that department of horses from mounted officers, etc.; restrictions as to selling horses so purchased by officers in the Philippine Islands. (A. R., 1111.) See p. 18, G. O. 54, W. D., 1910.

1137. Transportation and attendant for horses of officers changing station; restrictions. (A. R. 1114; G. O. 21, W. D., 1911.)

1138. Forage can not be issued for a polo pony owned by an officer required to be mounted when no suitable mount is owned by him. (Memo. report 3804, War Department General Staff, approved by the Secretary of War, Mar. 19, 1909; 15349, O. I. G.)

1139. Forage for a young horse, not yet a suitable mount, owned by a lieutenant required to be mounted, can not be issued unless the officer has, in addition, a private mount of a type suitable for all service and the young horse fulfills the conditions required for the second mount. (Memo. report 3804, War Department General Staff, approved by the Secretary of War, Mar. 19, 1909; 15349, O. I. G.)

1140. There is no objection to the keeping of three horses which are actually owned by an officer on the Government allowance of forage for two. (Memo. report 3804, War Department General Staff, approved by the Secretary of War, Mar. 19, 1909; 15349, O. I. G.)

1141. It is further thought that no officer should, as a rule, have in his possession more than four mounts, though in exceptional cases the number might be temporarily increased to five or six, especially when it is the intention to replace worn-out or unsuitable animals by better ones, and that it should be clearly understood that the possessing of more than four animals should be exceptional and temporary. It should also be distinctly understood that it is highly improper for mounted officers to make use of Government facilities for the purpose of speculation or personal gain in this connection. (Secretary of War, Nov. 17, 1909, published in Cir. 21, Department of California, 1909.)

1142. Orderlies or messengers, janitors, etc., which are necessary at every military post, are not servants in the sense in which the word servant is used in R. S., 1232. Universal custom, growing out of necessity, gives every commanding officer an orderly, either mounted or foot, and furnished with his mount either by the Government or by his commanding officer. Grooming and feeding the horse he rides, whether that horse belongs to the Government or to the officer, does not make him a servant, and is not in any way inconsistent with his position and duties as a soldier. So the men of a battery who groom the public horses which the officers are temporarily authorized to use are in no proper sense the servants of those officers. (Cir. 2, A. G. O., 1886.)

1143. The decision relative to the employment of enlisted men as orderlies, etc., published in Circular 2, Adjutant General's Office, 1886, does not warrant the detail of enlisted men on daily [special] duty as grooms to mounted officers. (Cir. 11, A. G. O., 1886.)

1144. Enlisted men detailed on extra duty should not be employed in the care of officers' private horses. (Cir. 1, A. G. O., 1887.)

1145. A soldier's title to clothing issued him is a qualified one, requiring that he use it in the service while it is serviceable and he is yet a soldier. But on his discharge his title to such clothing becomes absolute, and he may then sell, etc., the same to a civilian and give a valid title to it. Held, therefore, that section 3748, Revised Statutes, did not apply in the case of such sale, barter, etc., by a discharged soldier. (D. J. A. G., 2276.) See Cir. 36, W. D., 1910.

1146. Reimbursement under the act approved March 3, 1885, for private property of officers or enlisted men lost or destroyed in the military service. (A. R., 737.)

1147. Construction of the act of March 3, 1885, relative to reimbursement for private property of officers or enlisted men lost or destroyed in the military service. (2 Comp. Dec., 644; 3 Comp. Dec., 636.)

1148. The act of March 3, 1885 (23 Stat., 350), does not warrant reimbursement for property lost by theft. It was not the purpose of the act to make the Government liable for damages resulting from crime. (3, 2d Comp. Dec., 780, July 24, 1891.)

1149. Where private property of an enlisted man of the Army certified by the Secretary of War to have been necessary for him to have had in his possession in the line of duty is lost while in custody of Quartermaster's Department or regimental authorities, and said loss is without fault or negligence on part of claimant, such loss occurred as an incident to military service within the meaning of the act of March 3, 1885 (23 Stat., 350), and reimbursement is authorized thereunder. (16 Comp. Dec., 768, May 31, 1910.)

1150. The claim of an officer of the Army for loss or damage to his private property, that has been shipped on Government bill of lading, is a matter between the officer and the transportation company and should be adjusted between them, and the withholding of money due to said company by the Government for the purpose of satisfying said claim is not authorized. (15 Comp. Dec., 38, July 16, 1908; Cir. 14, W. D., 1910.)

1151. In the matter of the effects of officers, enlisted men, and civilians, stored in certain quartermaster storehouses for a greater period than three years, and whose owners or their legal representatives could not by correspondence be located, the Secretary of War, September 2, 1909, approved the recommendations of the Quartermaster General and Judge Advocate General, that such of the effects as have salable value be sold and the proceeds of the sale deposited with a United States paymaster, duplicate receipts to be taken in each case and one copy thereof, with an itemized statement of the result of the sale in each case to be forwarded to The Adjutant General's Office, and that such of the effects as are found to be worthless and otherwise unsalable be destroyed. (13460-1, B, O. I. G.)

PROTECTION AGAINST FIRES.

1152. Inspectors to ascertain whether buildings and property are properly secured against fire. (Sec. 13, A. R., 913.)

1153. Hereafter fires will not be allowed to be kept in any stables at military posts. (Cir. 10, A. G. O., 1886.)

1154. Coal oil, gunpowder, quicklime, or other articles of like dangerous nature will not be kept in or near subsistence storehouses. (A. R., 1221.)

1155. Chemical fire extinguishers will be distributed to the buildings requiring their protection and placed on shelves in conspicuous places easy of access. Twice annually, preferably at fire drill, they will be discharged and recharged. (G. O. 81, W. D., 1905.)

PUBLIC ANIMALS.

1156. Allowances of cavalry and riding horses for enlisted men of cavalry, field artillery, and infantry in time of peace. (G. O. 169, W. D., 1911.)

1157. Horses are not to be furnished for mounting bands of mountain field artillery regiments. (G. O. 72, W. D., 1910.)

1158. Mares are not to be purchased for use of the field artillery. (Secretary of War, Oct. 28, 1908; 13720, O. I. G.)

1159. Number of horses for a troop of cavalry. (G. O. 169, W. D., 1911.)

1160. Allowance of, for troops in the field. (F. S. R.; see G. O. 66, W. D., 1911.)

1161. For their own headquarters and otherwise, except as provided in A. R., 1112, the use of public horses will be regulated by department commanders in conformity with the necessities of the public service. (A. R., 1112.)

1162. The question as to whether a public horse assigned to an officer as his official mount may be used for pleasure, such as driving or riding, must be decided by the post commander, whose discretion in the matter is limited only by his obligation to guard the public interests in every particular. (Memo. report 3804, War Department General Staff, approved by the Secretary of War Mar. 19, 1909; 15349, O. I. G.)

1163. Horses for mounted scouts and orderlies, etc., of infantry regiments. (G. O. 169, W. D., 1911; F. S. R., 24.)

1164. Horses for mounted men of the Hospital Corps. (A. R., 1457; G. O. 169, W. D., 1911.) Care of same. (Cir. 92, W. D., 1909; G. O. 169, W. D., 1911.)

1165. Horses for the mounted service: Limit in number to be purchased; contracts; purchase at military posts in open market; standard required to warrant payment; expenditure of funds for breeding purposes prohibited. (Annual Army appropriation acts.)

1166. Hereafter the purchase of gray or white horses for the military service is prohibited. (Secretary of War, Dec. 13, 1906; 11260, O. I. G.)

1167. Instructions as to supply of remounts from remount depots and their training upon receipt at posts or by organizations to which they are assigned, etc. (G. O. 188, W. D., 1910.)

1168. When practicable, horses shall be purchased in the open market at all military posts or stations, when needed, at a maximum price to be fixed by the Secretary of War. (Annual Army appropriation acts.)

1169. Public animals shall, upon the day received, be branded with letters "U. S." on the left foreshoulder. Horses assigned to organizations will also be branded on the hoof of one forefoot, $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches below the coronet, with the designation of the company. (A. R., 1083.) Hoof number to be branded at time of purchase. (Descriptive Card of Public Animals.) Condemned animals will be branded "I. C." on the neck under the mane. (A. R., 922.)

1170. Public animals will be assigned to their riders or drivers, who will not exchange or surrender them to the use of any other person without the permission of the company commander, quartermaster, or other officer responsible. (A. R., 1088.)

1171. Name of each horse and that of his rider or driver to be placed over his stall. (C. D. R., 1006; D. R. L. A., 1112.)

1174. Sale or turning in to the Quartermaster's Department of horses belonging to troops of cavalry or batteries of artillery. (Par. 281, ante.)

1175. Care and treatment of animals. (Q. M. M., 717; F. S. R., Art. V; C. D. R., 869-888 and 1002-1008; D. R. L. A., 1106-1116.)

Horses and mules will be watered and fed habitually three times a day. (Cir. letter, W. D., A. G. O., June 2, 1911, to division and department commanders; 12715-B, O. I. G.)

1176. Any alteration in length or shape of tails, manes, or forelocks of public horses by docking, banging, or clipping is prohibited, and only such reasonable trimming and plucking as may be necessary to prevent shagginess of appearance is permitted. (A. R., 1084.) See par. 1177, post.

1177. The manes and tails of troop and battery horses, when unusually heavy, will be plucked or pulled to secure uniformity in each organization, but not to such an extent as to deprive the horses of manes of reasonable length, nor will the tails be made so short as not to reach fully to the point of the hocks. The fetlocks will be kept trimmed. (Cir. letter, W. D., A. G. O., June 2, 1911, to division and department commanders; 12715-B, O. I. G.)

1178. Mallein treatment, as a preventive against glanders, to be administered quarterly in the United States and oftener in tropical countries, to all horses and mules. Veterinarians of cavalry and field artillery to administer this treatment to animals of the Quartermaster's Department at posts where they are stationed. (Cir. 9 and 25, W. D., 1907.)

Experience having proven that mallein has merely a diagnostic value and that it is useful principally as an aid in the detection of glanders, administration of mallein will hereafter be limited to horses and mules of the Army, and to private horses of officers, that have come in contact with animals that are known to have or are suspected of having glanders, to newly purchased horses and mules, and to horses and mules coming or going out of the country. (Cir. 74, W. D., 1909.)

1179. Public animals that die of sickness, or that it is necessary to kill because of contagious disease, or when incurably wounded, will be dropped by the accountable officer upon the certificate of the responsible officer and affidavit of the veterinarian, or in the absence of the latter, the certificate of a disinterested officer and the affidavit of a disinterested person, approved by the commanding officer. In such case the action of a surveying officer is not required, unless it appears that the condition of the animal resulted from fault or neglect; and in such case the investigation by the surveying officer may follow the killing of the animal when its immediate destruction is made necessary to prevent contagion or terminate suffering. (A. R., 1089.)

1180. The Secretary of War has no objection to the transfer to the Bureau of Science, Philippine Islands, of animals that have been inspected, condemned, and ordered killed, excepting those animals ordered destroyed to terminate suffering or to prevent contagion. (Secretary of War, July 1, 1909; 13427, O. I. G.)

(Cir. 60, A. G. O., 1902.)

1188. The property responsibility of a company commander can not be transferred to enlisted men. (A. R., 674.)

1189. Accountability for public property will not be transferred to enlisted men, except to sergeants of the post noncommissioned staff at ungarrisoned posts and sergeants of the Signal Corps or enlisted men acting as such. (A. R. 706.)

1190. All public property unaccounted for when discovered will be taken up on the returns, or, in the absence of an accountable officer for that class of property, reported to the department commander for proper disposition. (A. R., 704.)

1191. The giving or taking of receipts in blank for public property is prohibited. (A. R., 681.)

1192. When it is impracticable for an officer to personally superintend issues—as may be the case with one charged with disbursements or the care of depots—he should choose with great caution the agent to whom he intrusts the duty. (A. R., 684.)

1193. The keys of storerooms or chests will not be intrusted to enlisted men or civilians wihout great vigilance on the part of the accountable officer and a resort to every reasonable precaution, including frequent personal inspections, to prevent loss or damage. (A. R., 685.)

1194. An officer in charge of public property in use or in store will endeavor by timely repairs to keep it in serviceable condition. For this purpose the necessary means will be allowed on requisition, and property in store so repaired will be issued. (A. R., 686.)

1195. Instructions relative to the storage and care of sheepskins and cleaning and preserving material, as russet leather dressing, leather, soap, brushes, and chamois skins. (Cir. 32, W. D., 1910.)

1196. All movable public property will, if practicable, be conspicuously branded "U. S." before being used. (A. R., 687.)

1197. Public property will not be used nor will labor hired for the Government be employed for any private purposes whatsoever, except as authorized in Army Regulations. (A. R., 688.)

1198. Empty barrels, boxes, crates, and other packages, together with metal turnings, scrap metals, ground bone, and other waste products which accumulate at arsenals, depots, and military posts, which are unsuitable for the public service, will be disposed of in the manner prescribed for property condemned and ordered sold in A. R., 691. At arsenals and depots where such accumulations have considerable money value proposals will be invited for specific lots and quantities, or for the accumulations of definite periods, as the head of the department to which the property pertains may deem best suited to the public interest. (A. R., 690; 12157-a, O. I. G.) See par. 1199, post.

1199. A. R., 683 (A. R., 690, 1910), is construed as permitting the sale of empty barrels, boxes, crates, and other packages together, with metal turnings, scrap metals, ground bone, and other waste products which accumulate at arsenals, depots, and military posts, which are unsuitable for the public service, without the action of an inspector. (Cir. 17, W. D., 1908.)

1200. Packages, crates, sacks, etc., in which subsistence stores are furnished to the United States, while in a sense public property, belong in a different class from similar packages in which supplies or stores are packed for transportation and delivery to other branches of the staff.

The packages containing stores and supplies procured by the Subsistence Department are paid for in the contract price for stores, which are issued or sold to officers and enlisted men. As those to whom the stores are issued or sold are entitled to them as articles of the ration, or as supplies which they have purchased for cash, the ownership in the package passes with the title to its contents.

The case of quartermaster's stores and supplies is quite different. Grain is issued, not to officers or enlisted men, but to public animals, or to private horses that are entitled to forage by law or regulations; it is never issued to a person as are rations; and, unless there is an authorized sale, as in the case of forage sold to an officer, no title to either the package or its contents passes from the United States to the owner of the animal or to the officer accountable for him.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this office that the question herein presented (Can grain sacks in which grain for public animals is issued be sold for the benefit of a troop fund?) must be answered in the negative. (Op. J. A. G., Apr. 30, 1908; 12370, O. I. G.)

1201. Military stores and public property condemned and ordered sold will be disposed of for cash at auction, or to the highest bidder on sealed proposals, on due public notice, and in such market as the public interests may require. The officer making the sale will suspend it when in his opinion better prices can be obtained, except in the case of condemned animals, the disposition of which is provided for in A. R., 1089. (A. R., 691.)

1202. The auctioneer's certified account of the sale of condemned property, and the vouchers for the expenses attending it, will be reported on the proper forms to the chief of bureau to which the property pertained. (A. R., 691.)

1203. Public property which has been condemned, or the issue price of which has been reduced as the result of a survey or inspection, will not be purchased by an officer who was responsible therefor at the time of condemnation or reduction of price, nor by an officer who bore any part in such condemnation or reduction. (A. R., 692.)

1204. There is no regulation forbidding the bidding by enlisted men, in competition with civilians, at the auction sales of Government property. (Secretary of War, Dec. 10, 1897; 3165, O. I. G.)

By G. O. 82, Philippines Division, 1909, the purchase, by any officer, enlisted man, or civilian employee, of any Government property offered for sale under A. R., 684, 1908 (A. R., 691, 1910), is strictly forbidden. This order was authorized by the War Department to continue in force. (14038, O. I. G.)

1219. The commanding officer will see that a complete, detailed, and accurate inventory of quartermaster's supplies, except property held on memorandum receipts, is taken by the accountable officer in person at least once each year, and as much oftener as he may deem necessary for the interests of the Government. 1281. Penalties for trespassing upon military reservations, fortifications, etc., injuring or destroying grass, submarine mines, telegraph, telephone, or cable lines, etc. (Sec. 44, 45, 56, 60, of the Penal Laws of the United States, amended by act Mar. 4, 1910; 35 Stat. 1283. The Secretary of War approves the recommendation of the Major General Commanding and the Quartermaster General, that where bachelor officers' quarters are provided at a military post, it is proper and necessary that they be assigned to officers without families. (Cir. 4, A. G. O., 1897.)

1284. Quarters for contract surgeons and acting dental surgeons should be assigned by the post commander, and they should be equal to those of a first lieutenant. Contract surgeons and acting dental surgeons are not entitled to select quarters, having no rank and not being officers. (Cir. 32, W. D., 1905; G. O. 45, W. D., 1911, p. 29.)

RATIONS.

1293. Occasions for which the use of the different kinds of rations is intended. (A. R., 1223.) The commanding officer will determine which of the several prescribed rations is appropriate for the particular service to be performed and will direct the use of the same. (A. R., 1223.)

1294. Post commanders have discretion in determining the periods for which ration returns are to be rendered, which periods ordinarily should not be longer than one month. (Secretary of War, Mar. 1, 1911; 6650-L, O. I. G.)

One day in each alternate month of the season of practical instruction, not exceeding three days in each year, the use of the haversack ration with individual cooking will be required by all troops in the field for purposes of instruction. (A. R., 1226.)

1297. Emergency ration: When to be used; improperly opened or lost; responsibility of company and detachment commanders. (A. R., 1223, 1226.)

In computing the value of a ration for the "Ration and Savings Account" the current price of the component and substitutive articles of the ration will be used. (M. S. D., 201.) When there is a balance of an article remaining on hand at the end of a month, its price is that to be used in the computation on back of the ration and savings account for the coming month. (Commissary General, concurred in by the Secretary of War, Jan. 9, 1911; 14850, O. I. G.)

1299. The ration return and ration and savings account of each organization or detachment will include all enlisted men belonging to it or attached to it for rations; the commander will make an equitable distribution of the amounts due the men authorized to mess separately. Members of the different detachments of noncommissioned staff officers messing separately will be rationed as detachments, their detachment commanders making an equitable distribution of the amounts due on their ration and savings account. (M. S. D., 204.) The company or detachment commander must himself pay the ration money to the men authorized to mess separately. (Secretary of War, Dec. 13, 1910; 14515, O. I. G.)

1300. If it is impracticable for a man messing separately to subsist himself until the end of the month, when settlements are usually made, the company or detachment commander may give the man a written order on the commissary for an amount of stores not to exceed the value of his ration. The value of the supplies so furnished will be charged to the company or detachment account in the sales ledger and adjusted when settlement is made with the company or detachment commander. These written orders will be filed with the records of the commissary. (Cir. 25, W. D., 1910.)

1301. Civilian employees entitled to rations will be rationed as a detachment. The officer under whose supervision they come will take charge of their mess, sign their ration accounts at the commissary, and make an equitable distribution of amounts due to those authorized to mess separately. (M. S. D., 203.)

1302. A civilian employee entitled to rations may purchase subsistence stores equal to the value of his ration. (Views of Commissary General, concurred in by the Secretary of War, Feb. 9, 1911; 14798, O. I. G.)

For enlisted men on mine planters. (Par. 23, Regs. for Mine Planters, 1909.) For enlisted men detailed for duty with the Organized Militia. (G. O. 136, W. D., 1911.)

1304. Paragraph 1229, Army Regulations of 1904 (A. R., 1229, 1910) leaves it discretionary with the commanding officer whether coffee money shall be given enlisted men ordered on journeys when supplied with cooked or travel rations, without regard to the length of the journey. This seems a wise provision as the commanding officer is best qualified to judge as to the advisability of turning over coffee money. (Memo. report of Chief of Staff, approved by the Secretary of War, Aug. 16, 1907; 10840, O. I. G.)

1305. The payment of commutation in lieu of rations to enlisted patients in hospital and members of the Nurse Corps on duty therein, as provided by Army Regulations, is not mandatory, the Secretary of War having discretion to direct the use of rations in cases where he deems it advisable. (M. S. D., 171.)

1306. Limits of expenditures for messes on Army transports. (T. R., 156-158; A. R., 1226.)

1307. Rations for civilians employed on tugs, launches, lighters, etc. (T. R., 162.)

1309. Selling (except by the post exchange) or bartering of supplies purchased or drawn from the commissary is forbidden. (A. R., 1269.)

It is not permissible for an organization to sell or exchange any portion of the fresh beef ration, after it has been issued by the Subsistence Department, for the purpose of obtaining other meats in the locality. (Commissary General, concurred in by the Secretary of War, Mar. 27, 1909; 13226, O. I. G.)

1310. Action to be taken when it is necessary to renew reserve rations or to avoid loss of ration articles that have accumulated. (A. R., 1242.)

1311. Supply of rations to be carried on trans-Pacific transports. (T. R. 170, 171; 12758, O. I. G.)

RECORDS AND CORRESPONDENCE.

1312. Record-card system prescribed for the bureaus of the War Department. (W. D. Orders, May 15, 1894.)

trict, of each military district, and of each permanent military post whose garrison exceeds two companies, except that in the Philippines Division the adoption of the system will be extended only to the headquarters of the artillery districts and the headquarters of such of the larger posts as may be designated for the purpose by the division commander. (G. O. 216, W. D., 1909.) Posts so designated in the Philippines Division. (G. O. 32, Phil. Div., 1910.)

1315. The system of record keeping prescribed in G. O. 92, W. D., 1909, having once been adopted at any headquarters will be maintained thereat continuously afterwards regardless of any change that may take place in the strength or composition of the command subordinate to such headquarters. (G. O. 216, W. D., 1909.)

1316. At military posts the provisions of G. O. 92, W. D., 1909, apply only to the post headquarters and not to the offices of post staff officers. (Cir. 92, W. D., 1909, par. 8.)

1317. It is not deemed advisable at the present time to extend the system of record keeping prescribed in G. O. 92, W. D., 1909, beyond the limits fixed by paragraph I, G. O. 216, W. D., 1909. Those limits do not include depots of supply of the various staff departments of the Army. (Cir. 12, W. D., 1910, par. 2.)

1318. Hereafter, at each administrative headquarters of the Army, the following methods will be observed in the keeping of records and the transaction of official business:

No record shall be kept in any office at a military headquarters respecting matters of which an established record or file is kept in any other office of the same headquarters to which the matter covered thereby properly pertains, but information shall be obtained from the latter source on application therefor as occasion may require. Thus, no record will be made in the office of the adjutant general (or adjutant) of a paper destined for the action of another office, except when the commander desires to take some previous action, and generally only such papers will be filed in the office of the adjutant general (or adjutant) as do not pertain to the business of any of the subordinate offices.

Mail received in any office will be opened promptly and each communication will be stamped with the name of the office and date of receipt. Communications pertaining to the business of the office will then be separated from those pertaining to the business of other offices; the latter will then be marked with the initials of the office to which they pertain and at once sent to the proper offices; the former, if of sufficient importance to be made of record, will then be briefed and entered.

Each staff officer is responsible that communications sent to him are promptly acted upon. In a case requiring the action of the commander, the staff officer will submit the case to him through the Chief of Staff (adjutant general or adjutant), with a memorandum, when necessary, giving a summary of the case and containing his recommendation as to proper action.

In case of routine papers to be forwarded or returned to higher authority, the staff officer will submit them with indorsement prepared for signature of the commander: if to be returned or transmitted, with instructions or remarks, the indorsement will be prepared for signature of the adjutant general (or adjutant).

When acted upon by the commander the proper steps to carry such action into effect will be taken by the Chief of Staff (adjutant general or adjutant), and the papers returned to the office of record, when it will be finally disposed of, i. e., filed, forwarded, transmitted, or returned, without further indorsement or action of that office, except to note disposition in the record. (G. O. 191, W. D., 1905.)

1319. The use of the letters-received book with index, the letters-sent book with index, and the order book, will be discontinued throughout the Army by August 31, 1906, or as soon thereafter as practicable, in all administrative units and offices below department headquarters. These books will be replaced by a correspondence book with index, a document file, and an order file. The correspondence book and index will be furnished in each case by the bureau that is supplying the books now in use. (Par. 1, G. O. 109, W. D., 1906.)

1320. "Instructions for use of Correspondence Book," published in G. O. 109, W. D., 1906, are required to be placed on the inside of the top cover of each correspondence book (converted and new) and of each separate index. (Par. 6, G. O. 109, W. D., 1906.)

1321. Official communications will be signed or authenticated with the pen and not by facsimiles. Signatures will be plainly and legibly written, with the rank and regiment or corps of the writer annexed. (A. R., 792.)

1322. Officers detailed as members of the General Staff Corps and those detailed in the several staff departments and corps will be addressed and designated in correspondence and orders only according to their rank and the positions to which they are detailed, thus, "Maj. A. B. C., General Staff;" "Capt. D. E. F., Paymaster," etc., and they will append only such titles to their official signatures, except where their assignment to duty involves the use of another title, as in the case of an adjutant general, chief quartermaster, etc., of a military department, and in these cases also the arm of the service from which the officer is detailed will be omitted. (G. O., 24, W. D., 1903.)

1323. An officer on duty in office of an inspector general of a division and not detailed as an "acting inspector general" by the War Department should not append that title to his official signature. If in charge of the office, the words "In charge of office" should follow his rank and regiment or corps. (13576-A, O. I. G.)

1324. Copies of any records or papers in the War Department or any of its bureaus, or at the headquarters of an army, corps, division, or brigade, or of a territorial division or department, if authenticated by the impressed stamp of the bureau or office of the War Department, or of the headquarters having custody of the originals (e. g., "The Adjutant General's Office, Official Copy,") may be admitted in evidence equally with the originals thereof before any military court, commission or board, or in any administrative matter under the War Department. (G. O. 198, W. D., 1908.)

1325. The use of colored inks, except as carmine or red ink is used in annotation, ruling, or compliance with specific instructions issued by the War Department on blank forms or otherwise, is prohibited in the records and correspondence of the Army. (A. R., 836.)

Under no circumstances will discharge certificates and final statements be prepared on a typewriting machine. (Cir. 41, W. D., 1909.)

1327. Indelible pencil may be used: In target record. (Par. 100, 363, Prov. S. A. F. M.) In correspondence book. (G. O. 109, W. D., 1906, par. 6 (a).)

1328. Printed letter and note headings for division and department headquarters and for posts, regiments, and schools of instruction will contain in the upper left corner a brief request for reference to the file number in making reply. Names of officers or other persons, or telephone numbers, will not be printed on letter or note headings for use in any branch of the military service. (A. R., 521.)

1329. Penalty clause on envelopes may be either written or printed. (Cir. 65, W. D., 1909.)

1330. Sections 5403 and 5408, R. S., prescribe penalties for the fraudulent or wrongful destruction, withdrawal, or removal from any public office of any public record, paper, or document therein deposited. (A. R., 837.)

1331. Furnishing of information by persons in the military service. (A. R., 838.)

1332. Information from official records; how furnished Congress. (Cir. 82, W. D., 1909.)

1333. Rules with regard to original records loaned by bureaus or offices of the War Department or by the headquarters of an army, corps, division, or brigade, or of a territorial division, or department, for use by or before courts-martial, military commissions, courts of inquiry, and retiring, examining, and other boards. (G. O., 32, W. D., 1909.)

1334. Correspondence relative to debts of soldiers to merchants. (Cir. 47, W. D., 1910.)

1335. Hereafter disciplinary measures will be resorted to in all cases of neglect of officers to make prompt reply to official communications without satisfactory excuse for the delay. (Cir. 25, W. D., 1906.)

1336. In vouchers, correspondence, etc., the Regulations will be referred to by paragraphs; and in all cases where an abbreviated form of reference to them may properly be used, the following style of notation will be adopted: A. R., 86, A. R., 279 (Army Regulations, paragraphs 86, 279, etc.). The same style of notation will be used when reference is made to sections of the Revised Statutes, e. g., R. S., §1115, etc. (G. O. 84, A. G. O., 1881.)

1337. Conventional signs and abbreviations for use in official correspondence and on maps, charts, and fire-control diagrams of fire-control stations. (G. O. 114, W. D., 1907; D. R. C. A., 116.)

1339. Military correspondence—general regulations. (A. R., 786-803.)

1340. Channels of communication. (A. R., 196, 756, 795-803; G. O. 215, W. D., 1907; Cir. 20, W. D., 1908.)

1341. Direct correspondence. (A. R., 796, 797.)

1342. In all territorial divisions correspondence with the War Department will be through the division commander, unless otherwise directed in Army Regulations and War Department orders. (A. R., 196.)

1343. All correspondence, reports and returns relating to the instruction, discipline, status or movements of their commands, or to the commissioned or enlisted personnel thereof, will pass through department commanders; and all other correspondence, reports and returns, including such as relate to the shelter, supply and equipment of troops, the sanitation of posts and other like matters of an administrative nature, will pass directly between post and division commanders. (War Department instructions May 15, 1911; 15187, O. I. G.) See par. 2, G. O. 129, W. D., 1911, as to Dept. of Hawaii.

1344. A commander or chief of bureau may communicate with those under his command or direction through a staff or other suitable officer. With all others he will himself make the communication. (A. R., 800.)

1345. Officers who forward communications will indorse thereon their approval or disapproval, with remarks. No communication will be forwarded to the War Department by a department commander or other superior officer for the action of the Secretary of War without some recommendation or expression of opinion. (A. R., 799.)

1347. Official communications that are sent to the office of The Adjutant General of the Army should be addressed to him and not through him to some other destination. While The Adjutant General can be relied upon to make proper disposition, subject to the direction of the Secretary of War, of any papers coming to his office, there is no objection to a request being included in any communication sent to his office that the paper be acted upon or disposed of in a specific way, but any such request should be embodied in the communication which should be addressed directly to The Adjutant General. Correspondents should not undertake, by addressing papers through The Adjutant General, to prescribe the disposition that shall be made of those papers after they reach him. That disposition must be left open for action by the Chief of Staff or the Secretary of War, or both. (Cir. 8, W. D., 1909.)

1348. All correspondence between the heads of staff departments and officers on duty at general recruiting stations, general recruit depots, or the United States Military Prison will be addressed to The Adjutant General of the Army, except in cases in which direct com-

1349. Correspondence with Division of Militia Affairs. (Org. Mil. Regs., 390-392.)

1350. Regulations governing correspondence, records, action on papers, etc., office of Chief of Staff. (G. O. 68, W. D., 1911.)

1351. Hereafter all papers or documents presented to the Secretary of War for signature shall either be initialed with ink or indelible pencil by the person responsible therefor, or accompanied by a signed communication identifying them, provided that in cases where carbon copies are made at the time of writing the carbon copy shall be so initialed, instead of the original, and shall accompany the communication. (Cir. R, W. D., June 26, 1909.)

1352. A paper submitted for the action of the Secretary of War will be so prepared that the last indorsement or report shall contain, in the fewest possible words, a summary of the case, unless this appears in some report on the same or an accompanying paper to which reference is made. It should also show the question to be decided, and conclude with an opinion or recommendation. When necessary, the law, orders, or customs of the service governing in like cases will be stated, and the case made complete in itself, so that reference to previous papers will only be necessary to afford more definite information upon matters already summarized in the report. As papers submitted in person can be orally explained, it will be sufficient, in the majority of such cases, to indorse on each an opinion or recommendation, omitting the other requirements of this paragraph.

Chiefs of bureaus are requested to see that the requirements of this paragraph are fully complied with. (Cir. I, W. D., Mar. 10, 1910.)

To this end post commanders will dispose of matters of routine as far as practicable by personal interview with the individuals concerned at such hours as will least interfere with the instruction of their commands. (G. O. 195, W. D., 1910; 14661, O. I. G.) •

1363. Emplacement book files are no longer to be kept. Range tables, retained reports of target practice, and carbon copies of important letters should be entered directly in emplacement books. (Secretary of War, Dec. 19, 1910; 12098, O. I. G.)

1364. Of coast artillery subposts. In view of the fact that at any time it may be necessary or advisable to regarrison these subposts, it is recommended that none of the records pertaining thereto be disturbed, but that they remain complete and in the offices to which they pertain, being securely locked up and cared for under the direct orders of the district commander concerned and in the same manner that the Government property pertaining to these subposts remains therein. The noncommissioned officer in charge of the detachment is responsible for the care and preservation of the subpost with all that pertains thereto. R., 211); monthly report of medical examination of applicants for enlistment—retained copy, Form 265, A. G. O. (A. R., 888); document file

A. R., 211); order file (A. R., 211); copies of all returns and reports rendered, if not contained in document file (A. R., 211; 12063, O. I. G.); copies of D. and A. cards (Cir. 23, W. D., 1908); monthly reports of elopements of accepted applicants (G. O. 243, W. D., 1909).

All records pertaining to recruit administration at recruit depots and depot posts will be so kept that a change may, without interference, be made at any time in the post personnel. (A. R., 858.)

(b) At recruit depot posts.—Monthly report of medical examination of applicants for enlistment—retained copy, Form 265, A. G. O. (A. R., 888; 12063, O. I. G.); copies of D. and A. cards (Cir. 23, W. D., 1908); monthly reports of elopements of accepted applicants (G. O. 243, W. D., 1909).

(c) At other garrisoned posts.—Monthly report of medical examination of applicants for enlistment—retained copy, Form 265, A. G. O. (A. R., 888; 12063, O. I. G.).

(d) At general recruiting stations (main).—Correspondence book (A. R., 211); company morning report (A. R., 280); sick report (A. R., 280); record of meals (Cir. letter, A. G. O., June 24, 1909); copies of D. and A. cards (Cir. 23, W. D., 1908); book of transportation requests (Cir. 41, W. D., 1906); document file (A. R., 211); order file (A. R., 211); copies of all returns and reports rendered, if not contained in document file (A. R., 211); muster roll of recruiting party—retained copy (Cir. letter, A. G. O., Apr. 8, 1907). And where the recruiting officer is a disbursing officer: Cash book; check book (A. R., 619-621; 12063, O. I. G.).

Circular 23, War Department, 1908, requires recruiting officers at general recruiting stations to file thereat copies of the descriptive and assignment cards of all applicants for enlistment examined by the recruiting officer, whether the applicants be accepted or rejected. (Indorsement, A. G. O., Sept. 3, 1908; 12598, O. I. G.)

(e) At auxiliary stations.—As the recruiting officer simply makes visits to these (auxiliary) stations when candidates for enlistment are assembled, and as such a station is frequently operated by a single soldier, few or no records are kept there. The records of the parties are all kept at the main stations. While it might be well to keep records at some of the more important auxiliary stations, it will be readily seen that for the department to prescribe a rule in this respect for all the auxiliary stations of varying degrees of importance is wholly impracticable. The matter has therefore been left to the judgment of the responsible officer who can best judge what records should be kept at each place. (M. S. O. letter, July 9, 1904; Cir. letter, O. I. G., July 25, 1904.)

1400. Men who present themselves for enlistment in the Army will be interrogated as to service in the National Guard and in the event that they have served in such State troops they will be required to present satisfactory evidence that they have been honorably discharged therefrom, or if unable to do so, enlistment will be refused. (Cir. 13, A. G. O., 1903.) Also see Cir. 62, W. D., 1908.

1401. Officers on duty at the general recruiting stations will see that the question of special assignment of applicants is settled while the applicants are at the recruiting stations. (Cir. letter, A. G. O., July 30, 1907.) See Cir. letter, A. G. O., Mar. 17, 1908.

Recruiting signs for general recruiting stations. (Cir. letter, A. G. O., Jan. 14, 1908.)

It is important that at every recruiting station the flag be effectively displayed, and that the posters and recruiting sign be judiciously placed. (Cir. letter, A. G. O., July 30, 1907.)

1406. Inspection.—Inspecting officers in making inspections of general recruiting stations will take special care to ascertain and report whether the requirements of Circular 27, War Department, 1908, are observed. (Par. 5, Cir. 27, W. D., 1908.)

Instructions to inspectors general relative to recruiting officers, their interest in and aptitude for their work, efforts to secure recruits character, appearance, and suitability of recruiting parties; dress and soldierly appearance of door orderly; attractiveness of station, advertising, display of flag, etc. (Cir. letter, O. If, upon inspection of the main station, an inspector is put in possession of any circumstance at an auxiliary station which he deems it important to inquire into on the ground, he should proceed to make his inspection and have his journey subsequently confirmed.” (Cir. letter, M. S. O., May 29, 1905, to Division Commanders.)

1408. Inspection of meals. For the purpose of ascertaining whether the meals furnished are suitable and in accordance with the terms of the agreements or contracts under which they are furnished, officers of the general recruiting service will make periodical inspections of the meals furnished at all main, auxiliary, and intermediate recruiting stations under their charge. No more than one meal need be inspected at any station in any one day, but inspections will be so timed that different meals will be inspected in succession at each station. At each main station one or more meals will be inspected each week, and at each auxiliary or intermediate station one or more meals will be inspected during each visit of the recruiting officer to that station, but no journey to any station will be made for the sole purpose of inspecting meals. The fact that such inspection has been made, the date of the inspection at each station, and the meal or meals inspected on that date will be noted in the column of remarks on the station trimonthly report of the general recruiting service. (Cir. letter, A. G. O., Mar. 31, 1906.) See par. 668, ante.

1409. Newspapers and periodicals.—An allowance of $10 per annum is made for subscriptions to newspapers and periodicals for each main recruiting station designated by The Adjutant General. (Form No. 371, Q. M. G. O., Mar. 2, 1911.)

1410. Office.—Important that it be on first floor where flags and recruiting sign can be displayed to attract attention, and where the orderly will be actually on the sidewalk instead of in hallway. (Cir. letter, A. G. O., Nov. 27, 1909; 13218-B, O. I. G.)

Rooms will not be selected in a building the owners or occupants of which may object to the posting of a soldier at the main entrance as required in Circular 27, War Department, 1908. (Cir. 27, W. D., 1908.)

Leasing of rooms for recruiting purposes—articles and facilities to be furnished by lessors. (G. O. 240, W. D., 1909.)

Location of office at main or central auxiliary station not to be changed without first obtaining authority from The Adjutant General's Office. (Cir. letter, A. G. O., Dec. 11, 1909.)

A recruiting station is not to be regarded as a "military station" within the meaning of A. R., 109, 1908 [A. R., 110, 1910]. (Cirs. 21 and 41, W. D., 1909.)

1411. Office hours.—Except on Sundays and holidays, recruiting offices will be opened for business daily not later than 8 a. m. and closed not earlier than 5 p. m. (Cir. 27, W. D., 1908.)

The Secretary of War has decided that the Executive order dated June 25, 1909, published in Circular 42, War Department, 1909, providing "that during the months of July, August, and September of each year, until further notice, four hours, exclusive of time for luncheon, shall constitute a day's work on Saturdays for all clerks and other employees of the Federal Government, wherever employed," does not apply to Army recruiting stations. (Cir letter, A. G. O., July 6, 1911; 15322, O. I. G.)

1412. Orderly.—When a recruiting party consists of two or more enlisted men, one man of soldierly bearing and properly uniformed will be posted at the main (street) entrance of the recruiting station during at least four hours of each week day, to answer inquiries and direct applicants to the recruiting office. (Cir. 27, W. D., 1908. See par. 1418, post.)

1414. Quarters.—The privilege of living out of quarters may be granted by recruiting officers to the following classes of members of recruiting parties:

(1) Soldiers who were married prior to their last enlistment or prior to their transfer to the recruiting service.

(2) Soldiers who may hereafter receive permission from the War Department to marry.

The privilege of living out of quarters will not be extended to more than one man at each main station. When an enlisted man to whom this privilege has been granted desires to be subsisted independently, he will submit in writing an application to The Adjutant General of the Army to be paid the contract price of subsistence. This application will be forwarded by the recruiting officer, with his recommendation and with such information in regard thereto as may be deemed pertinent. (G. O. 190, W. D., 1904.)

G. O. 190, W. D., 1904, does not contemplate payment by the Government for a soldier's lodgings when the privilege of living out of quarters is accorded him, and the Quartermaster's Department is prohibited by law from paying commutation of quarters. (Secretary of War, Dec. 2, 1909; 13788, O. I. G.)

1416. Regulations governing the recruiting service. (A. R., 857-894.)

1417. Toilet articles for recruiting stations. (A. R., 1240.)

1418. Uniform.—Officers and enlisted men on duty at general recruiting stations will wear, according to the season, either the dress or the white uniform, but they will not wear the service uniform. This, however, is not to be construed so as to prevent such officers and enlisted men from wearing olive drab shirts when considered necessary by the recruiting officer in charge. The time of wearing the white or the dress uniform will be determined for each recruiting district by the officer in charge of the district.

Recruiting officers and members of their recruiting parties will be in uniform when on duty as such.

While posted at the main entrance of recruiting stations, or while on duty in parks and squares, or on other duty as may be directed by the recruiting officer in charge, enlisted men will, while wearing the dress uniform, wear white gloves and the russet-leather belt;

if wearing the white uniform they will wear white gloves and the white web belt issued by the Ordnance Department. (U. R., 38.)

Recruiting officers will give special attention to the dress and appearance of their men and will take the necessary steps to relieve from recruiting duty any men now on their parties or that may be received hereafter who are slovenly or unsoldierly in appearance. (Cir. 27, W. D., 1908.)

Existing instructions are specific in requiring recruiting officers to be in uniform "while on duty as such," which, of course, includes the time during which they are on duty at either main or auxiliary stations. These instructions are not construed, however, as requiring recruiting officers to be in uniform while traveling to and from auxiliary stations. (Indorsement, A. G. O., Aug. 29, 1908; 12587, O. I. G.)

1419. White summer clothing for members of recruiting parties, how supplied and disposed of when unserviceable. (A. R., 1183; Cir. 27, 40, W. D., 1908; Cir. letter, A. G. O., May 20, 1909.) When to be worn. (U. R., p. 52.)

1420. Uniform clothing will not be issued to applicants for enlistment. (Cir. 41, W. D., 1906.)

NOTE.—A list of recruit depots and depot posts will be found in the monthly "Army List and Directory."

1424. Recruits at general depots will be organized for instruction into recruit companies as may be directed by the War Department. (A. R., 859.)

1425. Directions of the Secretary of War relative to the instruction of recruits at recruit depots communicated to the commanding officer of each recruit depot by A. G. O. letter, dated December 6, 1910. (13218-C, O. I. G.) Colored recruits of no previous service are not to be held at recruit depots for instruction. (Cir. letter, A. G. O., Feb. 6, 1911; 13218-D, O. I. G.)

Each recruit, before leaving a recruit depot for service in the Philippines, will be supplied with two pairs of summer drawers, two cotton undershirts, and two pairs of cotton stockings, or such of these articles as are not already in his possession, to be taken with him for use on the transport or after arrival in the islands. (Cir. letter, A. G. O., Apr. 20, 1911, to commanding officers of recruit depots; 13218-F, O. I. G.)

1432. Civilian clothing of accepted recruits will be disinfected hereafter at recruit depots and depot posts instead of at recruiting stations. (Cir. 37, W. D., 1906.)

O. 76, W. D., 1904, p. 10; act Mar. 2, 1905, 33 Stat. L., 831; G. O. 40, W. D., 1905, p. 9; act June 12, 1906, 34 Stat. L., 245; G. O. 115, W. D., 1906, p. 8.) When detailed to educational institutions. (Act Mar. 3, 1909, 35 Stat. L., 738; G. O. 49, W. D., 1909, p. 10.) When assigned to active duty as members of the board of road commissioners for Alaska. (Act Mar. 3, 1911, 36 Stat. L., 1052; G. O. 45, W. D., 1911, p. 25.)

1437. The Secretary of War may assign retired officers of the Army, with their consent, to active duty in recruiting, for service in connection with the organized militia in the several States and Territories upon the request of the governor thereof, as military attachés, upon courts-martial, courts of inquiry and boards, and to staff duties not involving service with troops. (Act Apr. 23, 1904, 33 Stat. L., 264; G. O. 76, W. D., 1904, p. 10.)

1438. When detailed to active duty in the recruiting service or as professors of military science and tactics at educational institutions they are not officers "required to be mounted." (Cir. 81, W. D., 1908.) Status as to mounts when on duty with the organized militia. (G. O. 121, W. D., 1911.)

1439. Are subject to the rules and articles of war. (R. S., 1256.)

1440. Retired officers may be assigned to duty at the Soldiers' Home, provided they receive from the Government only the pay and emoluments allowed by law to retired officers. (R. S., 1259.) But they may receive supplies from the home, and the treasurer may receive a salary from the funds of the home. (XX Op. Att. Gen., 350, Mar. 14, 1892.)

1441. "An assistant general treasurer and inspector general of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers is not an officer of the United States within the meaning of the act of July 31, 1894," and a retired officer receiving compensation of $2,500 per annum is not debarred from holding that office. (8 Comp., 443, Jan. 11, 1902.)

1442. Laws, regulations, and instructions governing detail of, at educational institutions. (G. O. 231, W. D., 1909.)

SERVANTS.

1443. No officer shall use an enlisted man as a servant in any case whatever. (R. S., 1232.) See par. 1142 ante.

SHOES.

1444. Company commanders enjoined to personally supervise fit of the footgear; soldier has a marked tendency to wear a marching shoe of the same size as his dress shoe, whereas he should wear at least a size larger. (Cir. 34, W. D., 1906.)

1445. One size stick and two shoe stretchers for each company or detachment will be furnished by the Quartermaster's Department. (Cir. 63, W. D., 1909; U. R., 37 (b).)

1446. Shoes of old pattern, both black and russet, on hand at the various posts, depots, and stations should be absorbed by issue as far as practicable before those of the latest pattern are issued. (Secretary of War and Quartermaster General, Nov. 16 and 27, 1908; 12942, O. I. G.)

1447. An explanation for not wearing uniform shoes at inspection in dress uniform to the effect that the men's feet were so tender that wearing uniform shoes caused loss of efficiency, was not accepted by the War Department as satisfactory, and the men were required to wear the uniform shoe as prescribed. (Dec. Acting Secretary of War, Oct. 29, 1907; 12006, O. I. G.)

1448. Neat's-foot oil for use as a shoe dressing will be furnished by the Quartermaster's Department, and a supply of not less than 4 ounces for each man will be kept on hand in every organization for use in the field in wet weather. (Cir. 72, W. D., 1907.)

SIGNAL CORPS DEPOTS AND POSTS.

1449. "The general depots of supply," mentioned in A. R., 187, 1904 (A. R., 189, 1910), include the general property depots of the Signal Corps at present established or that may hereafter be established. Whenever such depots of the Signal Corps are situated at a Signal Corps post, matters of post administration remain in the hands of the division and department commanders. (Cir. 46, W. D., 1906.) See A. R., 192.

1450. The following persons, members of the Soldiers' Home, according to section 4814, Revised Statutes, shall be entitled to the rights and benefits herein conferred, and no others:

First. Every soldier of the Army of the United States who has served, or may serve, honestly and faithfully 20 years in the same.

Second. Every soldier and every discharged soldier, whether regular or volunteer, who has suffered, or may suffer, by reason of disease or wounds incurred in the service and in the line of his duty, rendering him incapable of further military service, if such disability was not occasioned by his own misconduct.

Third. The invalid and disabled soldier, whether regulars or volunteers, of the War of 1812 and of all subsequent wars. (R. S., 4821.)

NOTE.—Discharged soldiers who served only in volunteer organizations are not received at the Soldiers' Home in the District of Columbia, because provision is made for them in the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers. (Laws and Regulations for the Soldiers' Home, p. 20.)

1454. The following persons only shall be entitled to the benefits of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, and may be admitted thereto upon the order of a member of the board of managers, namely:

All honorably discharged officers, soldiers, and sailors who served in the regular or volunteer forces of the United States in any war in which the country has been engaged, including the Spanish-American War, the provisional army (authorized by act of Congress approved Mar. 2, 1899), in any of the campaigns against hostile Indians, or who have served in the Philippines, in China, or in Alaska, who are disabled by disease, wounds or otherwise, and who have no adequate means of support, are not otherwise provided for by law, and by reason of such disability are incapable of earning their living. (Acts Mar. 21, 1866; May 26, 1900; Jan. 28, 1901; May 27, 1908; Mar. 4, 1909; Regulations N. H. D. V. S., par. 83, published in G. O. 148, W. D., 1909.)

1455. Personal property of deceased members of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers who leave no heirs at law or next of kin, how disposed of. (Act June 25, 1910, 36 Stat. L., 736; G. O. 133, W. D., 1910, p. 25.)

STAFF.

1456. Of a territorial division commander. (A. R., 196.) Department commander. (A. R., 198.) Department of Hawaii. (G. O. 129, W. D., 1911.) Commanders of normal brigades and higher units. (F. S. R., 307.) Regimental commander. (A. R., 248.) Battalion and squadron commanders. (A. R., 248.) Post commander. (A. R., 206.)

1457. Officers of the General Staff (staff departments), serving at military posts, do not belong to regiments or battalions, but constitute the staff of the commanding officer. They will attend him on all reviews and inspections; will form in line three paces to the rear of the commanding officer, who may, at his discretion, require them to stand fast when he proceeds to make the "inspection," or he may instruct one or more to accompany him, and the remainder to retain their position at the post for review. (Cir. 8, A. G. O., 1885.) See G. O. 196, W. D., 1909.

1458. Tour of service of staff officers in the Philippine Islands to be two and one-half years. (Secretary of War, Oct. 25, 1911; 9028-D, O. I. G.)

1459. Hereafter graduates of the Service Schools and the Staff College shall not be subject to detail in any staff corps or department, or to other detached service until they have rejoined the organizations to which they belong and served therewith two years. (Secretary of War, Aug. 29, 1911; 14324-B, O. I. G.)

SUBMARINE MINING.

1461. Companies assigned to a mine defense are charged with the care and operation of the mine equipment. (G. O. 62, W. D., 1908, Par. IV, sec. 17.)

1462. Accountability for submarine mine property. (G. O. 182, W. D., 1907, amended by W. D. G. O. 121, 1908; 50, 1911.)

1463. Expendable submarine stores. (Prov. M. S. M., pp. 27-29.)

1464. Mine equipment expended in mine commands. (G. O. 62, W. D., 1908, Par. IV, sec. 18.)

1465. The distribution box boats, being a part of the mine equipment of the Coast Artillery Corps, will be assigned by artillery district commanders to mine companies or to detachments assigned to mine defense for their care and use. The officer in command of the organization will himself take direct charge of the boats or will designate an officer under his command for that duty. He will assign to each boat as crew a corporal and two specially selected privates, the corporal to act as master of the boat, one of the privates as engineer, and the other as deck hand. (G. O. 235, W. D., 1909.)

1466. As the use of these boats (wooden working boats for submarine mining) will tend to keep them in good condition and serve to train the members of the various crews in their handling and care, their use for ordinary work in the waters about a coast artillery post, when not needed for submarine mine purposes, is authorized under proper supervision of local commanding officers. (Cir. 37, W. D., 1905.)

1467. Annual allowance of submarine mines for practice at posts supplied with the necessary mine explosive: To each post where a mine company is stationed, three mines; to other posts where instruction in submarine mining is required, one mine. (G. O. 22, W. D., 1911, p. 9.)

1468. Submarine mine property shall not be used for other than mine purposes, unless the express authority of the Chief of Artillery therefor has been previously obtained. (G. O. 86, W. D., 1905.)

1469. At posts provided with the necessary material (oil engine, storage battery, transformers, switchboard, operating boxes, etc.), a mining casemate shall be installed, provided a suitable room is available or may be extemporized for this purpose. If for any reason it is found impossible to make this temporary installation, the commanding officer shall make a detailed report showing why it can not be done. (G. O. 86, W. D., 1905.)

1470. Instructions relative to classification of submarine mine cable. (Cir. 78, W. D., 1908.)

1472. Cable tanks should, if practicable, be kept filled with fresh water; but when this is impracticable salt water may be used until a supply of fresh water becomes available. (G. O. 86, W. D., 1905.) See p. 68, Prov. M. S. M.

1473. Test of mines and apparatus. (Prov. M. S. M., pp. 42-44.)

1474. Care and preservation of submarine mine material. (Prov. M. S. M., pp. 73-75.)

1475. Sales list, including articles to be kept for sale in Alaska and the Philippine Islands and at recruit depots. (G. O. 172, W. D., 1909.)

1476. The War Department has uniformly declined to authorize sales, made to enlisted men and civilian employees under A. R., 1259 and 1263, 1908 (A. R., 1263 and 1267, 1910), to be paid for at the end of the month. (13274-B, 13612, O. I. G.) See par. 1302 ante.

1477. Prices to be charged for subsistence stores furnished by the Subsistence Department to another bureau of the War Department, or to another executive department of the Government or employees thereof. (Act Mar. 3, 1911; 36 Stat. L., 1047; G. O. 45, W. D., 1911, p. 17.)

1478. Sales of subsistence stores made to a company, detachment, hospital, post bakery or post exchange, when paid for within the calendar month in which they are made, are regarded as cash sales within the meaning of A. R., 1259, 1908) [A. R., 1263, 1910]. (Cir. 92, W. D., 1909.)

1479. Section 1144, Revised Statutes, provides for sales of subsistence stores at "cost prices;" and the act of July 5, 1884 (23 Stats., 108), defines the cost price as follows: "The cost price of each article shall be understood, in all cases of such sales, to be the invoice price of the last lot of that article received by the officer making the sale prior to the first day of the month in which the sale is made." This provision of law is specific and positive, and there is no authority for selling supplies at a reduction in price whereby the Department will receive less than the law prescribes. Even the fraction of a cent is at times a portion of the cost price to be charged and must be exacted, so that if the purchaser does not choose to purchase a quantity that will total to an even cent, the Department has to insist upon the full cent. But it is the privilege of the purchaser, and a common practice, to call for a small article to make out the difference, otherwise he loses the fraction of the cent. The Government can not lose but may gain, and the fraction of a cent in the course of a month may amount to dollars, which under paragraph 292, Subsistence Manual [M. S. D., 295, 1910], the commissary is required to take up and account for. Par. 639, A. R., 1908 [A. R., 646, 1910] applies to footings of vouchers only. (Views of Commissary General, concurred in by the Secretary of War, Jan. 6, 1910; 13891, O. I. G.)

1480. It is essential that the commissary should check the entries on abstracts of sales and issues, and this duty should not be delegated to the commissary sergeant no matter how efficient he may be. (Commissary General, Aug. 1, 1911; 15298, O. I. G.)

1481. The requirement that "At the close of business each day the quantities and articles sold will be abstracted on Form No. 21," is hereby modified so as to permit officers to make such abstracts of sales at the earliest convenient dates during the month in which the sales are made. (Cir. 6, O. C. G., May 16, 1911.)

1482. Action to be taken when there is danger of the Government sustaining heavy loss by stores deteriorating, and there is no prospect of such stores being consumed in the near future. (M. S. D., 129.)

1483. Commanding generals of territorial divisions are authorized to increase or decrease, without reference to the War Department, but with due regard to the interests of the service and existing law, the various allowances specified in A. R., 1237, 1910. (G. O. 89, W. D., 1911.)

NOTE.—The articles referred to are: Soap, candles, lantern candles, matches, toilet paper, rock salt and vinegar for public animals, flour for paste used in target practice, huck towels, ice, and housewives.

SURVEYING OFFICER.

1484. The post surgeon, unless he be the post commander, can not appoint a surveying officer. (Acting Secretary of War, Mar. 3, 1908; 12205, O. I. G.)

1485. On the approved recommendation of a surveying officer the following classes of property may be destroyed: (1) Clothing infected with contagious disease; (2) stores that have become so deteriorated as to endanger health or injure other stores, and (3) unserviceable property of no salable value submitted to a surveying officer under the provisions of A. R., 689. The decision of the commanding officer will be final as to whether such property has salable value.

This paragraph will, in its application to ordnance stores under (3), be limited to utterly worthless articles constituting the soldier's personal equipments (not arms), horse equipments, and target materials and supplies, the cost price of which does not exceed $100 for mounted organizations and $50 for all other cases. In each case the report will give the dates of receipt of the stores surveyed.

Before ordering the destruction of property or stores under the provisions of this paragraph the commanding officer will personally inspect the same and will be held responsible that the conditions justify the action. In case the invoice value of the stores involved exceeds $500, the approval of the next higher administrative commander will be obtained before destruction of the property, as provided in A. R., 730. A certificate of the witnessing officer that the property has been destroyed as authorized will be appended to the report. (A. R., 728.)

1486. Where two reports of survey of ordnance stores pertaining to one organization, covered destruction on the same date of property whose cost price was $99.90 and $98.65, the Secretary of War, March 11, 1908, concurred in the following remarks of the Chief of Ordnance: "The action of these officers in disposing of the property seems to have been based on a technical compliance with A. R., 720, as amended (A. R., 728, 1910), but their actions violated the spirit of this regulation and nullified its purpose. If such action were permitted to pass unnoticed an officer might claim that he could, on the same date or about the same date, properly dispose of utterly worthless ordnance property having an aggregate cost price of any amount, provided each report of survey covered property the cost price of which was $100 or under.

"This office reports that cases of this kind have so far been exceedingly rare. It is considered therefore that proper compliance with the spirit and purpose of the regulation can be best enforced by informing the officers concerned that the Secretary of War disapproves of their actions, and, should future cases arise, more stringent measures will be adopted." (12332, O. I. G.)

1487. The Secretary of War, January 4, 1911, concurred in the following views of the Inspector General of the Army, as to whether a commanding officer is authorized by the last sentence of the first section of A. R., 720, 1908 (A. R., 728, 1910), to pronounce property as having no salable value, in opposition to the opinion of the surveying officer, and then order its destruction:

"Under the provisions of paragraph 720, Army Regulations, 1908 (A. R., 728, 1910), it is within the province of the commanding officer to decide whether or not property of the first class, submitted to a surveying officer under paragraph 682, Army Regulations, 1908 (A. R., 689, 1910), has a salable value. If, in his opinion, it has no salable value he has authority to order the destruction of such property, thus assuming all responsibility connected therewith." (11773-A, O. I. G.)

1489. The Secretary of War, November 4, 1911, approved the following recommendation of the Inspector General of the Army, with reference to the survey of river and harbor and fortification property for which the several district officers of the Corps of Engineers are accountable:

"That the Chief of Engineers be authorized to direct the several district engineer officers to submit from time to time to the Chief of Engineers as 'the next higher administrative commander' lists of such property as they may desire to have surveyed, accompanied by the evidence required by paragraph 722, A. R., and to appoint some disinterested engineer officer to act as surveying officer; subsequent action on the survey report to be governed by paragraphs 728, 729, and 730, A. R." (15202-E, O. I. G.)

1490. Action of a surveying officer is required on ordnance stores rendered unserviceable by fair wear and tear when an emergency requisition is submitted for stores to replace them. (Cir. 16, W. D., 1910.)

1491. Report of survey to be prepared in triplicate. Separate reports will be made for each staff department concerned. (A. R., 727.)

1492. Approval of reports of survey. (A. R., 729-731.)

1493. The third copy of a report of survey on public property pertaining to a recruit depot or to a general recruiting station will be filed at the depot or station. (Cir. 30, W. D., 1908.)

1494. Reports on unserviceable band instruments. (A. R., 1195.)

1495. Reports on china and glassware of outgoing organizations. (A. R., 1039.)

1497. On horse equipments issued to mounted officers below the grade of major. (A. R., 1542.)

1498. Post commanders have authority, and should exercise it, to order officers responsible for quartermaster's property that has become unserviceable through fair wear and tear to turn it in to the post quartermaster either to have it replaced or to receive credit for it, thus doing away with a large number of surveys in organizations. (Secretary of War, Mar. 1, 1911; 6650-L, O. I. G.)

1499. Opinion of the Judge Advocate General, October 6, 1903, in case where a board of survey recommended that the price of butter on hand by the Subsistence Department for sale at a post be reduced:

"In view of the positive requirements of the statute that the sale of subsistence stores to officers and enlisted men shall be 'at cost price only,' it is believed that the proposed reduction would not be legal. The statute not only provides that the sale shall be at cost price, but defines the meaning of the term, 'to be the invoice price of the last lot of that article received by the officer making the sale prior to the first day of the month in which the sale is made.'" (5723-B, O. I. G.; 15285, J. A. G. O.)

1500. On loss of subsistence funds. (M. S. D., 98.)

1502. Not to be appointed to act upon and fix responsibility for loss or damage to private property of officers, or other persons connected with the military service, that has been shipped on Government bill of lading. (Cir. 14, W. D., 1910.)

1503. Whenever loss or destruction of, or damage to, public property, requiring the action of a surveying officer, occurs, such action will be requested by the responsible officer as soon as practicable and in every case within 30 days after discovery of the loss, destruction, or damage, unless exceptional circumstances, which will be explained by the officer's certificates, prevent such action within that period. (A. R., 724.)

TABLEWARE.

1504. Estimates are sometimes made for articles of china and glassware, to cover wear and tear, as determined by inventory and inspection report. The term breakage in A. R., 1200, covers all shortage by deterioration of such ware through breakage, chipping, cracking, etc.; shortage through extraordinary circumstances, or through loss or carelessness, is otherwise provided for. Attention is invited to paragraph II, General Orders, No. 7, series 1895, and to Circular No. 10, series 1895, both from this office, the latter regarding inspection of ware after each meal and each dishwashing.

The allowance under A. R., 1200, is abundant, and ware must be so guarded that the outfit shall therewith be kept complete. China and glassware will be disposed of only as provided for by that paragraph, which does not contemplate the action of an inspector.

Estimates for ware will be rendered quarterly for articles needed within value and quantity allowed by regulations. If estimates are not submitted at the end of each quarter, it will be inferred that the supply on hand is complete to that date. The account for each organization is closed at the end of the fiscal year.

If the ware of a departing organization is left in such a condition that the supply on hand, together with allowance remaining due, and articles replaced as provided for by A. R., 1200, will not complete the outfit for its successor, the shortage will be charged against the officer in charge of the mess of the departing company.

The quartermaster who receives the ware from departing organizations will keep the supply of each company separately, to be thus turned over to its successor. (G. O. 51, A. G. O., 1896.)

1505. China and glassware belonging to mess outfits * * * will not be removed from soldiers' barracks without the order of the post commander, nor will they be removed from a post or station except by order of the War Department. * * * Previously to the execution of an order for change of station of an organization the commanding officer of the post or station will appoint a surveying officer, if possible an officer belonging to an organization other than that changing station, who will survey all china and glassware of the outgoing organization. He will render a report as to the serviceability or unserviceability of the articles surveyed, and that report, when approved by the commanding officer, will be final. All china and glassware found to be serviceable will be turned in to the quartermaster for reissue. All china and glassware found to be unserviceable after the authorized allowance of 5 per centum a quarter on account of breakage shall have been deducted will be destroyed and the money value thereof charged against the officer who is responsible for the property. (A. R., 1039.)

1506. In determining whether china is serviceable or not, the survey officer will be guided by the rule that cracked or chipped china is serviceable and will be issued to companies provided it will retain the same amount of food or liquid as if it were not cracked or chipped. Cracked china that leaks is manifestly unserviceable; but this can not be ascertained except by personal examination and test and each piece will be so tested. (Chief of Staff, Mar. 17, 1905; 13025, O. I. G.) Slight chipping or cracking does not render ware unserviceable. As a matter of fact, if the departing organization used the ware up to the time of departure it was serviceable, and if used by that organization it could be used by its successor. (Q. M. G., concurred in by Secretary of War, Aug. 5, 1909; 13518, O. I. G.)

TELEGRAMS.

TELEGRAPHIC CODE.

1508. Telegraphic cipher code, care of, etc. (G. O. 84, W. D., 1904; G. O. 93, W. D., 1907.)

TELEPHONES.

1509. For posts, number, and location; central to be usually at adjutant's office. (Par. 1, G. O. 97, W. D., 1906, amended by G. O. 170, W. D., 1908.)

1512. Telephonic communication between posts and nearby towns. (Par. 2, G. O. 97, W. D., 1906, amended by G. O. 116, W. D., 1908.)

1513. Telephones and other Signal Corps fire-control equipment of coast artillery posts are to be inspected and tested annually. (G. O. 146, W. D., 1911.) Post telephone systems at interior posts are to be inspected semiannually. (G. O., 97, W. D., 1906, par. 11; S. C. M. No. 3, p. 140.)

1514. Instructions for the operation, maintenance and care of post telephone systems and the buzzer and communication systems of target ranges installed by the Signal Corps. (G. O. 90, W. 1515. All officers and enlisted men of the field artillery who may be called upon to use telephones will be instructed in their wiring and in the determining of faults so as to be able to keep the instruments in order and make the ordinary field repairs. (G. O. 4, W. D., 1911, par. 10.)

TENTAGE.

1517. When troops are on practice or other marches involving absence from garrison over night the allowance of tentage will be fixed by the commanding officer. (G. O. 66, W. D., 1911.)

1520. The full allowance of tentage should be kept on hand at posts at all times. (Q. M. G., Feb. 14, 1910; 13852, O. I. G.)

1521. The prescribed allowance of tentage and equipage will habitually be kept in the hands of the organizations to which it is issued. After use and before being put away, tentage and equipage will be thoroughly aired, dried, and put in serviceable condition, so as to be ready for immediate use when again required. (A. R. 1199.)

1522. The use of serviceable tents or other canvas for any purpose other than that for which such articles are furnished is prohibited, except in cases of emergency when necessary to protect public property. (A. R., 1199.)

1523. The use of the hand ax and the pick mattock in organizations equipped with the intrenching tool is authorized for the purpose of driving tent pins. The use of the bayonet for that purpose is prohibited. (Cir. 106, W. D., 1908.)

1531. Field Service Regulations do not provide for any field service transportation for coast artillery companies. This (Q. M. G.) office has, however, fixed an allowance of one escort wagon for each company of coast artillery. (Q. M. G., Apr. 17, 1907; 11333, O. I. G.)

1532. Allowance of spring wagons for posts. (A. R., 1118.)

1535. Ambulances.—Allowance for field service (F. S. R., 33, 302; M. M. D., 578); for posts (A. R., 1451); for each regimental, battalion, and squadron headquarters (A. R., 1451); furnished and repaired by Quartermaster's Department; housed when practicable near hospital; subject to call of surgeon (A. R., 1450); driver designated (A. R., 1452); care and inspection (A. R., 1452, 1458). See paragraph 90, ante.

1536. Ambulances will be used only for transportation of the sick and wounded, the recreation of convalescent patients, or to give instruction in the duties of the ambulance service. (A. R., 1450). Use in the field. (A. R., 1458.)

1537. Each company will be furnished with one hand litter, which will be kept ready for use at all times. It will be supplied by the Medical Department. (A. R., 1453.)

UNIFORM.

1543. Regulations for the uniform of the United States Army are prescribed in Uniform Regulations of December 26, 1911.

1544. Uniform to be worn on different occasions, by whom prescribed. (U. R., 35, 53 (a); T. R., 229.)

1545. When troops appear in any of the uniforms prescribed in Uniform Regulations all officers on duty therewith or attached thereto in any capacity shall wear the corresponding uniform prescribed for officers. This does not apply to inspectors, who will wear such uniform as is best adapted to the performance of their duty. (U. R., 29.)

1546. There are two service uniforms, the woolen olive-drab and the cotton olive-drab. The woolen olive-drab uniform will be prescribed for habitual wear when the climate or weather does not require the cotton olive-drab. (U. R., p. 50.)

1547. Combinations of various articles of uniform other than the combinations prescribed in Uniform Regulations are prohibited. (U. R., 49.)

1548. All officers will provide themselves with the uniforms pertaining to their rank and duty and maintain them thoroughly neat and serviceable. (U. R., 36 (a).) For inspection and verification of uniforms by commanding officers, see paragraph 1070, ante.

1549. The Secretary of War has approved certain modifications in design of spurs, also of caps and service uniforms for officers and enlisted men and of dress and full dress uniforms for officers of the Quartermaster's Department. These changes will not be described in orders. The modified design of spurs will be set forth in detail in specifications to be furnished by the Ordnance Department, and the changes in the uniform will be set forth in detail in specifications to be furnished by the Quartermaster General to all quartermasters and to military tailors upon application. The changes for officers will go into effect on July 1, 1912, prior to which date articles of the present pattern may be worn. (G. O. 89, W. D., 1911.)

1550. Officers will, by their appearance, set an example of neatness and strict conformity to regulations in uniform and equipment. (U. R., 18.)

1552. Officers on duty in the War Department are authorized to wear civilian dress. (War Dept. Cir. Aug. 3, 1904.)

1553. Wearing of civilian clothes by officers and enlisted men. (U. R., 10.)

1554. Officers who desire to purchase olive-drab cotton or woolen uniform cloth, conforming to the Army standard, may procure it from the depot quartermaster, Philadelphia, Pa. (Cir. 59, W. D., 1910.)

1555. A standard sample for color of olive-drab woolen cloth will be furnished by the Quartermaster's Department to the quartermaster of every garrisoned post for the future guidance of officers of the Army when providing themselves with olive-drab uniforms. To prevent unnecessary hardship, officers will be permitted to wear out such olive-drab uniforms as they now possess. (Cir. 48, W. D., 1907.)

Standard sample of braid to be similarly furnished. (Indorsement of Q. M. General, May 16, 1908; 12422, O. I. G.)

1556. A set of standard patterns of officers' uniforms will be kept in the office of the chief quartermaster of every territorial division for examination by officers. (U. R., 45.)

1557. Alterations will not be made in any article of the uniform that will result in a material change from the cut prescribed for it in regulations; nor will hooks be placed on the front of the coat below the buttons. Company commanders will exercise personal supervision over the fitting of the uniforms of the men of their companies, and permit only such changes as will insure a proper fit without disturbing the general appearance of the uniform. (U. R., 4.)

1558. Enlisted men will not be permitted to wear articles of the uniform other than those furnished to the organization to which they belong. (U. R., 48.)

1559. Enlisted men will not be permitted to wear any articles of uniform which are not furnished by the Quartermaster's Department. (U. R., 48.)

1561. Suspenders, when worn, must not be visible. (U. R., 109.)

1563. For inspection of the dress of enlisted men before leaving on, and after returning from, pass and for responsibilities of officers for the appearance of enlisted men in garrison and on pass, etc., see U. R., 39.

1564. Articles of clothing specially provided for troops stationed in Alaska; how issued, etc. (G. O. 67, W. D., 1911, p. 5.)

1565. When changes or modifications are made in articles of clothing or equipage, issues to the Regular Army and Organized Militia of the kinds and patterns then on hand will be continued until the supply thereof is exhausted; and whenever any particular kind or size of articles of clothing or equipage that has been modified is exhausted, requisitions for that kind or size will be filled from the new pattern that may be adopted. (U. R., 8.)

1566. A sample of each size of garment used at the post will be furnished to post quartermasters for the use of organization commanders in "trying on" the garments until a satisfactory fit is secured and the soldier's record of sizes of clothing is correct. (U. R., 37.)

1567. It is desired that company commanders shall carefully scrutinize issues and endeavor to prevent enlisted men from drawing any quantities of clothing in excess of their actual needs. While existing orders are not intended to limit the soldier to an exact number of articles, yet, it is thought that the allowance as prescribed is sufficient for all intents and purposes except in extraordinary cases. (Q. M. G., Jan. 20, 1909; 12803, O. I. G.)

1568. In settling the clothing accounts of enlisted men on the first settlement date following enlistment, credit for the annual allowance should be computed at the rate of 30 days to each month, and the same rule obtains in the settlement for the period from last regular settlement date to the date of discharge. For example: A soldier enlisting on the 3d day of March would, on the settlement date, June 30, be entitled to three times the monthly share of the annual allowance and 28 times the daily share of the annual allowance. Similarly, a soldier discharged on March 3 would be entitled to two times the monthly share of the annual allowance and three times the daily share of said allowance. The tables specifying the money allowance for clothing contained in the orders issued since the present clothing system was adopted show that the daily share of both the initial and annual allowance is computed on the basis of 30 days to each month, and it is contemplated that credit be extended accordingly. (Paymaster General, May 9, 1910; 14167, O. I. G.)

1569. Clothing issued to a soldier whose enlistment was fraudulent and who was discharged without honor and without final statements is the property of the United States and should be retained and used. (Cir. 36, W. D., 1910.)

1570. For Army Nurse Corps (female). (M. M. D., 83-87.)

VETERINARIANS.

1572. Of cavalry and field artillery: Duties. (A. R., 90, 91.) Status as to pay, allowances, and retirement. (G. O. 45, W. D., 1911, p. 10; A. R., 89.) Come within the operation of the act approved May 11, 1908, as to death benefit to widow or other person previously designated. (Cir. 81, W. D., 1908.) Status with reference to mounts, horse equipments, and forage. (Cir. 5, W. D., 1909.) To carry revolvers and ammunition when on field duty. (G. O. 39, W. D., 1910.) Course in revolver range practice. (G. O. 39, W. D., 1910.)

1573. A veterinarian of cavalry or artillery is allowed by law the pay and allowances of a second lieutenant. He is given rank by G. O. 39, A. G. O., 1902, next after a second lieutenant, and the character of his duties is such as to require him to give orders to enlisted men. He is therefore entitled to receive the customary salute from enlisted men. (Cir. 18, A. G. O., 1902.)

1574. Veterinarians are not competent to sit as members of courts-martial or perform any of the duties which are expressly required by law to be performed by commissioned officers. As their status is assimilated to that of commissioned officers, however, they are eligible for detail as members of boards of survey or councils of administration, and may, when no commissioned officer is available, serve as exchange officers or post treasurers and may witness payments to enlisted men. (Cir. 30, A. G. O., 1901.)

1576. Veterinary supplies.—Supply table, including instruments and dispensary equipments for veterinary hospitals, veterinarian's

1577. Veterinary hospital, where authorized. (A. R. 92.)

WATER SUPPLY, SEWERAGE, HEATING AND LIGHTING PLANTS.

1578. No changes in or extensions of systems of water supply, sewerage, plumbing, heating, gas or electric lighting will be made at military posts or in any buildings thereat, nor will existing sewer, water, gas or electric lighting mains be tapped for supplying additional service without proper authority from the War Department. (G. O. 163, W. D., 1908.)

1579. Analysis of water of a permanent post or camp in the United States. (Cir. 58, W. D., 1909.)

1580. Sanitation of camps.—Sanitary rules to be observed in the selection of camp sites and the establishment of camps. (F. S. R., 185-190.) Odorless excavating tank wagon, urinals, and latrines. (G. O. 170, A. G. O., 1899.)

1581. Rules and directions for care of steam-heating plants. (Cir. 1, A. G. O., 1902.)

APPENDIX.

FORM FOR REPORT OF AN INSPECTION OF A GARRISONED POST AND FORM FOR STATEMENT OF IRREGULARITIES AND DEFICIENCIES.

DIRECTIONS.

1. "The written reports of inspectors general and acting inspectors general will set forth a correct return of the troops, the number present at and absent from the station and the absentees from inspection, and whether irregularities, etc., reported at last inspection, have been remedied; after which will follow a statement of the results of the inspection, dealing only with defects, deficiencies, irregularities, recommendations, and commendations whereof the various items will be paragraphed and stated separately. These items will be grouped under the department within whose sphere the responsibility for the conditions stated falls, viz.: Commanding officer, Quartermaster's Department, Corps of Engineers, etc. Brief statement will be made of the various drills and exercises held for the inspector and the report concluded with an exposition of the conclusions arrived at as to the military efficiency, discipline, and instruction of the command." (A. R., 912.)

2. Reports of inspections of troops will contain a statement of the names of the various drills from the setting up exercises to the evolutions of the highest organization examined by the inspector. A similar statement will recite the tests of the classes in signaling and the Hospital Corps in litter-bearer drill and first aid to the wounded.

3. If the number and percentage of desertions are abnormal, special inquiry as to the cause therefor will be made and the result briefly reported. (A. R., 913, sec. 7.)

4. It is not necessary to recite affirmatively, or in detail, that the subjects enumerated in A. R., 913, were embraced in the inspection. The results of the inspection are assumed to have been satisfactory unless otherwise stated; and the report of those results should deal only with defects, deficiencies, irregularities, recommendations, and commendations.

5. Trivial matters verbally called to attention of officers concerned and corrected on the spot should not be included either in the report or list of irregularities, but all defects, deficiencies, and irregularities of sufficient importance to be recorded in the report should also be included in the list furnished the commanding officer under A. R. 915.

6. It is desired that inspectors mention in their reports, by name, officers who are deserving of commendation for the superior condition of their commands. (10334-A, O. I. G.)

7. When public buildings are criticised, etc., in an inspection report, the designation and number (see A. R. 1035) should be given, as Barracks Nos. 5, 6; Officers' Quarters Nos. 7, 8; Granary No. 9, etc. (52-A, 2, and 13505, O. I. G.)

8. Inspectors should personally investigate complaints, especially those which may require action of the War Department, such as general unfitness of recruits received, inferior quality of supplies, etc.; and irregularities and deficiencies, such as failure of the supply departments to meet conditions, pitting of guns, etc.; and when such matters are of sufficient importance to record them in the inspection report, they will state their own views and conclusions.

9. Recommendations of inspectors on matters where initiative remedial action is within the province of the commanding officer (as, for example, "It is recommended that a crematory be constructed at this post for the burning of garbage") should be included in the list of defects, etc., furnished the commanding officer, as well as in the report. Experience has shown that when this is not done inspectors' recommendations often reach this (Inspector General's) office without remark from any commander or staff officer, which fact leaves the subject matter incomplete for consideration by the War Department.

10. When an irregularity or deficiency, based on a regulation or order, is reported, the specific regulation or order should be cited in the inspection report and in the list of irregularities and deficiencies furnished the commanding officer. (Cir. letter, O. I. G., July 18, 1908; 12519, O. I. G.)

11. The sheets of Forms 5 and 5a, Inspector General's Department (memoranda for inspection of posts), except the folded ones of Form 5, are not to be distributed by the inspector, but will be kept in his personal possession for his notes; nor are categorical answers to the memoranda thereon to be sought or accepted by him, unless it is impossible to otherwise secure the information desired. The sheets are not to form part of his report, but will be filed in his office.

12. When an inspector furnishes the commanding officer with a list of irregularities or deficiencies under A. R., 915, his report of inspection will conclude with a statement to the effect that such list has been furnished.

FORM FOR REPORT OF AN INSPECTION OF A GARRISONED POST.

Fort _____,

ADJUTANT GENERAL,

SIR: I have the honor to submit report of an inspection of _____, made _____.

The last inspection by an officer of the Inspector General's Department was made _____, by _____.

The post is commanded by _____, and is garrisoned by Headquarters, Band, and Troops A, B, C, and D, First Cavalry; the First and Second Companies, Coast Artillery Corps; Companies A and B, First Infantry, and detachments of the Staff Corps and Departments, aggregating 32 officers and 595 enlisted men, of whom 27 officers and 585 enlisted men were present at post and 24 officers and 507 enlisted men present in ranks at inspection.

Absentees from inspection are accounted for as follows:

OFFICERS.

Present at post.—Guard, 1; officer of the day, 1; sick, 1. Total, 3. Percentage absent from inspection of total officers present at post, 11.11.

Absent from post.—(By name, rank, and regiment or corps or department.)

(1) Maj. _____, D. S. since _____, at _____ as member of G. C. M.

(2) Capt. _____, D. S. since _____, at _____ as member of General Staff Corps.

(3) First Lieut. _____, D. S. since _____, at _____ as Captain P. S.

(4) Capt. _____, leave of absence for two months, since _____.

(5) Second Lieut. _____, leave of absence for one month, since _____.

Total officers absent from post, 5. Percentage absent from post of total officers present and absent, 15.62.

ENLISTED MEN.

Present at post.—Guard, 40; sick, 10; arrest and confinement, 12; extra duty, 3; special duty, 13. Total, 78. Percentage absent from inspection of total enlisted men present at post, 13.33.

Absent from post.—D. S., 5; furlough, 4; without leave, 1. Total, 10. Percentage absent from post of total enlisted men present and absent, 1.68.

The irregularities and deficiencies reported at last inspection have been remedied, except that an additional wagon shed is still needed. See defect No. 10, this inspection.

The results of the inspection are as follows:

COMMANDING OFFICER.

(Under this heading are grouped all items which do not specifically concern a bureau of the War Department.)

1. Troops A and B, First Cavalry: Not well drilled in horsemanship; such movements as passaging and turning on the forehand were very poor.

2. First Company, Coast Artillery Corps: Unauthorized expenditure from company fund as follows: January 8, 1907, carving set, $2.75. (A. R., 322; G. O. 67, W. D., 1911.)

3. Company A, First Infantry: Correspondence book not indexed. (G. O. 109, W. D., 1906.)

4. Post exchange: No printed or written price list posted in lunch room. (Par. 12, G. O. 176, W. D., 1909.)

5. No post garden (A. R., 352). An investigation has convinced the inspector that the cultivation of a garden is practicable.

Capt. _____ is reported by the post commander and surgeon to be incapacitated for service, both mentally and physically. A special report in his case has been submitted to the division commander under A. R., 914.

During the past 12 months the desertions from the command, except the two companies, Coast Artillery Corps, were not abnormal in number.

The First Company, Coast Artillery Corps, had 20 desertions during that period, or 14.5 per cent of the aggregate number of enlisted men on the rolls; and the Second Company, Coast Artillery Corps, 17 desertions, or 12.8 per cent. Special inquiry into the causes therefor was made.

(Here will follow a brief statement of the result of the special inquiry as required by A. R., 913, sec. 7, with inspector's conclusions. If any irregularities are developed they should be included in the list furnished the commanding officer under A. R., 915, as, for example, No. 6.)

6. The abnormal desertions seem to be largely attributable to unnecessary restraints and harsh discipline.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT.

7. The First and Second Companies, Coast Artillery Corps, need 23 and 20 recruits, respectively. These companies have considerable hard work to perform in caring for the armament, etc., and should be kept up to the authorized strength as closely as possible.

QUARTERMASTER'S DEPARTMENT.

8. Record book of barracks and quarters not kept posted up—no entries during past 12 months. (A. R., 1035.)

9. New floors are needed in barracks (building No. 6) of Troops A and B, First Cavalry.

10. An additional wagon shed is badly needed. Much of the wheeled transportation has to be kept in the open, with consequent deterioration. It is recommended that an additional shed be authorized. This defect was reported at last inspection.

11. The general condition of the public buildings of the post as to repair is poor. They are mostly in need of painting and general repairs.

12. Much complaint was made by the companies in regard to the new marching shoe, which, after little wear, appears to rip, the sole separating from the upper at the toe. I examined several pairs which had been worn about 20 days, including a 2 days' practice march, and, as the leather seems to be of excellent quality, am of opinion that the defect is due to inferior quality of the sewing material used.

SUBSISTENCE DEPARTMENT.

13. A shipment of 500 pounds of baking powder received from _____ on November, 10, 1906, is reported to be of inferior quality.

(Here should follow such information as will enable the Commissary General to take action, such as by whom, when and where purchased, name of firm, marks on package, etc.; also the inspector's opinion and recommendation.)

The excellent condition of this department throughout reflects great credit on Capt. _____, the commissary, who impressed me as a very energetic and capable officer.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

14. The hospital, which was built for a four-company post, is entirely too small for the present and prospective garrisons. It should be enlarged to at least double its present capacity.

15. Gross receipts for sales of vegetables from hospital garden during June and July, 1911, not taken up in the statements of the hospital fund for these months. Pay of gardener, $6 per month, for which no authority of the chief surgeon could be found, was deducted, and only the balance taken up, the payments to the gardener not appearing in the monthly statements. (M. M. D., 307, 314.)

16. Ambulance driver not designated by the surgeon to care for the ambulance, its equipment, and harness. (A. R., 1452.)

17. Ambulance harness in poor condition—needs cleaning and oiling.

CORPS OF ENGINEERS.

18. Galleries of Battery _____ leak badly.

19. Magazine of Battery _____ unserviceable on account of excessive dampness.

20. No lights on loading platforms of Batteries _____.

21. All wires forming the system of communications are aerial and exposed to hostile fire—one shell from an enemy's ships might paralyze the whole system. Provision should be made for underground lines. (This is an example of an item that affects two staff departments (Engineer and Signal), and should be stated under each.)

ORDNANCE DEPARTMENT.

22. It was reported to me that a number of cocking pieces of the new rifle had been broken at target practice. Several of these were examined by me. It is the general opinion, in which I concur, of officers and men whom I questioned on the subject that the defect is not attributable to any local cause. A diagram is attached showing the exact location of the break.

23. There is no ordnance sergeant at this post. One is badly needed.

24. The following surplus ordnance stores are on hand, viz: [State kind, quantity, and condition.]

SIGNAL CORPS.

25. All wires forming the system of communications are aerial and exposed to hostile fire—one shell from an enemy's ships might paralyze the whole system. Provision should be made for underground lines.

26. There is no telephonic connection with the tide station. (C. A. M. 4, W. D., 1909.)

FIELD OFFICERS.

COMMENDATION.

The affairs at the post are well administered, and harmony and good feeling prevail.

INSPECTION EXERCISES.

The following drills and inspection exercises were held, viz: (State briefly the various drills and exercises held for the inspector.)

CONCLUSIONS.

(As to military efficiency, discipline, and instruction of the command.)

A statement, in writing, of irregularities and deficiencies has been furnished the commanding officer under A. R., 915. They are contained in the numbered paragraphs of this report.

Very respectfully,

Major, Inspector General.

FORM FOR STATEMENT OF IRREGULARITIES AND DEFICIENCIES.

(See par. 124, ante.)

Fort _____,

COMMANDING OFFICER,

Fort _____.

SIR: Under the provisions of A. R., 915, I have the honor to furnish you the following list of irregularities and deficiencies observed during the recent inspection of your post:

COMMANDING OFFICER.

1. Troops A and B, First Cavalry: Not well drilled in horsemanship, such movements as passaging and turning on the forehand were very poor.
2. First Company, Coast Artillery Corps: Unauthorized expenditure from company fund, as follows: January 8, 1907, carving set, $2.75. (A. R., 322; G. O., 67, W. D., 1911.)
3. Company A, First Infantry: Correspondence book not indexed. (G. O., 109, W. D., 1906.)
4. Post exchange: No printed or written price list posted in lunch room. (Par. 12, G. O., 176, W. D., 1909.)
5. No post garden. (A. R., 352.) An investigation has convinced the inspector that the cultivation of a garden is practicable.
6. The abnormal desertions from the First and Second Companies, Coast Artillery Corps, during the past 12 months, seem to be largely attributable to unnecessary restraints and harsh discipline.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT.

7. The First and Second Companies, Coast Artillery Corps, need 23 and 20 recruits, respectively. These companies have considerable hard work to perform in caring for the armament, etc., and should be kept up to the authorized strength as closely as possible.

QUARTERMASTER'S DEPARTMENT.

8. Record book of barracks and quarters not kept posted up—no entries during past 12 months. (A. R., 1035.)
9. New floors are needed in barracks (building No. 6) of Troops A and B, First Cavalry.
10. An additional wagon shed is badly needed. Much of the wheeled transportation has to be kept in the open, with consequent deterioration. It is recommended that an additional shed be authorized. This defect was reported at last inspection.
11. The general condition of the public buildings of the post as to repair is poor. They are mostly in need of painting and general repairs.
12. Much complaint was made by the companies in regard to the new marching shoe, which, after little wear, appears to rip, the sole separating from the upper at the toe.

SUBSISTENCE DEPARTMENT.

13. A shipment of 500 pounds of baking powder received from _____ on November 10, 1906, is reported to be of inferior quality.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

14. The hospital, which was built for a four-company post, is entirely too small for the present and prospective garrisons. It should be enlarged to at least double its present capacity.

15. Gross receipts for sales of vegetables from hospital garden during June and July, 1911, not taken up in the statements of the hospital fund for these months. Pay of gardener, $6 per month, for which no authority of the chief surgeon could be found, was deducted and only the balance taken up, the payments to the gardener not appearing in the monthly statements. (M. M. D., 307, 314.)

16. Ambulance driver not designated by the surgeon to care for the ambulance, its equipment, and harness. (A. R., 1452.)

17. Ambulance harness in poor condition—needs cleaning and oiling.

CORPS OF ENGINEERS.

18. Galleries of Battery _____ leak badly.

19. Magazine of Battery _____ unserviceable on account of excessive dampness.

20. No lights on loading platforms of Batteries _____.

21. All wires forming the system of communications are aerial and exposed to hostile fire—one shell from an enemy's ships might paralyze the whole system. Provision should be made for underground lines.

ORDNANCE DEPARTMENT.

22. It was reported that a number of cocking pieces of the new rifle had been broken at target practice.

23. There is no ordnance sergeant at this post. One is badly needed.

24. The following surplus ordnance stores are on hand, viz: (State kind, quantity, and condition.)

SIGNAL CORPS.

25. All wires forming the system of communications are aerial and exposed to hostile fire—one shell from an enemy's ships might paralyze the whole system. Provision should be made for underground lines.

26. There is no telephonic connection with the tide station. (C. A. M. 4, W. D., 1909.)

Your attention is invited to the requirements of A. R., 915, and Circular 14, War Department, 1906.

Very respectfully,

Major, Inspector General.
